

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE

COMMUNIST PLOTS AND DISORDERS IN RUHR VALLEY FORCE PREMIER POINCARE TO TENDER RESIGNATION

War Clouds Looming on Greco-Turk Front

200,000 GREEK SOLDIERS AWAIT ATTACK OF TURKS

Grecian Diplomats Claim Entire Turkish Division Secretly Concentrated on Maritza Front

FANATICS FEARED IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Plans for Removing the Women, Children and Non-Combatants Are in Hands of Residents.

London, May 24.—With martial preparations under way on both sides of the Aegean sea, Greco-Turk hostilities again loom in the Near East.

War hangs on the question of reparations Turkey demands from Greece at the Lausanne conference.

Greece diplomats claim that an entire Turkish division has crossed Thrace in the last few days and been secretly concentrated on the Maritza front. They assert that Turkish troops are in bad condition, however, while saying that 200,000 well-equi-ped Greek soldiers confront them.

Constantinople dispatches report that the steel spiked masts of Greek warships (which are old U. S. navy vessels sold to Greece) have been sighted hovering threateningly off the Dardanelles.

Turks hope that in the event of hostilities Refet Pascha, now commanding Kemalist troops in Oriental Thrace, will be able to hold the Ma-ritza line until Nur Ed Din brings up the first Kemalist army corps, now concentrated on the Ismed peninsula, within striking distance of Constantinople. It will be recalled that Refet succeeded in lengthily holding up the British advance in the Palestine campaign of 1917 on the Gaza front.

War Talk Rife.
War talk is rife in both Athens and Constantinople. General Plas-terias, lean, raven-haired veteran of 15 years of Oriental wars, and behind the scenes dictator of Greek policy in his capacity as head of the triumvirate of the present revolutionary Greek government, says:

"We wait only until Sunday for discussion of the indemnity.
The Greek delegation has been instructed to leave Lausanne if the conference decides that we must pay an indemnity."

At Salonika, base of the Greek army in western Thrace, Generalissimo Pangalos, in an interview, said:
"Everything is now ready. I have only to press the button for moving the whole Greek line forward. Our patience is becoming exhausted. We are willing, however, to make some modifications on behalf of peace."

It is reported from the Maritza front that Greek troops are impatient to advance. The Greek force, constituting the "iron divisions" which upheld the rear guard in the disastrous retreat from Anatolia, thus saving the entire Greek army, has been encamped on the barren wind-swept plains of Thrace throughout the winter.

Men in Fighting Trim.
Strengthened by reservists, drilled at Salonika, equipped with artillery and horses, furnished with new arms, the men are in fighting trim. Mystery has surrounded the source of the money that has enabled Pangalos to maintain his army.

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

FLORIDA COUNTY CONVICT LEASING SYSTEM OUTLAWED

Tallahassee, Fla., May 24.—Final passage of the bill to abolish the convict lease system was effected today when both houses agreed to the report of a conference committee.
The practice which has existed as a hangover from the former system of leasing state convicts, will be outlawed after January 1 next.

FARM CREDITS ACT FAILS TO BENEFIT PEANUT GROWERS

Arbitrary Ruling of Federal Loan Board Excludes Growers From Alleged Benefits of Bill.

BY A. D. FAIRBAIRN.

Washington, May 24.—When congress enacted the rural credits bill, known as the Lenroot-Anderson law,
it was believed that the growers of all substantial commodities could obtain credit through the agencies provided for the measure. It transpires, however, that the peanut growers of Georgia and other sections of the south are not going to be able to obtain any relief through the operation of the bill.
Congress did not specifically exclude the peanut growers from participation in the alleged benefits of the rural credits act, but the Federal Farm Loan board by an arbitrary ruling has declared that they could not qualify for consideration by the banks which will be established for the purpose of administering the measure.

It appears that congress has either by implication or specific provision given the farm loan board absolute authority to determine what growers and what products shall be given the benefits of the act.

Ruling Arcues Hostility.
The ruling of the board has wherever it is known aroused a great deal of hostility. Congressman Free, of California, who has a host of almond, peanut and walnut growers in his district, said today that the board had totally excluded from the benefits of the act all the growers of these commodities.

Asked what authority the board had to do this, Mr. Free answered that the ruling was arbitrary and that congress had never contemplated that the board would make such use of its powers.

"I think all agricultural products should be given the benefit of whatever relief or accommodation this law can extend," said Mr. Free; "but the federal farm loan board has already decided that peanuts, walnuts, beans and many other commodities can not be allowed the relief that a liberal administration of the law ought to provide."

Seek Liberal Interpretation.

Mr. Free will ask the delegation in congress from Georgia to co-operate with him and his colleague from California in an effort to obtain from the board a more liberal interpretation of the act.

He said if vegetables, peanuts and other farm products are not to share in the benefits of the act congress should so amend it as to compel the board to cease its discrimination against these commodities.

"This is not a question of partisan politics because the interests of Georgia and California in a matter of this kind are identical," said Mr.
Free. "Personally I think the ruling of the board is absurd and I am sure we who voted for the bill had no thought of creating an agency which

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

Tribute Is Paid To Henry Grady By Local Clubs

Sutton Recalls Hearing His Editorials From Constitution Years Ago.

BY LOY WARWICK, JR.
Atlanta bowed in reverence yesterday to the immortal memory of Dixie's greatest orator, journalist and statesman—Henry W. Grady.

Thursday marked the seventy-second birthday anniversary of the most brilliant star that ever shone in the southern heaven of great and good men.

Henry W. Grady—though his time was short—accomplished much. Many years have passed since this matchless man passed into the great beyond.

Continued on Page 2, Column 6.

G. O. P. STATEMENT ON REPARATIONS AROUSES PROTEST

Republican National Committee Forced to Retract Accusation Against European Nations.

INCIDENT SHAKES ADMINISTRATION

Democrats Charge Committee With Using Position to Interfere With Foreign Relations.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, May 24.—The republican national committee has been compelled by a protest from Secretary of State Hughes to withdraw a press statement in which the European nations are accused of dishonestly trying to "beat the United States out of every penny due it on the cost of its Rhine army."

This incident has shaken the administration and has brought John T.
Adams, chairman of the republican national committee, hurrying back to Washington. He will be here Friday morning and is expected to make an explanation at once to President
Harding and Secretary of State Hughes. The statement was issued by the publicity office of the national committee while Adams was absent from the city.

The democratic national committee seized upon the incident to charge the republican national committee with using its position to interfere with the conduct of the nation's foreign relations and to oppose the Harding-Hughes world court plan.

At Odds With President.
It is no secret in Washington that some officials at republican national committee headquarters are at odds with the president and Secretary of State Hughes regarding European cooperation. The official weekly publication of the committee has on numerous occasions bitterly denounced the European nations and urged the United States to remain completely aloof. Secretary Hughes has found these blunt utterances somewhat embarrassing in the conduct of state department negotiations.

The present statement came at a delicate moment in the Paris negotiations over the payment of the Rhine army costs. The state department had previously made the fact known to the Washington correspondents, but requested that no unfriendly tone be employed which might interfere with the successful completion of the negotiations.

Continued on Page 20, Column 2

DIXIE HIGHWAY MEETING BEGINS

Delegates to Convention Will Hear McAdoo Today—Brunswick Man Is Elected New Director.

BY O. J. WILLOUGHBY.

Editor Highways Department of the Constitution.

Chattanooga, May 24.—(Special.)— William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, will address the delegates attending the eighth annual convention of the Dixie Highway association here Friday. Mr. McAdoo will arrive early in the day, and the association is making every effort to have him remain for the banquet Friday evening.

North Georgia and Tennessee, which delayed many delegations, the convention opened Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock with good representation from the states through which this great highway passes.

The delegates were welcomed to Tennessee by Governor Austin Peay, who has opposed bond issues for road construction during his entire political career, but who during the course of his talk voiced the statement that if bonds were the only way to build better roads he was from now on in favor of bonds.

Plans for Roadwork.
J. G. Creveling, Tennessee's new commissioner of roads, outlined plans for the completion of that portion of

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

BOOTLEG FLEET LOSES 3 BOATS THROUGH CAPTURE

New York, May 24.—The coast guard cutter Seminole under command of Captain E. S. Addison, today brought in three motor boats captured on run row off the New Jersey coast. One of the boats contained a large quantity of liquor but the others were empty.

According to officers of the Seminole, the liquor-laden craft K-12125, was along side the French auxiliary schooner Gerberville, said to be the first French member of the rum fleet.

STREET RAILWAY IN NEED OF HELP SAYS CHAIRMAN

H. M. Atkinson Tells the Young Business Men Service Is Threatened
by Lax Laws.

Present conditions limiting the ability of the street railway company to keep step with the growth of the community are so alarming as to threaten serious injury to the growth of the city, H. M. Atkinson, chairman of the board of the Georgia Railway & Power company, told the Junior Chamber of Commerce in an address yesterday.

"Existing conditions are alarming and serious," Mr. Atkinson declared.
"If continued they will retard and injure the growth of the city. Right now other departments of the company are making up the loss in the street railway department. There is a limit to that must be reached and that limit is not far off."

Growth of City.
"The growth of the city is dependent on keeping its utilities in such condition that they will have a margin to maintain credit and secure additional capital with which to expand service each year. If a city grows the utilities must keep a step ahead of that growth. The street railway in Atlanta under present conditions cannot borrow a dollar of new capital." Think what that means."

At the conclusion of Mr. Atkinson's remarks a number of members of the Junior chamber expressed the desire to co-operate with the proposed transportation program in every way possible and, on motion of Frank Hooper, the president, was directed to appoint a committee to study the plan and make recommendations as to how the body can best proceed in the interests of the public.

The meeting of the junior chamber was presided over by Leon Williams, secretary. The guests were entertained with songs by Misses Ruth and Ruby Webb, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. W. R. McCol-lumb. They also heard a brief and witty address by Duke Meredith on "What Chance Has a Young Lawyer?"

Atkinson Talks.

Mr. Atkinson, who had been invited to make the principal address on the constructive plan filed with council for solving Atlanta's present and future transportation problem, was introduced by Alfred C. Newell, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, who paid enthusiastic tribute to Mr. Atkinson's disinterestedness.

Continued on Page 9, Column 1.

Continued on Page 9, Column 2.

Urges U. S. to End Chaos in Ruhr

Sir Gilbert Parker, famous novelist, whose fiction is a regular feature of The Constitution's Sunday Magazine, has written a special and timely article—an appeal to this country to put an end to the imbroglio in the Ruhr valley.
"England will suffer more than France through a reversal for the French in the Ruhr," he declares.

A Costly Mistake

is the way he puts the invasion of the German territory, and he says he voices the views of the British government and people. "Great Britain and France must be friends, and they are friends, and this Ruhr adventure cannot and must not break that friendship," he declares.
Read this remarkable article in

The Magazine
Next Sunday

Extra! Detectives Search for "Kurlie"

Continued on Page 22, Column 2.

WALKER - HOLDER PLEDGE HARMONY IN ROAD BUILDING

Leading County Officers Praise State Highway Department and Reply to Criticisms.

ADEQUATE SCHOOL FACILITIES URGED

Holder Outlines the Plans and Work of His Department and Pledges Full Co-operation in Work.

Walker to Support Harris for Senate

Americus, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—Speaking before 300 persons at a luncheon here today, Governor-elect Clifford M. Walker stated that he intended to support William J. Harris in his next race for the United States senate. The assertion followed a complimentary reference to Mr. Walker by a guest present who declared he proposed to support Walker as the next senator to succeed Harris.

Mr. Walker, after reiterating his former statement that he intended to retire at the expiration of the time he may remain in the governor's office, declared emphatically his intention to support Senator Harris.

Americus, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—Complete harmony between the state highway department, "as at present organized," and other state departments was seen in utterances here today before the convention of the Association of County Officers, by Governor-elect Clifford Walker and Chairman John N. Holder, of the state highway department.

In his address, Governor-elect Walker declared:
"At this time I would regret to see any dismemberment of the state highway department, as at present organized."

Mr. Holder followed this statement by Mr. Walker a short time later with the statement:
"The state highway department purposes to work in full harmony with the governor and other state authorities in the building and maintenance of highways in Georgia."

Governor-elect Walker devoted most of his address to a discussion of the tax situation in Georgia, declaring that "our fair state is being torn to pieces. There will be no ray of light in our future until the people get together and establish a favorable and fair tax system in Georgia."

Mr. Walker urged that the building of roads be carried on and that more adequate school facilities be established in all sections of the state. "The only inspiration that I needed along these lines was my recent trip through the New England states," the speaker declared. "There I noticed that the finest buildings in each town and city were the school buildings. We must have good schools, and plenty of

Continued on Page 9, Column 1.

Continued on Page 9, Column 2.

1 KILLED, 5 HURT WHEN CHEMICALS EXPLODE IN PLANT

Chicago, May 24.—One employee was fatally injured and five others were hurt, some seriously in an explosion in a laboratory of the plant of Bauer and Black, manufacturing chemists, late today.

Fire broke out after the explosion and one fireman was cut and bruised while fighting the blaze which was extinguished before it had reached large quantities of chemicals in the plant.

Miss Jeannette Laskey was the employee fatally hurt and died in a hospital a short time after the explosion.

MINERS TO FIGHT AGAINST REDUCING PRESENT SCALES

U. S. Coal Commission to Press Early Negotiations
in an Effort to Forestall Strikes.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.

Washington, May 24.—Early negotiations for new wage scales in the anthracite and bituminous fields, to forestall possibility of strikes, will be pressed by the United States coal commission, when John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, appears before it in the next few days to talk over conditions.

On the eve of Lewis' meeting with the commission, Ellis Searles, editor of the Mine Workers' Journal and spokesman for the miners, announced that representatives of the mine workers will go into the coming wage conference set against any reduction from the present scales.

Lewis will talk with union representatives from the various fields in order to get their general views as a basis for his conferences with members of the coal commission. On account of his lengthy tour abroad, Lewis has been out of touch with the situation here.

Whether mines in the anthracite and bituminous fields are going to demand wage raises Searles could not say. It has been generally supposed that increases would be asked on account of wage increases in nearly all other lines of industry in the last few months. But no reduction will be countenanced, Searles emphatically stated.

Expires August 31.

The wage agreement in the anthracite fields expires August 31. The bituminous contract lasts until April 1.
The coal commission is anxious to have negotiations begin far in advance to prevent as far as possible such deadlocks as resulted in the strikes last year. The commission has already urged upon the anthracite operators the necessity of an early wage conference.

The anthracite miners will formulate their demands at their general convention in Pennsylvania. The program of the bituminous workers will probably be adopted early next year, or perhaps the last of this year.

Rumors have been circulated that another coal strike was in prospect.
Searles said he does not look for one.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

LOUISIANA NAMES MEMORIAL FIGURES

Governor Parker Is First to Send State Selection of Generals for Stone Mountain Monument.

Louisiana is the first Confederate state to select its generals to be carved on the side of Stone Mountain in the great memorial panorama to the heroes of the "lost cause."

Hollins N. Randolph, president of the Stone Mountain Memorial association, Thursday announced that Louisiana's selection has been formally certified to the association by the state committee named for that purpose.
Governor John M. Parker, of Louisiana, in a letter so notified Mr. Randolph.

Enclosed in Governor Parker's letter was a transcript of the several meetings of the Louisiana committee at which they arrived at their selection of the five Louisiana Confederate generals, General P. G. T. Beauregard, General Leonidas Polk, General Fran-

Continued on Page 22, Column 2.

STEAMSHIP LINE CANCELS SAILINGS TO ALL U. S. PORTS

Spanish Royal Mail Line Discontinues Bookings to U. S. Owing to Dry Ship Ruling.

LIQUOR REQUIRED BY SPANISH LAW

All Ships to Be Diverted to Havana and Vera Cruz After June 11, Agent Asserts.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

New York, May 24.—The Spanish royal mail steamship line, operating between Barcelona and New York, has ordered discontinuance of all American sailings, Luis Llano, local agent for the company, announced tonight. The discontinuance was ordered because of the recent supreme court decision forbidding foreign vessels from bringing liquor into American territorial limits, he said.

The steamship, Prince De Satri-stegui, which will sail from Cadiz May 30 and is due in New York June 11, will be the last ship of the line to touch here, Llano said. All ships will be diverted to Havana and Vera Cruz after that date, he asserted.

"The company decided to cancel sailings because of the conflict between American and Spanish laws," said Llano. "The Spanish laws require us to carry liquor for the use of the crews, but the American laws forbid us to bring it within its territorial limits. The Prince De Satri-stegui will arrive dry and will leave here dry."

He indicated, however, that the ship would proceed to Cuba on its return trip. It would bring approximately 200 passengers he said, but many had cancelled passage when learning of the supreme court ruling.

Would-Be Suicide Discovers Folly Of Rash Attempt

Lincoln, Neb., May 24.—Pretty 22-year-old Violet Schmidt, the former Omaha society girl who attempted suicide Tuesday when refused readmittance to what seemed her only refuge—the state penitentiary—learned Wednesday of a large number of big-hearted men and women who want to give her a job or a home, regardless.

With these offers pouring in upon her, Violet admitted that she had been "very foolish." Her suicidal attempt, followed a series of reverses, including a prison sentence when she passed bad checks to pay a mother's funeral expenses, and ostracism by friends and men from whom she sought work as a stenographer when paroled.

Her desire to return to prison came after she had been forced to work as a domestic, an occupation which proved too heavy for her to continue.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

FRENCH PRESIDENT REFUSES TO ACCEPT ACTION OF LEADER

Millerand Backs the Anti-Communist Stand of the Premier—Senate Repudiates Justice Minister.

RUHR DISORDERS MENACING PEACE

Eleven Communists Dead, Seventy Wounded, Toll of Fierce Street Fighting in Rhineland.

and labor disorders flamed to the crisis point in France, Germany and Belgium today, forcing the resignation of Premier Poincare, of France, necessitating the calling to the colors of four new army classes in Belgium to cope with railway strike riots, and plunging the Ruhr into bloody combat.

Poincare's resignation was not accepted. President Millerand backed his anti-communist stand, and instructed him to remain in office. Poincare had resigned after the French senate had declared itself incompetent to try 20 communists charged with plotting to stir up resistance to the Ruhr occupation.

Paris, May 24.—A crisis arising from the trial of communists charged with sedition forced Premier Poincare to tender his resignation to President Millerand Thursday night after the senate had repudiated the minister of justice by a vote of 145 to 104.

Millerand, supporting Poincare's anti-communist policies, refused to accept the resignation.

unprecedented situation. Resignation of the cabinet was inevitable when Poincaré headed the delegation of statesmen that called upon President Millerand at the Elysee palace.

RED FLAG STILL FLIES OVER HEADQUARTERS.

Berlin, May 24.—The red flag still flies over the Gelsenkirchen office headquarters in the Ruhr where, under the charred timbers of the fire-swept roof, communist revolutionaries occupied the building.

Casualties in fierce street fighting total 11 communists dead and 70 wounded. Disorders, believed to be instigated by Moscow, blaze throughout the Rhineland.

In Gelsenkirchen the city hall is still unoccupied, and the city authorities are functioning while conferences are being held with the unions for a voluntary street police.

Communists themselves have started a red police force, dubbed the safety police. French troops, endeavoring to quell riots, bayoneted two municipal firemen, who are in the hospital.

Behind the veil of mystery and terror that shrouded the Ruhr Thursday night, the smoldering hate of the great industrial population was fanned to fury.

Food rioters at Gelsenkirchen had renewed plundering of shops throughout the afternoon. Rioters armed with clubs first demanded that shopkeepers reduce prices, and if refused, grabbed whatever was in sight.

Meanwhile other radical groups hunted down members of self-defense organizations and spirited them away.

Strikes Spread.

The strike spread throughout Gelsenkirchen, while at Dortmund all metal works and most colliers were closed. There, however, the day passed quietly, although radicals demanded the formation of volunteer police organizations composed solely of workers' representatives.

Negotiations were reopened to increase wages, for many hold that the cost of living is behind all disturbances, although it is suspected that soviet representatives helped to stir up discontent.

The Berlin cabinet in informal session decided that wages must be increased, especially in view of reports of indicated feeling in the Ruhr that capitalists were trying to place responsibility for the mark's collapse on the passive resistance policy of workers.

Communists have guaranteed to preserve order and stop plundering if the wages are increased and the demands for a volunteer police force granted. French troops at Dortmund offered a company of soldiers to protect the police, but the latter refused the offer. The news has not appeared so far in the German press, which seeks to show some league between the French and the communists.

Ruhr Reinforcements.

Nationalist secret self defense organizations are considering sending reinforcements to the Ruhr. The bloody events of the Gelsenkirchen tragedy are startling in view of the following facts:

According to well informed communist circles the soviet is inciting the Ruhr revolt.

Secret defense organizations, nonarchitecturally inclined, are trying to use the opportunity to utilize their well trained armed groups as "protection" against reds.

Moscow recently sent Karl Radek and others to the Ruhr to begin agitation, hoping, it is said, to start serious trouble within Germany, and French troops at Dortmund offered a company of soldiers to protect the police, but the latter refused the offer. The news has not appeared so far in the German press, which seeks to show some league between the French and the communists.

Storm Restaurant.

Thursday trouble again began in the morning hours when communists stormed and snatched the restaurant Mueller in Munkelstrasse, but the main action centered on police headquarters where early red patrols were still standing guard.

Smaller riots broke out in various workers' sections in the city and much food was stolen.

Berlin was faced with food riots Thursday when shops were plundered in an outbreak at the suburb of Neukolln in the afternoon. Angry workers' households, grabbed food and refused to pay. Police were summoned to drive them off.

Grave views were taken of this symptomatic demonstration, which may be the forerunner of other disorders in view of the fact that prices are skyrocketing following the mark's drop.

Wages however, remain at their former level, and the working classes suffer privation.

WAR LOOMS ON GRECO-TURK FRONT

Continued from First Page.

Greece to equip them in New England, French and American troops and units bought at government post-war sales.

Restless under frontier routine, they would welcome a dash for Constantinople, dreaming there to rebuild the empire of Constantine the great, with "the city" as Greeks call Constantinople, as its capital.

Angora has protested to the allies, claiming that the Greek warships, the Dardanelles are escorting transports.

Some optimism and much pessimism comes from Lausanne, optimists stating that the war talk is bluff leading up to a compromise, while pessimists assert that the Greek government has rejected the recent compromise which had the support of the Venizelos, and that a breakdown of the conference may be expected by the weekend.

Turk Patrols Active.

Constantinople, May 24.—Turkish patrols are arresting numerous Greek residents here, following gloomy predictions of a failure of the Lausanne conference and a renewal of fighting between Turkey and Greece.

It is believed that the arrests are intended to show Greece the danger in forcing war. Greek merchants, terrified, are beginning to leave the city.

The Spanish legation, which has charge of Greek interests here, has protested the arrests.

Meanwhile British residents are preparing plans for leaving the city if evacuation is necessary.

The Constantinople situation has long been fraught with danger. The gateway to southern Russia and the Mesopotamian oil fields, the port can not well be abandoned by the allies, even if war is resumed between Turkish and Greek forces.

At the present moment the city is under military control. British, French and Italian warships ride at anchor in the swift-flowing waters of the blue Bosphorus. American destroyers of the Black sea squadron are anchored off the Golden Horn.

Within the city of Pera the large foreign colony feels safe under the protection of the inter-allied military police, who maintain Greek patrols of British, French and Italian troops. American navy shore patrols are on duty at all hours.

Four Fanatics.

A renewal of the Greek-Turkish war, however, might force the defense of the city. It is feared that Moslem fanatics from Stambul might rush the Galata bridge to Pera in an endeavor to massacre Greeks and other Christians.

Plans for removing women, children and noncombatants of the British colony have long been in the hands of residents. Similar instructions were issued last year to noncombatants who, in the event of evacuation, were ordered to report with their families, hand baggage and sufficient food to last three days at various concentration points, including the American embassy and the Taxime hospital. Allied military officials had arranged to place cordons of troops along the Grand Rue de Pera and other main streets, under whose protection the foreigners could be marched to transports in the harbor and taken to safety.

Small caravans are at present stationed in Constantinople, heavy French forces are on duty at the Thedalia lines about sixty miles from the city, while British naval forces hold the city of Chanak and the Dardanelles, commanding the narrow strip of water beyond Gallipoli that is the gateway to Constantinople.

Untenable for War.

Experts, however, declare that the combined waters of the Dardanelles, Chanak bay and the Bosphorus would be untenable in time of war should land batteries fire on them from concealment behind the desert sand hills.

It is known that Mustafa Kemal Pasha has been active in reviewing and reinforcing his troops on the Ismed peninsula, within a few hours march of Scutari, the Asiatic shore city opposite Constantinople. Secret service agents of various governments have also declared that Kemal has recruited a secret underground army, civilian-led, in Constantinople itself, and that these men would immediately attempt to seize the city from within should Kemal give the order.

Adequate protection would be afforded to American residents, but it is believed that any endeavor of the allies to hold Pera against the Turks would result in fierce street fighting and the massacre of Greek and Levantine residents.

FARM CREDITS ACT FAILS TO BENEFIT

Continued from First Page.

Would serve only a portion of agricultural.

Believed in Measure.

"We believed that we were supporting a measure which would afford general agricultural relief."

The bill passed during the dying hours of the sixty-seventh congress. It was submitted to the house by the committee on banking and currency almost at the last moment and very little time was allowed for debate.

"Members who were rushed with work were obliged to depend on the good faith of the committee. They rightly judged that they would bring down the vials of farmer wrath upon their heads. So they rushed the Lenoir-Anderson bill through only to find that it is almost a futile document."

WATERING WHISKY IS FRAUD CHARGE; EIGHT CONVICTED

Philadelphia, May 24.—Matthew F. Griffin, former secret service operative in Philadelphia, was today sentenced to six months imprisonment for conspiring to defraud the government.

Griffin and seven others were convicted on March 22 on a charge of plotting to substitute water for alcohol and whisky under government bond.

Harold L. Smith, expert broker and former intercollegiate sprint champion, received a year and one day in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for his part in the conspiracy.

He is alleged to have originated the scheme to water the whisky which was to have been shipped to Greece.

John McManney, a former secret service man but later employed by Griffin in his private detective agency, and Herbert Simon, another of Griffin's employees, received one-year sentences.

Dr. George L. Kherilla, of New York, convicted of conspiracy in the same case, failed to appear for sentence. Three other defendants in the case are yet to be sentenced.

MINERS TO FIGHT AGAINST REDUCTION

Continued from First Page.

but on the other hand is hopeful of an agreement in both the anthracite and bituminous fields.

"The victory of the miners last year was a victory of reduction in wages all over the country. As soon as the miners had won their victory, general increases came in nearly all lines, led by an advance in the steel industry which has since been followed by another increase."

Hardly Attempted.

"With these increases before them, the operators would hardly attempt to cut the wages of mine workers," he said.

The influence of the coal commission is expected to be a help in forestalling a lockout at the coming wage conference.

For the first time the public had representatives who are watching the industrial struggle from the sidelines and possessing mass of information with which to gauge the respective claims of the two contending forces.

Nearly every day has brought the filing of new information with the commission, on one side or the other. An appeal was received Wednesday from coal miners in the non-union fields in Kentucky, who charged that gunning and spies were being used to prevent them from joining the United Mine Workers of America.

DIXIE HIGHWAY MEETING BEGINS

(Continued from First Page.)

both the eastern and western divisions of the Dixie highway along the Tennessee. Assurance was given that the stretch between Chattanooga and Monticello would be completed before the beginning of heavy tourist travel south this fall.

The only matter receiving executive action Thursday, except the election of officers, was the decision to hold open the matter of definitely establishing the route of the Dixie highway between Lexington and Cincinnati for another year.

F. E. Witte, of Brunswick, was elected to the directorate of the association at the executive session of the officers and directors Thursday. Very few changes were made in the directorate as a whole, Clark Howell and

W. T. Anderson both being re-elected as directors from Georgia.

Judge M. M. Allison was re-elected president, as were practically all of the former officers and directors.

John E. Lovell, of Chattanooga, was elected a vice president; succeeding Z. C. Patten, of Chattanooga, and Judge N. L. Bachman was elected a director for Tennessee; Hugh McDonald, of Fort Myers, was elected to the Florida directorate, and L. E. Padgett was elected a director to represent South Carolina.

W. G. Edens was elected to succeed Hon. McDill McCormick, of Illinois, and Senator S. M. Halston added to the Indiana representation on the board.

Delegations will be heard from at the meeting today. It is predicted that several questions as to the constitutionality of the road law will be brought up, as well as the report of the committee on the road law.

Now uncompleted, Frank B. Shutes, of Miami, was elected a vice president, S. A. Belcher and J. L. Earmann, of Florida, were re-elected.

The following is the complete list of officers and directors elected at the meeting:

President, M. M. Allison, Chattanooga; vice president, John Lovell, Chattanooga; secretary, Miss Maud Roberts, Chattanooga; treasurer, W. L. Long, Chattanooga. The directors elected are as follows:

Tennessee—A. F. Sanford, Knoxville; Richard Hardy, Chattanooga; T. R. Preston, Chattanooga; Mark Wilson, Chattanooga; E. D. Reed, Chattanooga; M. B. Goch, Chattanooga; M. M. Allison, Chattanooga; John E. Lovell, Chattanooga; W. R. Long, Chattanooga, and Judge N. L. Bachman, Chattanooga.

Georgia—W. T. Anderson, Macon; F. O. Miller, Jacksonville; Hugh McDonald, Fort Myers.

Florida—Frank B. Shutes, Miami; Fort Myers.

North Carolina—N. Buckner, Asheville; Dr. L. B. Morse, Chimney Rock.

South Carolina—L. E. Padgett, Edgefield.

Kentucky—H. B. Hanger, Richmond; Harvey Meyers, Covington; Dr. Ira M. Boswell, Georgetown.

Ohio—J. Stacy Hill, Dr. C. L. Bonfield, John L. Shuff, all of Cincinnati.

Indiana—Thomas Tagert, French Lick; S. M. Raulston, Indianapolis.

Illinois—Richard J. Finnegan, Chicago; William G. Edens, Chicago.

Michigan—P. T. Colgrove, Hastings.

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO HENRY GRADY (Continued from First Page.)

But his memory still lingers in the hearts of both north and south, and days may pass into years, and years into centuries, but never will that memory cease to live.

The memory of a man like Grady could never die. Humanity is not so modeled. Few men like him have been placed on this earth, and Atlanta is proud—proud of her rightful claim to honor his name.

As is grateful for Grady as she is proud of him—for that noble southern thought and labored for his south and Atlanta as long as his big heart beat within his bosom.

Memorial Meeting for Grady.

Members of the City club, the Writers' club and a representation from the Old Guard gathered in the rooms of the City club Thursday at noon to pay tribute to Grady.

John T. Boileau, Georgia's public service commissioner, speaking in language worthy of his subject, told of his accomplishments and beautiful service to the nation and his home.

"Henry Grady was one of the towering intellects of this republic," Commissioner Boileau declared in opening his talk, "and without the name of Grady the south would lose one of its greatest illuminaries. Grady awoke one morning and found himself famous. This was in 1880, when he delivered the powerful address before the New England Society of Boston. His appearance before that distinguished body of men was so impressive that he was overnight created a historic personage and a national figure."

"Grady, the imperial orator, swept with master hand all emotions of humanity. His tongue was of gold and uttered words from a golden heart. He gave the best he had to the service of his friends and there is nothing better than faithful service of the heart."

Shaped Public Opinion.

"He was a stalwart fortress of Georgia and the chief pillar of Georgia journalism. His pen was a torch of intelligence, and a light to civilization. It blazed with zeal and devotion."

"Grady's editorials were a great factor in shaping a lasting and beneficial public opinion. That America should possess a wise, humane and benevolent government was his greatest wish. His supreme consideration was the welfare of the republic and the happiness of its people."

Following Mr. Boileau's address, Willis A. Sutton, Atlanta superintendent of schools, made an impromptu speech in which he declared Grady to be the greatest man Atlanta ever produced.

In his talk Mr. Sutton said that he learned to read from The Constitution. His father read it—especially the editorial of Grady—and he is in esteem and love, next to the Bible, Grady's editorials were read to all the family. Mr. Sutton said, and Grady was presented to them as an ideal man, one that they might model their lives after.

The seventy-second year since the birth of Henry Woodfin Grady has begun, and with each passing day the memory of Grady and his southern hero will grow sweeter. All will remember and honor him as a man who lacked none of the qualifications of a servant of the highest praise and love.

STEWART'S Junior Shoe Dept.

The Billiken Shoe

THE NEW 'BILLIKENS'
For Boys and Girls
We can fit the youngsters in any of these dependable slippers:

Billiken
A Five-Room Apartment
A Room for Every Joy

This style in Patent, Tan and Dull Kid. Sizes 12 to 2.....$4.50

This style in Tan with Champagne strap. Sizes 8½ to 11½.....$4.00
Sizes 12 to 2.....$4.50

This style with white Nubuck vamp and Patent Quarter. Sizes 8½ to 11½.....$4.00
Sizes 12 to 2.....$4.50

This style in Patent, Tan and Dull Kid. Sizes 5 to 8.....$3.50
Sizes 8½ to 11½.....$4.00

This style in Patent vamp with white quarter. Sizes 8½ to 11½.....$4.00
Sizes 12 to 2.....$4.50

Play Oxfords in Brown or Black Calf— Sizes 4 to 8.....$3.50
Sizes 8½ to 11½.....$4.00
Sizes 12 to 2.....$4.50

Children's Sox 35c to $1.00 Pair

Growing Girls' Brown and Sand or Patent and Sand combinations.....$5.50

Growing Girls' Lace Oxfords in Brown or Black Calf. Sizes 2½ to 7.....$5.50

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
1122 N. STANLEY ST. N. W. ATLANTA, GA.

THE FOSTON BAKING CO.

STONE'S SPONGE CAKE

Sponge Cake
Round Cake—Not Iced
PURE FOOD GUARANTEE
25c

Nothing can surpass the tasty goodness of STONE'S SPONGE CAKE for dessert or lunches. It comes in round shape without icing, in square shape with a delicious icing on top, or in layers with pure, fresh cocoanut and creamy icing between the layers and on top.

The date perforated in the package guarantees freshness. Our Pure Food Guarantee insures the quality.

Ask Your Grocer For Stone's Sponge Cakes

ASK FOR AND GET SKILLFUL MACARONI

MACARONI

Commencements And The Demand On Us For Exquisite Silk Shirts

The New Ever-Ready Ones Have Just Arrived In Beautiful Colors And New Patterns In Jerseys—Mezzocrepes And Rich Mellowsun Silks—

Extra Values At $7.00 to $8.00

Initial Beltoigrams And Buckles—Heavy Sterling—Hickoks Best At $1.50. Appropriate Gift For The Boys—

Parks-Chambers-Hardwick Co.

YOUR FURNACE SHOULD BE SELECTED WITH UTMOST CARE

Your furnace more than any other necessity for a home should be selected with the greatest care. Every room in the house should be kept an even temperature to prevent colds and sickness, which are often times caused by going from hot into a cold room.

Moncrief furnaces cost but little to install, and yet their heating qualities and genuine economy have been proven by the test of time.

"A Moncrief in your basement means plenty of heat upstairs"

Only the highest quality of materials and first-class workmanship enter into its construction. Properly installed the Moncrief never fails to make good.

Write for our booklet, "The Modern Method of Heating."

Moncrief Furnace Co.
MANUFACTURERS OF WARM AIR FURNACES
62-66 Hemphill Avenue
Phones Hemlock 1282-1283

KAMPER'S Offering of Quality Foods and Drinks for the remainder of this week.

Special Offering COOLING DRINKS FOR WARM WEATHER
Keep a case in the refrigerator or ice box at all times. Refreshing and inexpensive.

Special for This Week
One case Free with each ten cases

PURA CLUBSODA

SAY RED ROCK
PLAIN

Long Green
CATERPILLAR TOMATOES

Coca-Cola
NuGrape

Orange-CRUSH
24 Bottles to the Case. Per Case.....$1.60
ASSORT THEM AS YOU LIKE
We will refund 50c when each case and bottles are returned.

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables
FRESH PINEAPPLES—Each.....20c
PINEAPPLE ORANGES—Dozen.....50c
Spinach—Peck.....20c
June Peas—3 qts. for.....25c
Butter Beans—Quart.....15c
Large New Potatoes—4 lbs. for.....25c

Fresh Tub Butter
Pound.....47c

Kefauver Farm Butter
1-lb. Prints.....50c

Special Sale of Strawberry Jell-O
Balance of this week
Three Packages for the Price of Two
Two packages for.....25c
And Another Package FREE

REPUBLIC APRICOTS—Something Extra Nice; 6 Cans for.....$1.00
PIN MONEY PURE CIDER VINEGAR—Quart Bottles.....40c
KIPPERED HERRING—Cans.....35c

"KAMPER'S BEST" Pastry FLOUR
12-lb. Bags.....75c
48-lb. Bags.....$2.85
24-lb. Bags.....$1.45
Barrels.....$9.95

KAMPER'S Special Coffee
Pound.....40c
3 pounds for.....$1.15

KAMPER'S Garden Tea
Sealed Packages
Pound.....79c

Phone Kamper's 492-498
HEmlock Peachtree
5000 Street

A Steak or Roast
from our meat department means the housewife's dinner problem solved.
—She knows our meats and fish are superior and can be cooked to make the meal a success.
—Our market—equally as to Fresh Fish, the Best Western and Georgia Meats, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits, Breads and Pastries—is ever the housewife's "faithful standby."

FULTON MARKET COMPANY
25-27 E. ALABAMA STREET
MAIN 1500

Convicted Slayer
In Insane Hospital
Escapes Institution
Birmingham, Ala., May 24.—Ed Crenshaw, convicted slayer of Harry Weston and his wife, Mrs. Rebecca Weston, of Ensley, who was afterwards committed to the Alabama State insane hospital at Tusculum, escaped from the institution yesterday, according to city and county authorities who learned of the escape late today.

CASH PAID FOR SCHOOL BOOKS GAVAN'S
71 Whitehall St.

EVANS' PETITION ASSAILS SIMMONS

Suit for $100,000 Instituted Against Emperor of Klan—Defamation of Character Charged.

Little Rock, May 24.—William J. Simmons, emperor of the Ku Klux Klan, against whom suit was filed here today by H. W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Klan, asking $100,000 for alleged defamation of character, arrived in Little Rock at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. When informed of the action against him he said he had not read the petition and had no comment to make at present. He had not been served with notice of the suit early this afternoon.

A telegram which Emperor Simmons is alleged to have sent to local newspapers for publication on May 13, according to the petition filed today, the telegram charged that Dr. Evans, during a period six months prior to the telegram, received money in excess of $100,000 belonging to the Klan and deposited it to his personal credit and appropriated it to his own use.

The telegram, it was set forth, was an answer to charges against Emperor Simmons by James A. Comer, grand dragon of the realm of Arkansas, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, that the Kamela, a women's organization founded by Simmons, was a "fee-grabbing scheme."

Another statement in the telegram, the petition sets forth, alleged that Dr. Evans charged to the Klan his personal living expenses, including house rent, grocery, light and fuel bills, and that he was splitting fees with his personal representatives in several states.

Dr. Evans in his petition states that the charges made against him by Emperor Simmons are false, and alleges that they were composed by the emperor with the malicious intent of injuring his character and attacking his reputation for honesty and integrity.

The basis for Dr. Evans' suit was published. Dr. Evans states that his name and reputation have been damaged to the extent of $100,000.

The suit was filed for Imperial Wizard Evans by J. A. Comer, who is an attorney. A statement covering the entire case was issued by Mr. Comer immediately after the filing of the suit.

Statement in Part.
The statement in part follows:
"From time to time have been asked about the disturbance at the imperial palace between Dr. H. W. Evans and Col. William Joseph Simmons. Evidently this inquiry comes from the fact that on the first day of April, 1923, a suit was brought by Colonel Simmons against Dr. Evans seeking to set aside the action of the klonovokation held on November, in which suit he averred that the proceedings were irregular and that on account thereof that he was still the imperial wizard. That controversy has been disposed of and there are no differences in the imperial palace, the controversy being settled and gone to decree, fixing the rights of all parties."

"When the klonovokation met, same was convened and called to order by Colonel Simmons."

"There was much discussion of a woman's organization on the floor of the klonovokation and a resolution was finally adopted to the effect that all klansmen would be requested to refrain from supporting, recognizing or in any wise taking part in any woman's organization whatsoever and, following this action of the convention, a resolution was adopted to the effect that a committee be appointed, of which E. Y. Clarke was to be chairman, with direction to investigate the need of a woman's organization and the advisability of creating one which the Klan would recognize and support as an auxiliary to the K. K. K. and to make its report on or about the first of May. This committee met on the 28th day of February, 1923, and E. Y. Clarke, the chairman thereof, submitted his report to the imperial wizard and the committee, furnishing them with information as he had assembled and recommended that an organization for women be created."

Organization Discussed.
"The details of such an organization were discussed at some length and the committee finally adjourned until the 26th day of March, when it again convened and recommended that the organization of a woman's division which should be an auxiliary to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan be created."

"It again adjourned to meet again on the second day of April on which day the committee again met and proceeded with the further discussion of the ways and means for the organization of a woman's department of the Klan which would operate in conjunction with the Klan."

"Colonel Simmons, finding himself morally bound to await the action of the committee created by the klonovokation in relation to the formation of a woman's organization, and in an effort to relieve himself of the obligation which rested upon him to abide by the acts of the said committee, brought the suit mentioned above and came forward with an order called Kamela. This order as such never has been charted, but H. 'Tom' Kight and his wife, Blanche Kight, and C. W. Beeson and his wife, Rowena Beeson, applied to the courts of Oklahoma for a charter in the name of W. A. P. Study club and later filed an amendment asking that the name be changed to Kamela. Colonel Simmons was morally bound, by the action of the klonovokation, just as all other klansmen were bound, and especially those men who were present and participated in the klonovokation, and he should have kept faith with the klonovokation just as all other klansmen and especially those participating in the klonovokation did do."

Kamela Recognition.
"Colonel Simmons, finding an opportunity to enrich his private estate, made a contract with the W. A. P. Study club, and later styled Kamela, whereby he is to receive for his acts in this regard and co-operation in the future the sum of $7500 per month and it is now being advertised through the offices of the Kamela and acquiesced in by Colonel Simmons that the order as Kamela is known as a companion order to the Klan and is recognized by the Klan. This of course is not true and the colonel should not press the matter after this fashion."

"There is no trouble in the Klan anywhere. The several klans of the nation are functioning in the most admirable way. There is no dissension among klansmen and the only dissension that might be said to exist at all is the dissension between Colonel Simmons and Dr. Evans, which has been brought about as hereinbefore indicated, but this does not in any way affect the operations of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

Unwilling to Comment.
In the absence of Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans, who was said to be in Virginia, attaches of the imperial palace of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan were unwilling to offer comment on the dispatches from Little Rock relating to the suit of Evans against Colonel Simmons.

Attorney Paul S. Etheridge, general counsel for the Klan, stated that he had not been aware of the suit until informed of it by press dispatches.

Status Granted To Opposite Sex
Arouses Protest
Minority Against Placing of Women on Committees of Church Assembly.

Montreal, N. C., May 24.—Although the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in its closing session here today issued instructions to its executive committees to add immediately not more than three women to the membership of each, the "forty-niners" opposing the recognition of women left a protest in the records tonight as they departed for home.

Opponents to the placing of women on the committee, thereby giving them a direct voice to the assembly went down in defeat yesterday by a vote of 140 to 48, despite the fact that a majority report of the committee on bills and overtures supported their contention. The protest was introduced by Dr. R. C. Reed, former moderator of Columbia, S. C.; Dr. A. M. Frazer, Staunton, Va.; Dr. W. C. Alexander, Nashville, Tenn., and others, just before the assembly adjourned.

"This protest is not based upon any want of recognition of the ability and good judgment, or consecration of women, nor upon any failure to appreciate the magnificent work the women are doing," the protest said. "It is based upon the following grounds:

"Only those should be placed on the executive committee who are eligible to membership in the assembly itself, as women are neither ministers nor ruling elders they are not eligible to membership in the assembly and therefore are not eligible to membership on the committee."

Forbidden in Bible.
"Membership on an executive committee is a position involving authority to rule. The Bible expressly forbids the women to exercise ecclesiastical authority over a man."

"The action is based on a wrong theory of human rights. The Creator has made the human race in two distinct and different sexes—male and female He created them. The difference is in the entire physical structure. This difference does not imply the inferiority of one sex to the other but it points out a different sphere of service. There is a world wide revolt against this divine ordinance and an effort to obliterate all the distinctions between the two sexes."

"In the judgment of the protestants, the assembly has done that which is in its essence, akin to this widespread and revolutionary movement and will make it easier to go further in the direction in the future. We disclaim the slightest intention of imputing the assembly any conscious sympathy with the movement referred to, but nevertheless, we believe the effect will be the same."

Reply to Protests.
Dr. Russell Cecil, Richmond, Va.; Dr. E. W. McCord, Rockbridge Baths, Va., and Judge S. F. Hobbs, Selma, Ala., in their reply to the protest, in behalf of the assembly declared that while the statements contained in the paper were appreciated, there was no word in the Bible or the laws of the assembly which would prevent women from becoming members of the executive committees and that the assembly had so ordered.

A substitute for Judge Hobbs' motion to instruct the committee to add immediately not more than three women, which would have delayed the appointments until next year was voted down and the Virginia motion passed. The assembly which came to an end today after a week's meeting here and which elected Dr. Alexander Sprunt, of Charleston, S. C., as moderator, will meet next year in San Antonio, Texas.

"The man who blows his own horn never makes any music that other people enjoy."—New Orleans States.

Farmer-Movie Party May Join in Battle Against New Time

Chicago, May 24.—The possibility of a farmer-movie party in which tillers of the soil and exhibitors of the films might merge in a battle against daylight saving laws, was suggested by speakers Wednesday at the convention of the Motion Picture re-elected president of the body.

Theater Owners of America. The association voted to continue its campaign against daylight saving.

"Daylight saving is no economy for us," one delegate said. "It sends the golfer to the links, the fisherman to the stream, the gardener to his back yard, and multitudes of mothers to the front porch with their sewing, when, without so much daylight after supper, these people would be glad to consider the movies."

Sydney Cohen, of New York, was re-elected president of the body.

First Visitor (on board ship): "I tell you what, wouldn't you like to hear those six-pounders roar?"
Second visitor: "No, I get enough of it. Our new baby's a 12-pounder."
—Buffalo Express.

You Know a "onie is Good."
when it makes you eat like a hungry boy and brings back the color to your cheeks. You can feel the strengthening, invigorating effect of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. 60c.—(adv.)

"Better See if the Motor Needs Oil"

Get in the habit of saying this to your dealer whenever you stop for gasoline, water or air. Remember, that the only way you can tell whether or not your motor needs oil is; first, by the simple way of looking at the gauge, and second, by the expensive way of finding out too late that cylinders have been scored and bearings burned thru your forgetting to keep up the supply of oil.

Sufficient quantity, the right quality, the proper weight or grade of oil, and the replacing of oil after it has been worn out by six or seven hundred miles of running—these are the important things to watch; and, given proper attention, you can avoid the bother and expense of most motor troubles.

Be safe—be sure—and be satisfied by putting nothing in your crank case but

STANOCOLA
Polarine
MOTOR OIL

CROWN Gasoline

Wherever you find Polarine on sale, that dealer can supply you with Crown Gasoline—best of all motor fuels.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
INCORPORATED IN KENTUCKY

Carlton's
For Quality and Value

$35 to $50

We have a lot of styles and a lot of fabrics for you to choose from at these prices. Conservative clothes as well as swanky models for the younger man, made by the foremost tailors.

Hanan Shoes $13.50 New Straws $2.50 to $6.00

Carlton's
36 Whitehall St.

Finer Sweaters at Reductions

- 115 $4.95 Sweaters, reduced to.....$3.89
- 215 $5.95 Sweaters, reduced to.....$4.89
- 64 $7.95 Sweaters, reduced to.....$5.89
- 20 $8.50 to $8.95 Sweaters, reduced to.....$6.89
- 74 $9.95 to $10.95 Sweaters, reduced to.....$7.89

—Included are fiber and wool jacquettes, fiber and wool golf coats, with and without sleeves, and fiber and wool slippers. In plain and fancy weaves. These sweaters come in every plain color and color combination imaginable!

To Wear With Your New Summer Sweaters—

Sport Skirts—Special Prices

SILK SPORT SKIRTS WOOL SPORT SKIRTS

—Box pleated and knife pleated skirts of Roshanara, Persian and Oriental design silks and self-plaid or striped silk skirtings in white and wanted colors.

$7.95

—Skirts of novelty, all-wool skirtings in wide stripe effects. These skirts are to be had in either knife or box pleated styles in pretty sweater matching colors.

$11.95

Ruffled Curtains

Make the Prettiest of Summer Window Hangings. These Are Sale Priced!

MORE than half the curtains we have sold during the past six weeks have been ruffled curtains. Women tell us they like them because they are so cool looking and that they are so easy to launder. Furthermore, they tell us that these May Festival Sale prices are the lowest they have encountered on ruffled curtains this season.

CURTAINS, $1.69 PR.
—$2.00 curtains of muslin with hem-stitched ruffle.
CURTAINS, $2.49 PR.
—$3.50 curtains of white voile with ruffle edges.
CURTAINS, $2.69 PR.
—$3.75 curtains of shower voile with ruffle edges.
CURTAINS, $2.98 PR.
—$3.75 curtains of barred or dotted grenadine.
CURTAINS, $3.98 PR.
—$5.00 curtains of extra fine barred white voile.

Pretty as It May Be, Your Sweater Will Be All the Prettier When You Wear One of These $5.95 to $6.50

Hand-Made Blouses At $3.95

THE blouse to bring out the good points of one's sweater must be white, hand-made and dainty as these blouses in the May Festival Sale are.

—You will find them fashioned of fine quality white French voile with collars, cuffs and front showing hand-drawn work, with here and there touches of hand-done embroidery and trimming of real baby Irish and filet lace.

—Their elaborate trimming, their hand-stitched seams—everything about them proclaims the fact that these are $5.95 to $6.50 blouses, even though the sale has made them $3.95.

—These come in all sizes from 34 to 44.

AGENTS
FOR BUTTERICK PATTERNS

High's
Phone 1061 Whitehall and Hunter Streets

AGENTS
FOR REDFERN
CORSETS

THE PERSHING POINT APARTMENTS

The South's Finest Apartment Building

The soft, luxuriant carpets in the hall and lounge rooms and the beautiful and comfortable furniture which will be used in the apartment are supplied by the Sterchi Furniture Company. It is the best that this representative furniture establishment can supply and that means that it is the best that the South affords.

Whether or not an apartment is a home depends very largely upon its decorations. The owners of the Pershing Point Apartments, realizing that their tenants would be satisfied with nothing short of the very best of decorations, are trusting this highly important matter to R. T. Lester. Long known as a decorator of exceptional ability, Mr. Lester has fully justified this reputation in the work he has given us.

The brick and hollow tile used in the Pershing Point Apartments was furnished by the Keeling-Cassidy Brick Co.

In presenting to Atlanta the Pershing Point Apartments, we feel that we are adding an institutional asset to Atlanta's civic life. We feel that buildings of this kind are essential to Atlanta's continued growth, and we believe that, regardless of how fine other apartment house buildings may be built during the next decade, that the Pershing Point Apartments will continue to occupy a commanding position among the buildings of its kind in the entire south.

If you live in the Pershing Point Apartments you will not be bothered by the delivery of ice. You will have no drip-pan to contend with, as each apartment will be supplied with a Kelvinator Refrigerating Machine. This machine fits into the ice compartment of an ordinary refrigerator. It maintains a temperature some ten degrees colder than would be possible by the use of ice. It supplies you with a practically unlimited amount of pure ice in cubes. It will freeze your ices, sherbets or custards. It requires from you no attention. It is electrically operated at an expense of approximately $3.00 per month. The machines are installed by the Baker-Kelvinator Company, of Atlanta, and offer a feature found in no other apartment in Atlanta.

The Pershing Point Apartments were designed by G. Lloyd Preacher and Company, of Atlanta, which means that they have in them all of the architectural art that it is possible for this distinguished firm of architects to put in them. The building, strictly fireproof throughout, is of reinforced concrete with exterior of buff brick, limestone and polychrome terra cotta. The first floor will contain the office and lobby, a physician's office and suite; and bachelor apartments. The second floor will contain a dining room, a serving pantry and kitchen, lounge rooms and a promenade. The six floors above will contain twelve apartments each of varying size. Each of these six floors will be identical and all as thoroughly modern as architectural ingenuity and the experience of Gude & Company in high-class construction can make them. Gude & Company have built many of the South's most famous buildings and their reputation for work of the very highest type was responsible for their selection as the builders of the South's finest apartment.

When you know that the plumbing fixtures are supplied by the Lowry Company, you know that they are as good as you can buy. From bath-room to kitchen, the plumbing will be of that unobtrusive efficiency that makes it so inconspicuous.

The efficiency of each apartment is greatly increased by the installation of double and twin MURPHY IN-A-DOOR BEDS of an attractive square-post design of hand-finished mahogany.

Tenants in the Pershing Point Apartments will have the service of a drug-store, which to all intents and purposes is actually located in the building. Coursey & Gordon, whose store joins the Pershing Point Apartments on the north, have arranged for a private entrance to their store from the lobby of the apartment. This is a privilege that would not have been granted to any drug-store whose services did not fully measure up to the high standards set for all features of Pershing Point service. We feel that we are very fortunate in having access to a store of the Coursey & Gordon class.

Such details as hardware are ordinarily given but little consideration in apartment house construction. In the Pershing Point Apartments, hardware, including locks and gas ranges, have been supplied by the Crumley-Sharp Hardware Company, one of the institutional assets of Atlanta and a firm whose reputation for handling quality merchandise has made them known throughout the South.

The bathrooms, the dining room, the promenade and terraces of the Pershing Point Apartments are finished with tile of the highest quality and most beautiful design. The Carmichael Tile Company, who supplied the tile used, have achieved an effect that is highly artistic and adds greatly to the utility and permanence of the building.

It is the intention of the owners and renting agents of the Pershing Point Apartments to give especial attention to the little details that so often make the difference between good service and poor. An example of this will be the free delivery each morning of The Atlanta Constitution, a paper that has for many years been a constructive force in the South and that has done its full part in the building of a city that makes apartments like the Pershing Point possible.

There is no more important detail in the construction of an apartment house than its elevator service. In selecting Otis elevators for the Pershing Point Apartments, the owners had a wide field from which to select. There are two passenger and one service elevator. These are grouped so as to give the most efficient service for both passenger travel and the delivery of supplies to the various apartments. These elevators represent the latest type of equipment for buildings of this size. The cars are finished to harmonize with the general decorative scheme of the building, and the whole equipment represents the last word in efficiency and durability.

GRANT-JETER CO., Exclusive Renting Agents

Agents For High Class Apartments

GRANT BUILDING

Lady Curzon Native Of Mobile; Daughter Of J. Monroe Hinds

Atlantans and other southerners will learn with considerable interest that Lady Curzon, wife of England's secretary of foreign affairs, whose appointment as premier of Great Britain was considered likely until this week, is a native of Mobile, Ala., and has a number of friends here.

Lady Curzon is the daughter of the late J. Monroe Hinds, of Mobile, where she was born and grew to young womanhood. Her husband, Lord Curzon, who was former viceroy of India, has attained considerable prestige as a world figure.

New Brunswick Records Daily

The Cotton Pickers

2413—"Snakes' Hips"
"I Never Miss the Sunshine"
Two Twinkling Fox Tots

The Cotton Pickers, like other famous dance orchestras, make records exclusively for Brunswick because Brunswick gives the truest, clearest and most perfect interpretations of this popular dance music. You'll enjoy these two exhilarating dance selections. Both are joyful with rhythm.

Something new every day

New Brunswick Records are now issued every day. No waiting. Any Brunswick dealer will gladly play them for you. Brunswick Records play on any phonograph, but best on The Brunswick.

Wanted---Your Car

Attention, Atlantans:

Your city will be host next week to 6,000 Kiwanis convention guests, including some 2,000 women. Hundreds of automobiles are needed to show them the sights and take them to the entertainments, where friends furnishing cars will be welcomed guests.

From a standpoint of civic pride, won't you telephone Walnut 4968 and offer your car with driver, or fill out the attached coupon and mail it today?

HENRY C. HEINZ, General Chairman.
J. SHARRARD KENNEDY, President.
W. TOM WINN, Chm. Auto Committee.

HANS O. HOEPPNER,
Room D, Hotel Ansley

I will furnish my passenger car for use of guests on days checked below:

SUN.	MON.	TUES.	WED.	THURS.
a.m.	a.m.	a.m.	a.m.	a.m.
p.m.	p.m.	p.m.	p.m.	p.m.

Signed.....

Phone

PYORRHEA GERM IS CONQUERED AT LAST

One of the most baffling problems that has engaged the attention of Medical Science has been the destruction of the germs of Pyorrhea, commonly known as Riggs' Disease.

THE PYORRHEA GERM

is found in the mouth of every human being six years old and upward. The problem was to find a preparation that would destroy the germ without injury to the tissues of the mouth and gums.

After numberless experiments, this has at last been accomplished in Alvo-Pyro, a preparation that meets every requirement and makes Pyorrhea absolutely impossible wherever Alvo-Pyro is faithfully used.

Alvo-Pyro is no experiment. It penetrates the tissues, heals sore and inflamed gums, searches out every minute seat of infection. The teeth are firmly fixed in their sockets, decay arrested and the teeth become sound and healthy.

Sold in Atlanta by:
CHAS. A. SMITH DRUG CO., 4-6 Peachtree Street.
COURSEY & GORDON, 1173 Peachtree Street.
MARSHALL & PENDERGRAST (3 Stores), 156 North Moreland Avenue, 286 North Boulevard, Emory University.
PROVANO'S WEST END PHARMACY, Gordon and Lee Streets.

Made by ALVO-PYRO Laboratories
BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FOR SALE
Flat newsprint paper suitable for small publishers and job printers. The price is right.
P. O. Box 1731, Atlanta, Ga.

PORTER PRESIDENT ATLANTA AD CLUB

Mrs. Caroline Thomas, First Woman Officer, Is Elected Thursday Night at Dinner Meeting.

Herbert Porter, advertising manager of the Georgian and American, Thursday night was elected president of the Advertising Club of Atlanta for the year beginning June 1. He will succeed R. Winston Harvey, president of the Harvey Advertising agency.

E. P. Wilson, advertising manager of the Davidson-Paxon-Stokes company, was chosen vice president. Miss Caroline Thomas, who served as a director in the club during the past year, was elected second vice president. She is the first woman to hold an executive office in the club. She is advertising manager for the McClure Ten Cent company, and is one of the best known women engaged in the advertising profession in the south.

Mr. Porter is prominent in civic activities. He was a vice president of the Ad club last year. He was formerly vice president of the Civic club.

The retiring vice president is LeRoy Rogers. While the elections were in progress Julian Boehm mystified the crowd with his wizardry and black magic. Miss Annie Johnson gave some excellent readings and declamations.

The following were elected to the board of directors: Mrs. Pearl Bagwell, LeRoy Rogers, Harry H. Johnson, Buford Goodwin, M. B. Crosby and Dave Webb.

OFFICER ARRESTS NEGRO ACCUSED OF SHOOTING HIM
A negro giving his name as Will Huff, and his home as 114 Elliott street, is being held by the police, suspected of being the one that shot and seriously wounded Patrolman J. W. Anderson, December 21, 1911.

The negro was arrested early Thursday morning by Officer Anderson, himself, on Edgewood avenue near Five Points. Anderson is positive in his identification of the negro, he says. The negro denies any knowledge of the shooting, but is said to have admitted leaving Atlanta about January 1, 1922, and remaining away for a year.

Officer Anderson was shot by a negro as he was attempting to arrest him at Edgewood avenue and Randolph street, December 21, 1921. Surgeons at the Grady hospital for several days thought the officer would die. After months of disability, he was able to resume his police duties, and has worked many hours overtime in civilian clothes in search of his assailant.

School Employment Service Will Assist High School Seniors
More than 200 of the 274 young men and women who will graduate from Atlanta high schools in a few days, will cease school work and complete their education in a practical way, by entering the business world. Many others will enter colleges and universities in the fall.

To those who contemplate business as a higher education, the Atlanta School Employment Service, under the direct supervision of Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, and sponsored by the junior division of the United States Employment Service, extends a helping hand.

The bureau's service is free, not only to public schools students and graduates, but to everybody. Miss Essie Roberts, secretary of the bureau, is preparing to handle the entire number of graduates in the matter of assisting them to secure positions for which they are fitted. The office is open each day at 409 Chamber of Commerce building, where applications will be received.

Atlanta business men are reminded by Superintendent Sutton and Miss Roberts to take advantage of this service. Letters are received daily from men and women who have been advanced to responsible positions, thanking the bureau officials for intelligent and efficient help in securing their first jobs, after they received blue-ribboned diplomas from Atlanta schools.

Hopeless of Recovering, Tuberculosis Patient Ends Life With Razor
Arthur Whitmeyer, 33, of 42 Bass street, Thursday morning committed suicide in the Little Hill sanatorium by slashing his throat from ear to ear with a razor. Despondency over tuberculosis, with which he was afflicted, is believed to have been the cause.

He was found in the bathroom by Addie May McCoy, maid at the sanatorium, a few minutes after he had entered presumably to take a shave. She summoned Dr. F. T. Hardin, of the hospital staff, who saw that medical aid would be of no avail. The Grady ambulance was summoned, but Whitmeyer died before it could reach the sanatorium.

Surviving Mr. Whitmeyer are his wife, one daughter, Miss Sarah Whitmeyer, two sons, Arthur Russell Whitmeyer and Winston Whitmeyer, four sisters, Mrs. Henry Eibel, Mrs. H. G. Lewis, Mrs. H. O. Trout and Miss Jimmie Whitmeyer. Also his grandmother, Mrs. K. P. Marbur.

Mr. Whitmeyer was for a number of years traveling salesman for the John Silvey company, resigning several months ago on account of failing health. His body was removed to the chapel of Harry G. Poole.

WORKMEN TRIM TREE OF LIMB; DAMAGE IS $250

"Woodman, spare that tree!" Had C. C. Pittman, contractor, ordered his carpenters to do thus, he would have been $250 richer. S. W. Bacon, well known Atlanta merchant, of 132 Crew street, has awarded $250 damages against Mr. Pittman, by Judge W. D. Ellis of the Fulton superior court, Wednesday, for cutting off a large limb on a highly prized tree in Mr. Bacon's yard, by some of the contractor's workmen.

Mr. Bacon, some months ago, engaged Mr. Pittman to undertake certain repairs and improvements on the Bacon home. In some manner, through misunderstanding orders, said to have been given by Mr. Pittman to his workmen, a large limb was severed from the shade tree. He accordingly brought suit against Mr. Pittman for $500 damages, and when the case came to trial in Judge Ellis' court, the jury awarded him $250.

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE EXERCISES ARE TODAY

Annual Meeting of Trustees Precedes Banquet to Seniors.

With the annual meeting of the board of trustees, the alumnae council meeting and the senior banquet to the senior class scheduled for Friday, the commencement exercises of Agnes Scott college will get under way today at 10 o'clock, when the trustees assemble.

The exercises of Saturday will include the alumnae luncheon to the senior class in the afternoon and the presentation of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in the evening by the "Blackfriars."

Dr. J. M. Vander Meulen, president of the Louisville, Ky., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning in the Decatur Presbyterian church.

Events of Monday will include the annual meeting of the alumnae association at 3 o'clock, the class day exercises at 4 o'clock and a concert by the girls club in the evening.

Degrees will be conferred upon members of the graduating class Tuesday morning at the conclusion of the address to the senior class by Dr. J. Sproule Lyons, of Atlanta.

Weather and Opinion And Official Forecaster Both Seem Unsettled

Showers tonight and Friday. This is the official forecast of the weather bureau. Upon second thought the observer relented somewhat, however, and amusingly said: "We have had quite enough of this damp weather, and I think Friday will see the clouds dispel to let through the good old Georgia sun once more."

It seems that atmospheric conditions are unsettled all over the cotton belt, and the farmers are having a hard time of it.

"What is the cause of the rather chilly winds that have been blowing over the city during the last twenty-four hours?" the weather man was asked.

This time he fixed the blame on the New England states, while yesterday it was Texas. "There has been a high atmospheric pressure in the New England states that has given us our northeast wind; combine that with the clouded sky and you have the reason for our cold spell. The sun never had a chance to break through those clouds on Thursday and we never got quite warmed up. It has been rather a cold season. It might be considered normal around Lake Ontario, but for Georgia, it has been too cold."

As far as the weatherman could see, there was no disturbance in sight anywhere in the upper regions. There are not going to be any violent or sudden changes, he said. Just a little more sunshine day by day was his final verdict.

STATISTICIAN GIVES POINTERS TO STUDENTS

Statistics as a guide to business conditions of the present and future were shown in the making by Ralph A. White, district manager of Edison's statistical organization, by the use of charts, to students of the Atlanta Opportunity school on Thursday morning. Students receive advice on the workings of stock markets.

20¢ each
Robin Hood
a brand new one, with a roll front.

LION COLLARS

Keep stomach sweet—liver active—bowels regular—only 25c.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

TREATED ONE WEEK FREE
Cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Dengue or Bilious Fever. It kills the germs that cause the fever.

Shave With Cuticura Soap The New Way Without Mgg

SCHOOL CHIEF LACKS TIME FOR INTERVIEWS

Superintendent Sutton Asks Parents to Talk to Teachers.

Superintendent Willis A. Sutton, of the Atlanta public schools, in a formal statement Thursday, calls upon parents whose children are enrolled in the various schools and who desire certain information to take up their matters with faculty members directly in charge of work instead of calling upon the superintendent.

"Did I ever tell you the story of the actor who could read a menu so as to make his audience weep? Student (strangely moved)—'He must have read the prices.'—Everybody's Magazine.

TECH FRESHMAN ORATORY CONTEST WON BY BARRETT

The Frederic J. Paxon medal for oration, given annually to a Georgia Tech freshman, was won by J. T. Barrett, a student of electrical engineering, it was announced Thursday. Cato Wilson, a graduate of Union High school at Leslie, won honorable mention.

Eliminations have been in progress for the past three weeks. In the finals were Louis Lyon, Orville E. Williams, W. M. Ware, Barrett and Wilson.

The contest was held under the auspices of the English department, Prof. W. D. Ferguson presiding. The judges were selected from the Georgia Tech faculty.

The first annual essay contest to be held by the Matheson Literary society, which was founded in honor of the former president of Georgia Tech, was won by C. R. Crowder, of Bullochville. Crowder is a graduate of Emory University academy, at Oxford.

STATE SCHOOL HEAD AT STONE MOUNTAIN

Dr. M. M. Parks, state school superintendent, was the principal speaker at the annual exercises of Stone Mountain High school, held in the high school auditorium Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Parks delivered a literary address, one of the few he has been able to make at commencement exercises this year. Because of the pressure of official duties, he has been compelled to refuse most of the invitations.

Able to sing two different notes at once, a London window cleaner has astonished experts with his marvelous voice.

Glenn Is Improving.
L. H. Glenn, general oil inspector for the state department of agriculture, was reported as resting easily Thursday after an operation for appendicitis performed late Wednesday. Mr. Glenn, one of the most popular officials of the department, was carried to the Davis-Fischer sanitarium Wednesday afternoon and operated on at 6 o'clock.

Plates Made and Delivered Same Day

Best Expert Dental Work

At Prices Most Reasonable

A GOOD SET OF TEETH FOR.....$10.00

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK, Per Tooth.....$ 5.00

All Other Dental Work at Prices in Proportion.

Lady Attendant.

ESTABLISHED 31 YEARS

Dr. E. G. Griffin's

Gate City Dental Rooms

63 1/2 Whitehall St.—Second Floor

Corner Whitehall and Hunter

Phone Main 1708—Hours 8 to 5:30

It's off with a bang!

EISEMAN'S REMOVAL SALE

WE are mighty happy at the way you men of Atlanta are responding to this really remarkable Removal Sale. The announcement in yesterday's paper told the whole story—about that new home of ours at 56-58 Peachtree Street—that's soon to be ready—and about the plan we had adopted to sell every piece of merchandise in stock before moving day rolls around. We knew you would appreciate the opportunity of buying Eiseman quality merchandise at such remarkably low prices—and this first day's business proves that we were right. It's a real opportunity, Men—take advantage of it.

Make it a point to come in today!

Men's Fine Suits

One lot of suits regularly priced to $35—reduced to	One lot of suits regularly priced to $45—reduced to	One lot of suits regularly priced to $60—reduced to
$23	$33	$43

This offering involves our entire stock of three-piece suits for men and young men; seasonable merchandise purchased during recent months. Included are the fine productions of The House of Kuppenheimer and other well-known makers.

---and right at the beginning of the season!

Straw Hats, $1.95-$2.95-$3.95

Here's proof of EISEMAN value! Cracker-Jack Straws! Every one of them 1923 models! The best of the season's styles in soft and stiff, rough and smooth braids. But go they must, along with the other items—that accounts for the price shrinkage. GET YOURS while they last!

<h3>Fine New Shirts</h3> $1.35-$2.35-$3.35 Best looking shirts you've ever seen! Dandy values—conservative patterns—and others with a real punch. You'll want a half dozen, sure.	<h3>Neckwear of Quality</h3> 59c-79c-$1.39 There's price reduction for you! Cut silks, knitted ties—every sort of neckwear you could imagine! And all priced at new low-level marks.
<h3>Athletic Union Suits</h3> 95c-$1.35 Cool, comfortable, better-than-ever values! That's the story—and we've got your size!	<h3>Fine Wool Hosiery</h3> 49c-79c-89c Cool days later—moving day now! That's the why of the low prices. The answer? BUY NOW!
<h3>Pull-Over Sweaters</h3> $4.95 They sell regularly up to $8.50—the saving is all yours.	<h3>Men's Coat Sweaters</h3> $7.95 Better pick yours out Friday—these are the $12.00 kind, men.

Come in and share in these bargains!

EISEMAN'S

"54TH YEAR"

132-134 PEACHTREE ST. :: OPPOSITE CANDLER BLDG.

Weak Arches

Do they bother you? How else besides muscular exercise can they become strong again?

The flexible Cantilever Shoe allows this necessary exercise. A snug-fitting arch gives the proper support with plenty of room for the toes. Come and feel it on your foot.

We Fit by X-Ray—The Perfect Way
Men's—Women's

Cantilever Shoe Store, Inc.

W. L. SCHILL, Manager
126 Peachtree Arcade
Atlanta 5655

Use Constitution Want Ads

OSTEOPATHS TO OPEN CONVENTION SATURDAY

Piedmont Hotel Will House State Meet—Speakers Are Numerous.

The Georgia Osteopathic association will hold its annual meeting at the Piedmont hotel Saturday. Besides the discussion of several technical subjects, a bright program of entertainment has been provided, including an entirely separate schedule of amusement for the ladies.

After the presidential address by Dr. C. N. Walker, Dr. E. E. Bragg will speak on "The Appendix." Dr. Hoyt B. Trimble on "Corrective Exercises," and Dr. W. E. Götter on "Anatomy and Function of the Lateral Cranial Nerve."

In the afternoon Dr. D. C. Forehand will address the meeting on

DRINK OR DRUG

POISONING requires ELIMINATION. The Best Treatment acts as an ANTIDOTE for those poisons, creates a bathing for drink or drugs, and overcomes the diseased condition. (No Hyosine used.) Dr. J. H. Conway, 10 years with the "Keeley" in charge Seal Institute, 229 Woodward Ave., Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

"McManis Table Technique," and Dr. John W. Phelps' subject will be "Specific Osteopathic Technique."

The Atlanta Osteopathic society conducts a free clinic at 400 Grant building, but will soon transfer its clinic to the Wesley Memorial Church building for permanent quarters.

This clinic treats all curable cases regardless of ability to pay. No cases of cancer, tuberculosis or social diseases are received for treatment. Having been in operation since January 1, it has been successful beyond expectation.

It is probable that the Georgia delegation of the twenty-seventh annual convention of the American Osteopathic association, will endeavor to get the 1924 convention for Atlanta.

This year's convention opens in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, next month. The annual convention will run for a whole week including Sunday, when health talks from the pulpit will feature the day.

MANY FOREIGNERS ARE NATURALIZED

Savannah, Ga., May 24.—This afternoon in the federal court a large class of foreigners were made citizens of the United States. A unique ceremony in connection with this program will be the presentation to each new citizen by a representative of the Georgia Society of Colonial Dames of a booklet on the true ideals of the American republic.

54 FINISH WORK AT FULTON HIGH

Awards of Medals and Prizes Made at the Commencement Exercises at Wesley Memorial.

Before an assemblage that filled the spacious Wesley Memorial church to capacity, 54 seniors of the Fulton High school—decidedly the largest graduating class ever finishing in one term since the school was established seven years ago—were presented with diplomas, bringing to a close the most successful year ever accomplished by this school.

The diplomas were delivered by Joseph W. Humphries, president of the Fulton county board of education, each graduate being heartily applauded upon receiving the symbol of his merited recognition. Mr. Humphries in a brief address congratulated the graduates and commended them for their earnest efforts in finishing their preparatory studies.

Superintendent J. W. Simmons, of county schools, followed Mr. Humphries with a short talk after which he read the names of those receiving scholarships and special medals for exceptional records.

Scholarship Awards.

Winners of scholarships were as follows: Mercer university, won by Paul S. Etheridge, Jr.; Emory university, won by John Poole; Georgia School of Technology, won by Amos Alsbrook, who in addition was awarded a silver loving cup offered by The Journal to the best all-around member of the graduating class; Bessie Tift college, Belle Smith; Agnes Scott college, Ida Landau; Wesleyan college, Geneva Zachary; and University of Georgia, J. D. Yeager.

Winners of special medals were as follows: The Ellen Otley McCab medal offered by the U. D. C. Co. to the student in the seventh grade attaining the highest records, was won by Edward Miles, of the Morgan Falls school; the medal offered by Mrs. E. L. Conally to the sixth grade student, won by Lois McDonald, of the Bolton school; the War Mothers' prize for the best essay on "Our Flag," awarded to Paula Duke, of Martin Vernon school; (boy's prize) Elasco Adlerson, of the E. P. Howell school; Henderson medal, awarded to George Bray, and the L. D. C. medal, offered by Mrs. John Marshall Staton, won by Lillian Medlock, of the graduating class.

Members of Class.

Members of the graduating class follow: Emma Louise Bernhardt, Eugenia Blanche Byars, Hattie Lou Carroll, Beatrice Gray Castellow, Margaret Mary Crim, Mary Louisa Davis, Clyde Edmondson, Caroline Elizabeth Edwards, Willie Emyrlyn Henderson, Alice Elizabeth Henson, Elizabeth Catherine Hope, Ida Landau, Elsie Louise Layton, Georgia Barber Lukens, Ella Alene Mann, Julia Beatrice Mason, Willie Grace Mayo, Lillian Mae Medlock, Ruth Eloise Moore, Bessie Irene Moore, Catherine Louise McDonald, Mary Lou McHenry, Thelma Parker, Dickranouie Ruth Phyllis Bowman, April Rebecca Pittman, Ruth Jeanne Reinhardt, Mary Elizabeth Rhee, Martha Ruth Satterwhite, Belle Smith, Mattie Mae Smith, Grace Virginia Thompson, Yerna Irene Treadway, Julia Frances Williamson, Bessie Estelle Woodall, Ethel Corinne Wright, Dorene Ruth Young, Geneva Zachary, Amos Edward Alsbrook, Guy Hallett Amund, Grady Hick Anderson, Pascal Brady Burdett, Thomas Paul Connally, Joseph Malcolm Crim, Paul Sharp Etheridge, Jr., George Walter Hammett, Ralph Vance Cecil Robert Mason, William Barnes Manlin, Joan Jordan Poole, Eucher Harp Skinner, James Teala Wallace, Edward Allen Wilder, James Dawson Yeager.

R. O. T. C. Classes Work for Year In Grand Review

Medals Awarded Winners of Many Contests—Smoker Thursday Night.

R. O. T. C. activities at Tech for the year were completed in one grand finale on Thursday. Closing exercises began at 2:30 o'clock with the regimental drill. In this drill every unit took part, and the parade was a valdictory to a season of earnest endeavor and patient application. After the parade, company drill and individual competition held the field. Winners were awarded medals and loving cups.

Last night the big R. O. T. C. smoker was held at Grant field. Cigars were passed around, and everyone prepared for the fun. The features of the evening were boxing bouts, selections by the band, and parts by the Glee club program. The Yellow Jacket Four came through with several snappy and timely tunes.

Major Pendleton, commandant at Tech for the last four years, was in charge of the arrangements. This is his last year at Tech.

Gold medal for having accomplished most for the R. O. T. C. was awarded to F. R. McClellan; gold medals for winning most points to C. L. Bean and C. A. Phillips; silver medals for having accomplished most for R. T. C.

athletics were awarded to E. G. Nabel and Paul Lyman; a gold medal for exhibiting greatest degree of leadership went to E. L. Burke; silver medals for best final grades were awarded to C. L. Kennedy in C. A. C.; to R. J. Goodburn in S. C.; to J. L. Sutton in A. S.; to P. A. Paul in M. T. C.; to E. H. Eastman in Ord.; to O. H. Saylor in coope, and to C. E. Adamson in Inf.

The winners of the company events were announced as follows: Compus football, Co. "B"; basketball, Co. "I" and cross country run, Co. "M."

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

After the parade, company drill and individual competition held the field. Winners were awarded medals and loving cups.

Last night the big R. O. T. C. smoker was held at Grant field. Cigars were passed around, and everyone prepared for the fun. The features of the evening were boxing bouts, selections by the band, and parts by the Glee club program. The Yellow Jacket Four came through with several snappy and timely tunes.

Major Pendleton, commandant at Tech for the last four years, was in charge of the arrangements. This is his last year at Tech.

Gold medal for having accomplished most for the R. O. T. C. was awarded to F. R. McClellan; gold medals for winning most points to C. L. Bean and C. A. Phillips; silver medals for having accomplished most for R. T. C.

athletics were awarded to E. G. Nabel and Paul Lyman; a gold medal for exhibiting greatest degree of leadership went to E. L. Burke; silver medals for best final grades were awarded to C. L. Kennedy in C. A. C.; to R. J. Goodburn in S. C.; to J. L. Sutton in A. S.; to P. A. Paul in M. T. C.; to E. H. Eastman in Ord.; to O. H. Saylor in coope, and to C. E. Adamson in Inf.

The winners of the company events were announced as follows: Compus football, Co. "B"; basketball, Co. "I" and cross country run, Co. "M."

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want you to know, sir, that my husband is gentleman." The druggist put some quinine pills in profound sleep.

—Old Lady (to druggist)—"I was a box of canine pills." Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog?" Old Lady (indignantly)—"I want

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT EXPLAINS CONTRACTS

Expenditures for Road and Bridge Work Are Reported in Statement.

In a statement issued Thursday the state highway department explains in detail the manner in which contracts for road and bridge construction in Georgia are let. The statement also contains a report on the total funds appropriated and expended for road and bridge construction since the department has been in existence and analyzes this report as to total length of road construction, types and average cost per mile for the different types of road. The report in full is as follows:

The state highway department, adhering to its promise to keep the public informed of its activities, wishes to call attention to the extensive work expended in awarding contracts for road and bridge construction and to supplement its first statement by additional figures showing the total funds used for construction, total road and bridge mileage which will be completed with such funds, and costs per mile for different types of roads.

All bids by contractors are opened at the state capital in the senate chamber in the presence of the state highway board, the bureau of public roads, the contractors and general public.

When a county wishes to construct a federal aid project with its own funds or otherwise, contract is given to the county without its having to bid for the same at a letting.

In awarding such contract to a county it is at an amount which is less than the cost of similar work when performed by contractor, also with the understanding that the cost of the work must not exceed the cost as estimated by the state highway board, approved by the local representative of the federal government, the district representative and the bureau of public roads in Washington.

When a contract for the construction of a federal aid project is awarded by the state highway board, after same has been duly advertised in the newspapers of the state, and especially in the newspapers of the county in which the project is located, it is done only after a representative of the bureau of public roads, the state highway engineer and the county authorities of the county have recommended such to the state highway board, who then approve the contract. This statement is made to show the complete cooperation of county authorities and highway officials in awarding contracts for road building in Georgia.

Again, unless the lowest bidder fails to make bond to carry out his contract or unless the county fails to recommend awarding the contract to the lowest bidder, the state highway board has always awarded the contract to the one who makes the lowest bid for it.

During the time the state highway department has been in existence the total amount of state funds used for construction purposes have been as follows:

State funds (motor vehicle)
1921.....$ 1,748,980.75
County funds (bond issues).....8,295,214.33
Federal government funds.....6,593,700.12

For work under construction, including state, county and federal funds, there has been appropriated.....$ 7,518,811.28

Making a grand total of funds available of.....$23,956,615.55

Bridges constructed and under construction total 13.33 miles.

Bridges for which plans and financial arrangements have been made for construction total 2.40 miles.

Total length of bridges constructed and under construction, also for which funds have been appropriated, is 15.73 miles.

These figures include only the bridge itself and do not include the approaches.

Total cost of bridges to December 31, 1922, was $2,824,820.12. This amount is included in the above total of construction expenditures.

The bridge mileage constructed by Georgia to January 1, 1923, out of federal aid funds, was 4.5 per cent of the total bridge mileage constructed by all states out of similar funds.

The total number of miles of road constructed or under construction and soon to be completed is 1,270.48 miles.

Total mileage of roads for which funds have been provided and plans made for construction, 1,270.48 miles.

Total bridges planned, 13.70. Grand total of roads and bridges, 1,284.18 miles.

The following table gives the total of each type of road completed, being constructed and provided for.

Roads constructed and being constructed: Clay or top soil, 1,206.79 miles; gravel or chert, 251.09 miles; bituminous macadam, 90.26 miles; concrete, 10.12 miles; rock, 8.23 miles; brick, 3.0 miles. Total roads constructed and being constructed, 1,595.49 miles.

Proposed roads for which funds have been provided and plans and surveys made, 100 miles.

Total roads constructed and being constructed, and proposed roads, for which funds have been provided, plans and surveys made, 1,695.49 miles.

Below is a table showing the average cost per mile for the different types of construction:

Gravel and chert.....$ 2,014.62
Clay and top soil.....5,084.31
Gravel and chert.....11,755.37
Bituminous macadam.....16,949.72
Concrete.....27,263.28
Rock.....24,173.92
Portland cement concrete.....32,044.26

Eighteen states collected a gasoline tax in 1922. The adjoining states of North and South Carolina, Florida, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, and New Brunswick, Canada.

London ladies are browsing their "kicks" with expensive bouffant hats. But the time is coming when some of them will get Gehenna-ed of charge.—Virginia Pilot.

Atlanta Gives Largest Class of High School Seniors to Georgia At Impressive Presentation Ceremony on State Capitol Grounds

Below is a section of the 754 Atlanta high school seniors lined up on the steps of the state capitol Thursday morning while their presentation by the public schools, as citizens, to Atlanta and Georgia was in progress. Superintendent Willis A. Sutton and President W. W. Gaines, of the school board, presented the seniors to Mayor Sims, as citizens of the city of Atlanta. He, in turn, presented them to Governor Hardwick as citizens of the state of Georgia. In a review before Mayor Sims, Governor Hardwick and college executives, the boys and girls formed into groups, as shown in the bottom picture, carrying placards indicating the colleges they will attend this fall after their graduation from high school in June. The picture shows representatives of the many groups of girls and their favorite colleges.

Photos by Tye Sanders.

Sutton, Gaines, Sims and Governor Hardwick in Exercises Thursday With 754 Graduates.

Atlanta gave a present to Georgia and to the nation Thursday morning. A present immeasurable in its value, supreme in its potentialities.

Over 750 members of the senior classes of the city's high schools gathered on the grounds of the state capitol. They are the boys and girls who graduate this spring from seven city high schools and they were presented, as new citizens, first to Mayor Walter A. Sims by W. W. Gaines, president of the board of education, and Superintendent of Schools Willis A. Sutton, and then to Governor Thomas W. Hardwick by Mayor Sims. Thus they were given, as a splendid band of citizens, their education at various colleges, and then by that city to the state which is proud to call them hers.

Largest Group of Seniors.

It was the largest group of Atlanta high school seniors ever gathered together and Superintendent Sutton was confident in his assurance that practically every one of them will graduate. The full list of graduates will, it is expected, be given out Sunday, it being against the rules of the education board for such a list to be given out until after completion of the final examinations.

The students gathered together yesterday will, with few exceptions, continue their education at various colleges. As they marched in review each one carried an individual banner with the name of the college or university he expected to enter next fall. It was noteworthy that Tech High, with the largest attendance of all, will send an almost complete class to Georgia Tech.

There was a promise and a hope in each eager face that marched by the strains of martial music from the Tech high band. No man could look on these future leaders of the race, these potential shapers of the nation's destiny, these who would carry far the banner of progress handed to them by the generations gone, but he in turn passed on to them the generations yet unborn, without a surge of pride in the America that is yet to be created.

College Heads Speak.

Addresses were made to the students Thursday morning by representatives of several local colleges, as well as the speeches of welcome by Mayor Sims, Mr. Gaines and Governor Hardwick.

Superintendent Sutton presided and addresses were made by representatives of Cox college, Georgia Tech, Emory university, Oglethorpe university and others.

Mr. Sutton declared that the graduating classes this year will break all records of the past. He added that he felt perfect confidence that the boys and girls who go on to colleges will reflect almost credit on the preparatory education they have received in Atlanta's schools.

Following the speaking exercises, moving pictures of the entire group of seniors were taken. They were taken both en masse and in parade orders as the different schools marched by.

E. Kaufman, of the city construction department, operated the camera, which is owned by the city. They will be exhibited in the various schools, then locked away in the files of the education department, as a permanent record of the graduating classes of 1923. Superintendent Sutton stated that it is planned to take similar pictures of all future graduating classes.

"CENTRAL PARK" PLAN IS IN COUNCIL'S HANDS

Mayson Says the Planning Board Will Not Have to Be Consulted Now.

The city planning board will not have to take any action with reference to the establishment of the central park until it has been formally passed upon by city council and the people, was the substance of the opinion rendered by City Attorney James L. Mayson, at the request of Mayor Walter A. Sims, Thursday.

"This agitation as to the authority of the planning commission over the establishment of the new central park is premature," Mr. Mayson said. "When the property for the central park has been purchased, it takes place, the planning commission must then be consulted as to the location of entrances, the establishment of swimming pools and other details of the plan of the park. But until the time arrives for starting actual work on the park, city council is the body which has control."

Council in Control.

"There is no question as to the power of city council to take action fixing the location of the proposed park and submitting the bond issue to the vote of the people."

The proposal for a $2,000,000 bond issue to establish the central park and to improve park property in various parts of the city is in the hands of the finance and park committees of city council and a joint session of these committees for a public hearing upon the proposal is expected to be held early in the coming week.

The original resolution introduced by Alderman J. L. McLendon which had been approved by the finance committee was referred to the two committees together with an amendment by Councillman Harry York at the session of council Monday.

Improve All Parks.

It is expected that the committee will draw up a revised resolution making definite provision for a park development program, including not only the central park but community parks and play grounds in each of the wards as well. It is expected that the committee will fix the boundaries of the central park as North avenue, Williams street, Mills street and Fowler street.

In his ruling City Attorney Mayson said that the authority of city council in reference to the central park was the same as if the purchase of a small lot for a fire station location was contemplated.

"Poppy in Buttonhole"

Is Veterans' Slogan In National Drive

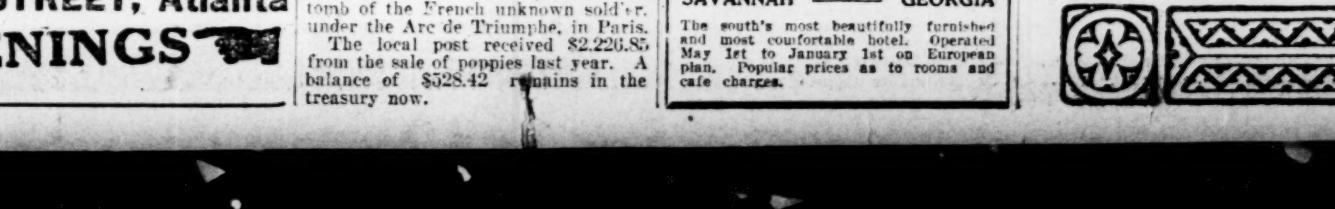

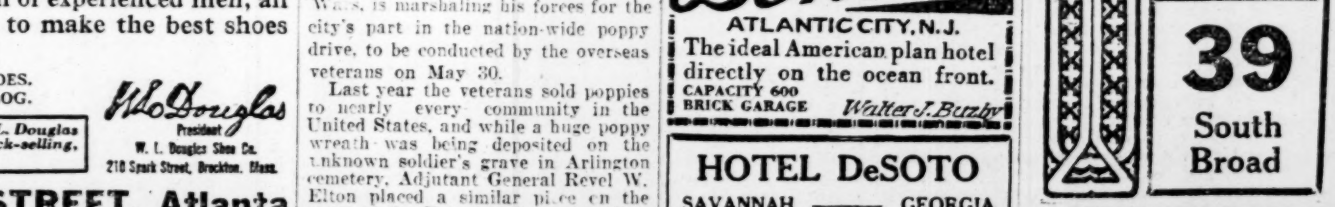

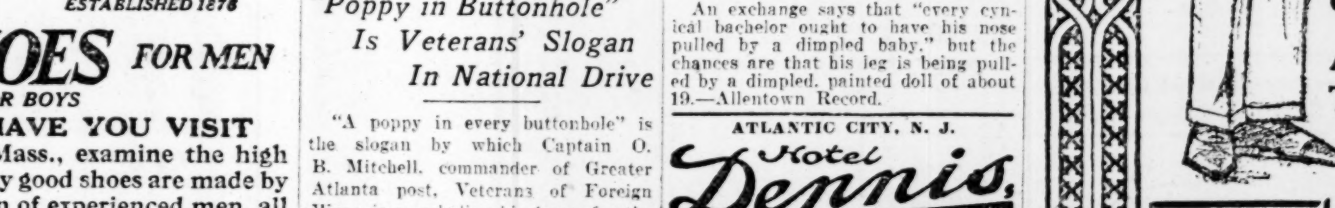

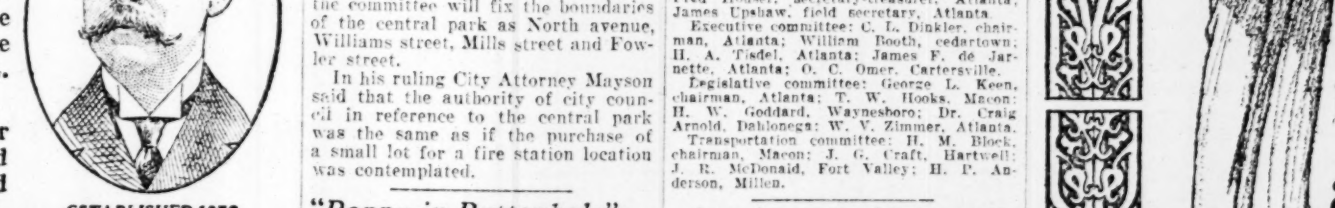

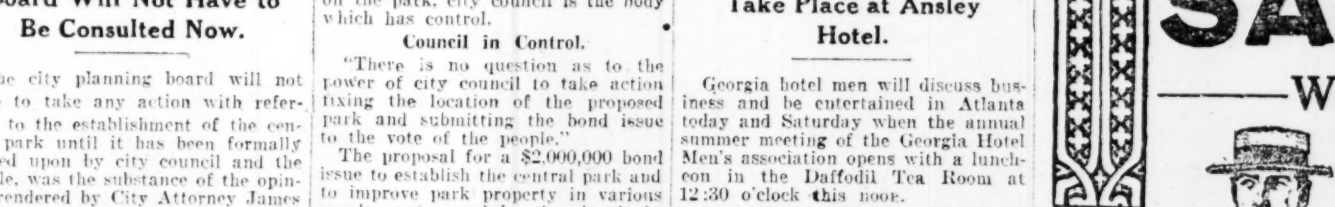

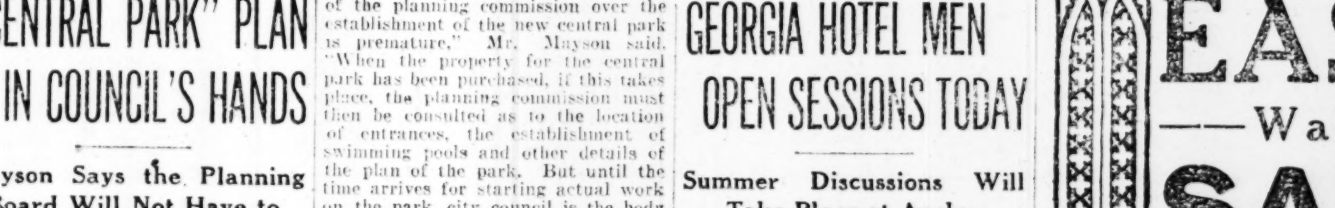

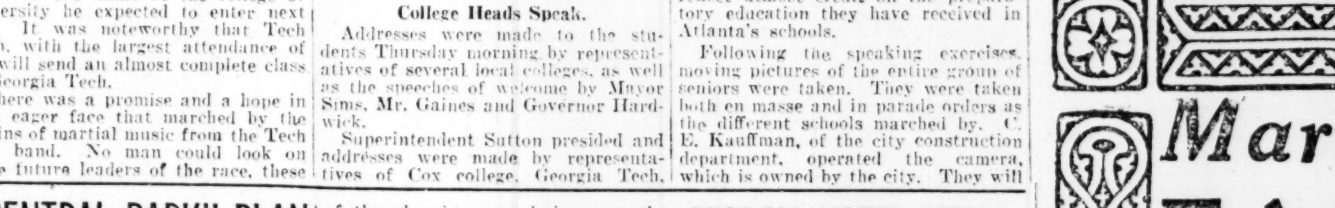

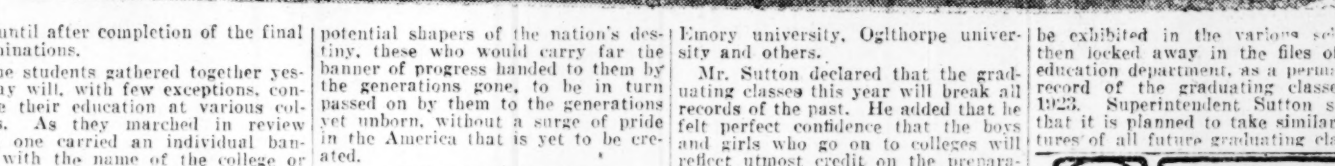

"A poppy in every buttonhole" is the slogan by which Captain O. B. Mitchell, commander of Greater Atlanta post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is marshaling his forces for the city's part in the nation-wide poppy drive, to be conducted by the overseas veterans on May 30.

Last year the veterans sold poppies to nearly every community in the United States, and while a huge poppy wreath was being deposited on the unknown soldier's grave in Arlington cemetery, Adjutant General Robert W. Elton placed a similar wreath on the tomb of the French unknown soldier under the Arc de Triumphant, in Paris.

The local post received $2,226.85 from the sale of poppies last year. A balance of $258.42 remains in the treasury now.

Superintendent of Schools Willis A. Sutton congratulates Miss Catherine Catchings, of the Girls' High school, on her splendid record of the year.

Engineers Discuss Electrical Problems At Chamber Meeting

The latest developments and most modern devices of electrical engineering were discussed at a meeting of the Atlanta section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, at the chamber of commerce assembly hall on Thursday night.

D. H. Keyes, representative of the National Electric Light association, read a paper on "Inductive Co-ordination as a Problem and a Movement." Another subject which received fine technical treatment was "Inductive Co-ordination—its Necessity and Accomplishments," given by K. L. Williamson, of the general engineering department of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. An all around discussion by members of the institute followed the readings.

A program of entertainment was provided at the close of the meeting.

HARRIS PREDICTS DEMOCRATIC WIN

Ashburn, Ga., May 24.—(Special.) A democrat will be elected president in 1924, declared Senator William J. Harris in an address at the courthouse here today to the people of Turner county.

Republicans realize that without a great change there will be an overwhelming victory for the democrats, he stated, adding that in his opinion Henry Ford would be given Muscle Shoals to develop, but that if it were retained by the government it would be developed to manufacture fertilizers.

Senator Harris left here this afternoon for Albany. He will speak in Dawson tomorrow also. He spoke at Tifton yesterday.

AUGUSTA PROPOSES TO AMEND CHARTER

Would Make the Mayor and Councilmen Eligible to Succeed Themselves.

Augusta, Ga., May 24.—(Special.) Something of a political stir was caused here today when notice by local legislators was given that a bill is to be introduced in the assembly to change the mayoralty and councilmanic status here.

At present the mayor and councilmen are ineligible in law to succeed themselves. This has been the rule here for twenty-five years. The proposition now is to amend the charter as to give them the right in law to be their own successors. If the change is made it would be made applicable to the incumbent mayor and councilmen.

There is also notice given of intention to introduce legislation for the purpose of pensioning city employees after twenty-five years of service, under certain conditions. Retirement on half pay is contemplated.

J. R. FRANKLIN DIES AT BARNESVILLE, GA.

Barnesville, Ga., May 24.—(Special.)—J. R. Franklin, honored citizen and Confederate veteran, aged 85, died here Thursday morning. Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the home here, Rev. H. L. Edmondson, pastor First Methodist church, officiating.

LOU ADLER SAYS:

Let's all get in cool, comfortable, stylish Stratford suits this summer and waggle our fingers merrily at Weatherman Von Herrmann's "Hot Spell Ahead" bulletins.

Stratford makes America's most stylish and comfortable summer clothes.

L. C. ADLER

113 Peachtree Street
Opposite Piedmont Hotel

SOLE AGENTS

STRATFORD CLOTHES
DUNLAP and DISNEY HATS

GEORGIA HOTEL MEN OPEN SESSIONS TODAY

Summer Discussions Will Take Place at Ansley Hotel.

Georgia hotel men will discuss business and be entertained in Atlanta today and Saturday when the annual summer meeting of the Georgia Hotel Men's association opens with a luncheon in the Daffodil Tea Room at 12:30 o'clock this noon.

"Cooperation of Hotel, Press and Hotel Managers," by W. H. Riddick, managing editor of the Southern Hotel Reporter, Jacksonville, Fla., and "Hotels and Good Roads," by Frank Reynolds, secretary of the Georgia State Automobile association, and assistant manager of the Ansley hotel, Atlanta, will be the subjects of addresses which will feature the meeting on Saturday morning.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock at Kimballville Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will V. Zimmer, by the management of Hotel Wincoff.

Following is the list of present officers: F. Hackett, president, Rome; A. B. Moody, first vice president, Atlanta; L. M. Rosvold, second vice president, Macon; F. C. Omer, third vice president, Vidalia; Grover Liddlebrooks, attorney, Atlanta; Fred Foster, secretary-treasurer, Atlanta; James Upshaw, field secretary, Atlanta.

Executive committee: C. L. Dinkler, chairman, Atlanta; William Roddy, co-chairman, Atlanta; James F. de Jarnette, Atlanta; G. C. Omer, Caterpillar, Atlanta; George L. Keen, chairman, Atlanta; T. W. Hooks, Macon; H. W. Goddard, Waynesboro; Dr. Craig Arnold, Dubuque; W. V. Zimmer, Atlanta. Transportation committee: H. M. Hoch, chairman, Macon; J. C. Craft, Hartsville; J. R. McDonald, Fort Valley; H. P. Anderson, Milton.

An exchange says that "every cynical bachelor ought to have his nose pulled by a dimpled baby," but the chances are that his leg is being pulled by a dimpled, painted doll of about 19.—Allentown Record.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
Hotel Dennis
The ideal American plan hotel directly on the ocean front.
CAPACITY 600
BRICK GARAGE
Walters, Barlow

HOTEL DeSOTO
SAVANNAH GEORGIA
The south's most beautifully furnished and most comfortable hotel. Operated May 1st to January 1st on European plan. Popular prices as to rooms and cafe charges.

Marvelous Values! EASY CREDIT

—Walk One Block—

SAVE 25%

Why Pay More

Follow the crowds to the M. & M. and you'll save 25% on the season's latest styles. We are out of the "High Rent" district and you can benefit by our low rent.

Newest Styles, Colors and Materials in Ladies' Dresses
Ladies' Silk Capes
Ladies' Suits

EASY PAYMENT

SUITS for MEN

And Young Men

at Closing Out Prices

All-Wool Suits

Tropical Worsteds

Gabardine Suits

Palm Beach Suits

Your Terms Are Ours

39

South
Broad

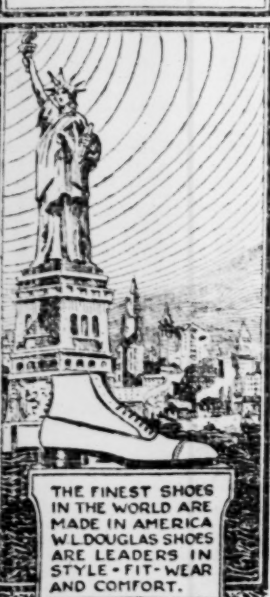

M AND M

READY-TO-WEAR CO.
MORRIS MOLDOW, Prop.

39

South
Broad

YOU CAN ALWAYS
SAVE MONEY BY WEARING
W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES
SOLD DIRECT FROM FACTORY TO YOU AT ONE PRICE

THE FINEST SHOES
IN THE WORLD ARE MADE IN AMERICA
W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES
ARE LEADERS IN THE STYLE-FIT-WEAR AND COMFORT.

W. L. DOUGLAS

NAME AND PORTRAIT

is the best known shoe trade mark in the world. It stands for the highest standard of quality at the lowest possible cost. For economy and satisfactory service, wear shoes that bear this trade mark.

W. L. DOUGLAS constant endeavor for 47 years has been to make reliable, well made, stylish shoes at reasonable prices. The satisfactory service and the protection afforded by the name and price stamped on the sole of every pair have given the people confidence in W. L. Douglas shoes.

If you have been paying high prices for shoes, examine the W. L. Douglas $7.00 and $8.00 shoes. They are exceptionally good value and will give satisfactory service.

ESTABLISHED 1876

$5. $6. $7. & $8. SHOES FOR MEN

$4.00 & $4.50 SHOES FOR BOYS

WE WOULD BE GLAD TO HAVE YOU VISIT

W. L. Douglas factories at Brockton, Mass., examine the high grade leathers used, and see how carefully good shoes are made by skilled shoemakers under the supervision of experienced men, all working with an honest determination to make the best shoes that can be produced for the price.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES.

IF HE CANNOT SUPPLY YOU, WRITE FOR CATALOG.

TO MERCHANTS: If no dealer in your town handles W. L. Douglas shoes write today for exclusive rights to handle this quick-selling, quick turn-over line.

W. L. Douglas Shoe Co.
210 South Street, Brockton, Mass.

W. L. Douglas Store, 11 PEACHTREE STREET, Atlanta

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

MRS. DOZIER LOWNDES GOES INTO SEMI-FINAL ROUND

Crackers and Chicks Double-bill Rained Out

Teams Have Only Been Able To Play Two Games During The Season While at Memphis

Double-Bill Will Be Played Today If Weather Permits—Turo and Best Are Slated to Work in Games.

Memphis, Tenn., May 24.—(Special.)—For the third time this year since the Southern league season got underway, the scheduled game between the Atlanta Crackers and the Memphis Chicks was rained out here today.

Between the two teams here earlier in the season.

Providing no more upsets occur, a double-bill is on the schedule for tomorrow and if both games are played the two teams are still two games behind schedule.

Sunday is an off day for the Crackers but the Chicks are scheduled for a game with Birmingham in Memphis and a double-bill on Saturday would still leave the teams one game behind.

The Crackers have been able to play only two games out of the five that have been scheduled here including today's rained out game and they have won both, giving them a clean sweep of the short series played.

Karr Wins Both. Bennie Karr, the Crackers' right hand twirling ace, who was once a Chick, has performed against the locals both times and pitched great ball. The best that the Chicks could do with Karr's delivery was 11 hits in the two games which netted them three runs, while the Crackers made a total of eight runs for the two games.

Oscar Turo, who was also once a Chick, but now on Otto Miller's payroll, is slated to work the first game tomorrow, with Cliff Best, a young southpaw secured by the Crackers from Boston, as the twirler for the second game.

Best and Nibhaus, the Crackers' crooked-arm flingers, have not fared so well against the Chicks this season and Manager Miller intends to use his right-handers in most of the games. He believes though that Cliff Best will be able to turn the trick in tomorrow's game. Manager Johnny Dohis has not announced his selections for mound duty.

Possibilities for Upsets In Track Meet Probable

Many Schools Have Fine Chance to Win If Lesser Lights Come Through in Excellent Form.

BY WALTER CAMP.

New York, May 24.—The possibilities for unexpected results and strange happenings are greater this year than at any time in the history of the intercollegiate track and games which will be held at Franklin field, Philadelphia, the end of this week. This fact results from the unusual distribution of stars. With the crackmen splitting up the points among a number of institutions, Yale, California, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Princeton, Penn State and perhaps others have a chance to win the meet if their lesser lights come through up to the top of their form.

Among the outstanding stars Tootel, of Bowdoin, can outdistance anybody in the hammer throw. There is Leroy Brown, of Dartmouth, in the high jump, who, unless something extraordinary should happen, has command of that event. The pole vault, barring accidents, should be at the mercy of Sherrell and Owens, both of Pennsylvania, provided Sherrell's bad ankle holds up. There is no man in sight who ought to beat Jimmy Connelly in the mile. Taylor, of Princeton, should have a cinch in the low hurdles. Helfrich, of Penn State, should have the half packed away in his pocket with his two teammates, Enck and Edgerton, backing him up.

Outside of these athletes, however, there are a good many complications. Much will depend on how the second, third and fourth places are distributed. For example, the writer does not believe that Yale can win, but if all the Yale men performed at their best the Blue might have a chance. Have Been Consistent. Penn's athletes have been more consistent in their performances on Franklin field than others. Among Yale's possibilities are Ruskak in the hundred; Chapman, in the quarter; Douglas, in the mile; Captain Campbell, who might give even Helfrich trouble in the half, if he were in top form; Millican, who might squeeze in a point or two in the pole vault; and Comins and Schlopp in the broad jump. Bench might place in the discus. Jordan, in the shot put, and Cruikshank in the hammer, while Storres and Bench are good javelin throwers.

Penn is in a fair position. In addition to the Red and Blue representatives already noted, Lever is a good sprinter and Needs does well in the high jump. Thurman may push Hills, of Princeton, in the shot put, while Hammer has a chance to do well in the hammer throw and the javelin event.

Princeton has come so near to getting up to the top that the Tigers are feared by many. Thompson is good in the high hurdles. Emery should place in the hammer and Greaves should be well up with the javelin.

What California can do is a doubtful question despite the fact that Berkeley men have won the last two meets. At any rate the California team will have a much harder time than in 1921 and 1922. Muller should get second in the high jump. Boren may get a fair place in the broad and Morris and Gouinlock may place in the pole vault and Witter in the shot put. Sorrenti may surprise people with the javelin. California has lost some of her star performers and there are many topnotchers in the events where she is good.

Penn State has more than a look-in, while Cornell is a dark horse and may furnish an abundance of surprises.

U. S. B. TEAM TO BANQUET

The University baseball team, winners of the city prep baseball title, will be given a banquet tonight at the Daffodil Tea room by the school athletic association in appreciation of the wonderful season just recently ended. In all probability a captain for the 1923-24 baseball team will be elected.

The University school nine ran through the baseball season without losing a single game. One of the games on the schedule remained unplayed, but the game was of no particular importance to either club as it would not affect the league standing.

GREY LAG IS RACE WINNER

New York, May 24.—Grey Lag, carrying the Ranocosa stable colors, won the Metropolitan handicap, feature of the Belmont park opening today. Dinnia Care was second and Exodus third.

The time for the mile was 1:38. Mad Hatter, winner of the event in 1921 and 1922, ran with Grey Lag as the Ranocosa entry, but finished with the also rans which included Snob II, Tryster and Careful. Earl Sande rode the winner.

Mad Hatter, winner of the event in 1921 and 1922, ran with Grey Lag as the Ranocosa entry, but finished with the also rans which included Snob II, Tryster and Careful. Earl Sande rode the winner.

STRIBLING TO FIGHT IN VALDOSTA SOON

Valdosta, Ga., May 24.—Valdosta fight fans will have an opportunity of seeing Young Stribling, the Macon boxer, in action here next Monday night in a match under the auspices of the American Legion.

Stribling, it is said, will enter at 158 pounds, while Bailey, who is a good bit heavier, will weigh in around 175. The match will be a match between Kid Peck, of Columbus, and a well-known local opponent besides other preliminaries.

Dies From Injuries.

Detroit, Mich., May 24.—Joe Lan, 26-year-old shortstop of a city league baseball team, died early today after being hit on the head by a pitched ball in a league game yesterday afternoon, fracturing his skull.

"Kid" After Clanton.

Little Rock, Ark., May 24.—The Little Rock Southern association baseball club has secured First baseman Clanton on option from the Cleveland Americans. It was announced here today. Clanton started the season with the New Orleans club but was returned to Cleveland several days ago when Fred Henry was returned to New Orleans by the Boston Nationals.

A scientist says there are only fourteen fundamental movements. Pshaw! He could find more than that on any dance floor.—New York Mail.

BOB WOLGAST BEATS VILLA

Philadelphia, May 24.—Bobby Wolgast, of Atlantic City, tonight outpointed Panchito Villa, former fly-weight champion, in a fast eight-round fight at the National league baseball park. Villa's blows were harder than Wolgast's, but the latter landed more frequently. Wolgast did most of the leading. Villa was warned repeatedly for using a backland punch. More than 20,000 persons saw the contest.

Eino Flores, Filipino lightweight, defeated Joe Tiptitz, of Philadelphia, in one of the four eight-round bouts tonight preliminary to the Bobby Wolgast-Panchito Villa fight at the Philadelphia National league baseball park. Flores weighed 135 1-2 pounds and Tiptitz 136.

Rutzy Wallace, of Philadelphia, outpointed Johnny Buff, former lightweight champion, and Andy (Kid) Palmer outpointed Jack McCarron, of Allentown, Pa., in other preliminaries.

Danny Wramer, Philadelphia, won on a foul from George (Kot) Clancy, Baltimore, in the second round of the semi-windup.

TOURNEY WILL BEGIN FRIDAY

Friday and Saturday are the dates for the qualifying rounds in the Latham-Atkinson cup tournament at Druid Hills golf club. This is the first cup tournament of the season at Druid Hills and a large entry is expected. In this tournament club handicaps will apply in both qualifying rounds and in all final rounds.

The first round matches of this tournament are scheduled to be finished by Wednesday night, May 30, and second round by June 3, but in view of the fact that the Kiwanis convention is to be held in Atlanta during this same week the committee has ruled that the members can finish the first round by Saturday, June 3, and then the second, third and final rounds during the week of June 4. This arrangement is only to apply in this tournament as the committee has decided to insist that matches be finished on schedule time in all other events at Druid Hills in 1923.

The tournament schedule at Druid Hills for 1923 is different from any previous year. In all tournaments, except the club championship, which will be held September 8 to 22, handicaps will apply. By this arrangement the "come on guys or duffers," as Sam Blythe calls the majority of golfers, have the edge on the good players, and if the duffers take advantage of their handicaps the silver prizes will be found in new hands and on strange mantel places by the end of the season.

On the 190-yard fairway, Mrs. Lowndes' tee shot was short and doubled, but she slipped her 40-foot putt straight into the cup for a par three and a half.

Mrs. Lowndes again had a rolling tee shot on the 400-yard five hole, missed her second and again took two putts, her six halving the hole. She was still two up.

On No. 6 of 140 yards, Mrs. Lowndes lost her honor for the first time. Both tee shots were pulled into the trap, the two balls flying alongside each other in the sand. Mrs. Thompson again sunk her forty footer for a three, while Mrs. Lowndes was a foot short. One up.

A sliced tee shot on No. 7 forced the champion to play out of the rough and short of the lake, which she did, her 100-yard mashie shot over the lake dropped three feet from the cup. It was a sweet par four and made her two up again.

The 225 straightaway No. 8 was taken by the champion in a perfect par 3 to her opponent's four and the pair went to No. 9 tee with Mrs. Lowndes 3 up.

Not one shot from the fairway was enjoyed by the Atlanta golfer on the 533-yard No. 9. She played bunkers and greens for seven shots, the last one being from a blind trap in front of the green. Mrs. Thompson was on in five. Mrs. Lowndes' sunk a 45-foot putt for an eight, with the remark: "You never can tell; she may take three putts, in which case I'll get a half." But Mrs. Thompson took but two, and was only two down at the turn.

Both were over the 284-yard No. 10 in a deep trap on their second, and finally halved a 6. Mrs. Lowndes pulled her tee shot into a trap on

Golf Champion Finds Tough Opponent in Mrs. Thompson But Wins on 17th, 2 and 1

Mrs. Dave Gaut Eliminates Miss Priscilla Rogers and Moves Toward Finals in Championship Tournament.

BY "POP" BOONE.

Fort Worth, Texas, May 24.—(Special.)—Uncanny putting on the first nine this morning carried Mrs. Dozier Lowndes through her third round match and into the semi-finals. By taking only 12 putts on the first nine greens Mrs. Lowndes stayed on top. Mrs. George Thompson, Jr., of Fort Worth, and when she came on to her long game in the second round she won the match on the seventeenth green, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Lowndes' long game was very bad on the first line. She had no really long drives. In fact she got the ball off the tee and grounded only one or two of the tee shots. She also missed many iron and wood shots on the fairways.

But when she reached for mashie or putter she was a master. Only on four, five and six did she take two putts. On the other six greens she took but one. Mrs. Thompson also was putting like a fiend, and on two occasions at least slipped up behind the champion and walked her with a 30-footer. Mrs. Thompson, by the way, played at the top of the game all the time. Her 45-foot first nine was as good as she can shoot. Mrs. Lowndes went out in 43, with an eight on No. 9. Oddly enough, the turning point in each nine was on holes which have been Joules for Mrs. Lowndes every time she has played the course.

Today, however, she played them marvelously perfect when she needed to and they proved important milestones in her journey.

Gets Bad Start. Mrs. Lowndes' another her first drive, topped her second and holed her third shots when she started her match on the 300-yard first hole, however, her third holed the cross bunker and tricked over. She stuck her pitch shot eight feet past the cup. Her putt was broken half way by a drive from Mrs. Thompson, who missed three shots. Mrs. Thompson took six.

Again the southern champion missed her drive on No. 2, which was a straight 340-yarder, cross bunkered, and was barely out of the rough. But her iron shot hopped the cross bunker. She dubbed her pitch shot, but laid her second one dead and took a five for a half.

No. 3 is 404 yards straight away broken at 300 by a cross bunker and trap. For the third straight time Mrs. Lowndes missed her drive, but even escaping the rough. She dubbed her iron shot and was 100 yards from the green on the tee side of the bunker. Her full jigger shot was dead to the pen not more than two feet away from the cup, and she came up with a par five after missing three shots. Mrs. Thompson took six and was two down.

On the 190-yard four hole, Mrs. Lowndes' tee shot was short and doubled, but she slipped her 40-foot putt straight into the cup for a par three and a half.

Mrs. Lowndes again had a rolling tee shot on the 400-yard five hole, missed her second and again took two putts, her six halving the hole. She was still two up.

On No. 6 of 140 yards, Mrs. Lowndes lost her honor for the first time. Both tee shots were pulled into the trap, the two balls flying alongside each other in the sand. Mrs. Thompson again sunk her forty footer for a three, while Mrs. Lowndes was a foot short. One up.

A sliced tee shot on No. 7 forced the champion to play out of the rough and short of the lake, which she did, her 100-yard mashie shot over the lake dropped three feet from the cup. It was a sweet par four and made her two up again.

The 225 straightaway No. 8 was taken by the champion in a perfect par 3 to her opponent's four and the pair went to No. 9 tee with Mrs. Lowndes 3 up.

Not one shot from the fairway was enjoyed by the Atlanta golfer on the 533-yard No. 9. She played bunkers and greens for seven shots, the last one being from a blind trap in front of the green. Mrs. Thompson was on in five. Mrs. Lowndes' sunk a 45-foot putt for an eight, with the remark: "You never can tell; she may take three putts, in which case I'll get a half." But Mrs. Thompson took but two, and was only two down at the turn.

Both were over the 284-yard No. 10 in a deep trap on their second, and finally halved a 6. Mrs. Lowndes pulled her tee shot into a trap on

No. 11. After three shots down the rough, Mrs. Lowndes picked up where Mrs. Thompson made a perfect par 4. Thus they went past the clubhouse with Mrs. Lowndes only 1 up.

Has Tough Time. No. 12 has been a tough one for the Dixie champion, but today she rallied when her ball took a good kick out of the rough into the fairway, a good 190 yards from the tee. Still 175 yards from the pin, Mrs. Lowndes laid a wooden creak shot on the punchbowl green, which deeply trapped on all sides. It was a magnificent shot, a shot as she needed the par 4 to stay up on her opponent.

Both had good drives on the 300 and 13th. Mrs. Thompson was but 100 yards from her second, while Mrs. Lowndes was over and just short of the green. She took a safe 4 at was 3 up and 5 to go.

Mrs. Lowndes had a good drive on the 531-yard dog-leg 14th, he missed her second and third, ending with 7, that left her only 2 up.

No. 15 was halved. Both failed to negotiate the punchbowl green, the 125-yard water hole. No. 15, however, Mrs. Lowndes could have taken the hole had she not laid herself a new stymie. As it was the hole was halved with 5.

Still 2 up, Mrs. Lowndes pushed her tee shot into trouble on the sixteenth tee. Ending at top of a shaggy bunker, she refused to waste a pitch on the fairway, tried for distance, who is a youngster with about the same game as Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Gartner disposed of Mrs. M. Kruder, of Memphis, today, 2-1.

Letters Are Given Squad. University, Va., May 24.—(Special.)—Thirteen varsity letters are awarded to the members of the University of Virginia track squad by action taken at the first regular meeting of the new board of the General Athletic association.

W. L. Boyd, of Fort Worth, Texas, was elected manager of track for next year, with C. C. R. Leigh, of Petersburg, Va.; J. O. Dew, of St. Petersburg, Fla.; and P. P. Murray, of Richmond, Va., as his assistants.

Members of the varsity squad whom letters were awarded are B. M. Baker, Jr., of Norfolk, captain; Tom Akley, Farra, D. Marshall, B. Hannon, Newport News, Va.; Eldridge Campbell, Carbon, W. V.; O. H. Davis, Fayetteville, W. V.; L. Douglas, Ballston, Va.; Edwin G. Ward, Taunton, Mass.; Ted Irvin, Charlottesville, Va.; E. S. Lamber, Alexandria, Va.; G. C. Saunders, St. Louis, Mo.; C. R. Stevens, Shenandoah, Va.; Frank Talbot, Jr., Danville, Va.; Fred Thesmar, Savannah, Ga.; and James C. Winston, Kingston, N. Y.

Numerals were awarded to the following members of the first-year track squad which went through the season without defeat: Robert S. Bartlett, Greenport, L. I.; William L. Braubach, New York, N. Y.; R. T. Browning, Flint Hill, Va.; Charles Castleman, Leesburg, Va.; Joseph W. Chinn, Warsaw, Va.; D. W. Dyer, Philadelphia, Pa.; Charles L. Glaves, Roanoke, Va.; D. W. Hesser, Roanoke, Va.; W. R. MacElroy, University, Va.; W. H. Mondell, Washington, D. C.; R. L. Montfort, Hammondton, N. J.; A. H. Moss, Parkersburg, W. Va.; W. M. Smith, Richmond, Va.; Fred Strickler, Patterson, N. J.; Achille Verenna, Providence, R. I.; and W. N. Whitmer, Barcroft, Va.

AT YOUR SERVICE

With the Coffee And Cigars

you finish one of the finest dinners you ever ate when you dine at this restaurant. If you wish to entertain some visitor whom you want to impress with your way of living, bring him here for dinner. We'll reserve a table for you and guarantee a meal that will do you proud and us too.

22 S. Broad St. ALBION CAFE Between Jacobs' and Wilmot Hotel JIM VLASS, Mgr.

GAS AND ELECTRIC CUSTOMERS IN ATLANTA, DECATUR, EAST LAKE, EAST POINT, COLLEGE PARK, HAPEVILLE and SUBURBS

Change in dates of rendering and paying Bills.

EFFECTIVE with all meter readings on and after June 1st, 1923, bills for retail electric and gas service will be rendered under the continuous billing method approved by the Georgia Public Service Commission.

The territory has been divided into twenty-four sections. All meters in one section will be read on approximately the same day each month and bills will be rendered approximately five days after meter reading date. Bills are due when rendered, and the usual discount will be allowed if bills are paid within ten days after the due date shown on bills. The meters in the different territorial sections will be read on different days, one section on each week day during the month.

Each customer will receive his bill on approximately the same date each month. The expiration of his discount period will fall on approximately the same date each month.

Under the old plan, which is to be superseded on and after June 1st, 1923, all bills were due on the first of each month and the discount period expired on the tenth of each month for all customers. This is changed under the new plan. It is important that each customer, when receiving bills under the new plan, should particularly note the due date and the discount date stamped or printed on his bill.

As the method of billing is to be changed on June 1st, it is, of course, necessary to render bills for May sales on June 1st also. Some customers will later in the month receive another bill under the new plan for service rendered after the last meter reading date on the May sales bill. Both of these bills are to be paid, as they cover different meter reading periods.

The continuous billing method to be made effective in Atlanta from and after June 1st, is and has for some time been in general use in the cities of the United States having a population of 100,000 or over, and in many cities of smaller population. It prevents the congestion and saves the loss of time suffered by customers under the old method which has been in vogue in Atlanta. It also results in an opportunity to give more careful attention to customers' requests for information when paying bills. The plan has worked satisfactorily in all places where it has been put into effect. It should work with equal satisfaction in Atlanta and result in greater convenience and better service to the large number of retail gas and electric customers.

Georgia Railway and Power Co.

Enjoy thirst-

Quench it with this beverage—not from one vine or one tree, but a blend of pure products from nature's storehouse with a flavor all its own. And served ice-cold.

Drink

Coca-Cola 5¢ Delicious and Refreshing

The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga.

$30 to $45

Important Facts

The long wear you get in our clothes is a great thing because other qualities go with it. The fabrics and the patterns keep looking fresh. We believe that it is just as important that the clothes don't wear off as it is that the clothes don't wear out.

Hambricht-Tolleson Co. 14 Marietta St.

SAUNDERS AGAIN EMERGES VICTOR

Head of Piggly Wiggly Chain Stores Enterprise Continues as President of Company.

Memphis, Tenn., May 24.—Clarence Saunders, who trimmed Wall street and has since been in again, but again as head of the Piggly Wiggly chain store enterprise, is now on top again in the financial struggle for the control of the company.

Under a refinancing plan which includes the sale of nearly half the Piggly Wiggly stores throughout the country, Saunders will continue as president of Piggly Wiggly.

Announcement of an agreement between Saunders and his creditors, who were pressing him for the money he borrowed to fight Wall street, by which Saunders will continue to operate the grocery chain he himself developed, was made Thursday, and only signing of the agreement remains to make the plan binding.

Saunders will pay off his indebtedness through the sale of the various store units, and then start on a new program of sound expansion it is understood.

ELKS WILL CONTINUE DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

1,000 New Candidates Are Signed Up to Thursday. Ends Tuesday.

Reaching the 1,000 mark early Thursday afternoon, the Atlanta lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, announced that the big membership drive that has been in progress for three weeks will be continued until next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, in order that many memberships now in prospect may be secured by the working teams. That the campaign will positively close at the time stated above, however, was stated by H. C. Broyles, secretary of the organization.

"We are highly gratified over the result of the membership drive," said Judge L. F. McTear, general chairman of the campaign, and exalted ruler of the Atlanta lodge, "and we wish to express not only our sincere appreciation to the committees that have worked so faithfully and well in the campaign just closed, but we wish to extend to the people of Atlanta our heartfelt gratitude for the fine spirit of co-operation that has been evinced toward our splendid order."

The campaign is for the purpose of increasing the membership in order that greater support might be given the efforts that are being made to entertain the coming national convention, with its 50,000 visitors, in a manner that will be in keeping with Atlanta's reputation for hospitality.

Tuesday morning is the last day for applications under the present limitation fee of $25, and for candidates to be initiated into the big class that is to be taken in at the auditorium on the evening of June 21.

In England the suggestion has been made that the public highways be colored by means of some cheap chemical spray, which would make them less tiring to the eyes of motor drivers.

All-Day Man Hunt Fails to Disclose Alleged Slayer

Mulatto Wanted for Murder of Policeman Still at Large.

Madison, Wis., May 24.—After an all-day man hunt by authorities throughout Wisconsin, the police here believed Wednesday night that John L. Whitfield, mulatto, wanted for the murder of a Cleveland policeman, had made good his escape from the state.

Whitfield, following a hair-breadth escape here during the night, is believed to have fled in a stolen automobile. Police officers believe he may have raced to Chicago to hide himself somewhere in the big Chicago "black belt," and the police of that city have been asked to keep a sharp look out for the fugitive.

Not a single clue was brought in by the state-wide dragnet which was spread out following Whitfield's latest escape. The police have been promised and in their search, however, by 21-year-old Marie Price, the mulatto's white sweetheart who came here with him, and the expectant mother of his child. "If he is a negro and a murderer, as they say," she told them Wednesday afternoon, "I will help you catch him."

Sooner or later, the authorities believe, Whitfield will be lured back to Marie Price and her baby.

It developed that Whitfield and the girl had spent the past four days leisurely touring southern Wisconsin, selling spark plugs. The white, an account book found in the car confiscated by the police showed that Whitfield sold $46 worth of spark plugs in Racine, May 19, $54 worth in Burlington, Wis., Monday and Tuesday, and $55 worth in Edgerton on Wednesday.

Marie declares they were to have been married here Thursday.

Six Are Killed In Head-On Crash On Texas Railway

Passenger Trains Collide Near Abilene When Switch Is Left Open.

Abilene, Texas, May 24.—Six persons were killed, including a negro porter and five men said to have been riding the "blind" baggage; one passenger probably fatally injured, and two or three others less seriously hurt when two Texas and Pacific passenger trains collided at 4 o'clock this morning midway between Cisco and Putnam, Texas.

Charlie Baker, negro porter on No. 16, was walking down the side track to throw the switch after No. 15 was to have passed and was run over and killed when the eastbound train suddenly turned into the siding.

None of the passengers in coaches were reported seriously injured, although several were cut and bruised. Westbound train No. 15 ran into eastbound No. 16, which was standing on a siding at Dotham, six miles east of Putnam. Railroad officials at Baird said the switch was open and may have been tampered with as the switch showed the green light of safety to the engineer of No. 15. Three baggage cars burned after the wreck.

PARENTS FIGHTING SUICIDE THEORY IN MOUNT CASE

Chicago, May 24.—Hoping to clear the name of Leighton Mount from the stigma of suicide theory suggested in his death, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mount, the dead North western university freshman's parents, have asked Chief Justice Michael M. McKinley to revive the inquiry into his mysterious disappearance in the university class room of 1921.

The Mounts gave Judge McKinley a secret list of prospective witnesses who they said they believed could give important information if questioned.

Assistant State's Attorney John Shabbaro indicated that he would question some of these witnesses. It was admitted, however, that the most to be gleaned probably would be the throwing of more discredit on the suicide theory, a theory never officially accepted.

Nothing has been done in the Mount case since Saturday, until the petition of the boy's parents was made.

When Hearts Command

BY ELIZABETH YORK MILLER

(Continued from Yesterday.)

He had been during the past two weeks. Pessimism seemed to have been put away with his needwork.

Jean thought she was right; that he had been concerned about the money, though refusing to admit it. What else could have depressed him? Fortunately she knew nothing about that. Confidently she talked between him and Alice concerning Hector Gaunt's feeling for her. Had she known that, her eyes might have been opened.

This was a practical day, in which sentiment had no chance to enter. Yesterday it had seemed as though there was but little to do, but every one knows how that works out in reality on the verge of a journey. There were three meals to be got through, Louisa to instruct, the final packing, and that small but most tiresome drudgery of finding labels—first of discovering that there were no labels in the house, and sending out for them—then writing and fastening them on.

Gaunt, looking like a cross between an Italian farmer in his best clothes and a nonconformist preacher, arrived in time for tea. Just thought him ridiculous with his wide-brimmed black felt hat and voluminous broadcloth frock coat, but while she laughed her throat swelled uncomfortably. Unless she was mightily mistaken, that was the same coat he had bought for their bigamous marriage twenty years ago, straining now a little at the shoulder seams, its luster reduced to mere well brushed shininess, but undoubtedly the same coat. Besides his bag, Hector had a rush basket, which smelled sweet and dripped with moisture. He let them have a peep at its contents, and—behold, the bride's bouquet! White carnations and roses buds embedded in smilax and asparagus fern, with yards of white satin ribbon to tie it up with. He had risen at dawn to gather the flowers before the sun had touched them, he said.

"I should think that Ardenne would have ordered a bouquet," said Jean's Hugo. "Otherwise, I should have done so myself."

But the little bride-to-be was considerably touched by this mark of affection from her mother's old admirer.

"If he has, I can carry them both," she said.

Hugo sighed prodigiously. "Tomorrow this time you'll be a married woman," he said.

Gaunt clapped him on the back. "Come, old chap, you'll make us feel like a funeral."

"Well, weddings are quite sad. Worse, I think. How time flies! But of course, I was years in that place. It seems like only yesterday Alice was no more than a high. Just a mite of a thing."

"O, Uncle John, do you remember me when I was a baby? I didn't know."

Jean hysterically dragged them off these dangerous quicksands.

"Dear me! It's after five! Where can the carriage be? Are you quite sure that Louisa—"

"Quite sure, nunsay." Alice chimed in. "It's old (terrible). He won't fail us. He wasn't to come until five-thirty. O, here he is now!"

(Continued Tomorrow.)

Mrs. Fitzpatrick Gives Luncheon.

Mrs. J. H. Fitzpatrick was hostess at luncheon Thursday in compliment to Mrs. W. O. Thornton, of Rockford, Ill., the guest of Mrs. Louis Collier. Spring flowers in silver baskets were used as decorations.

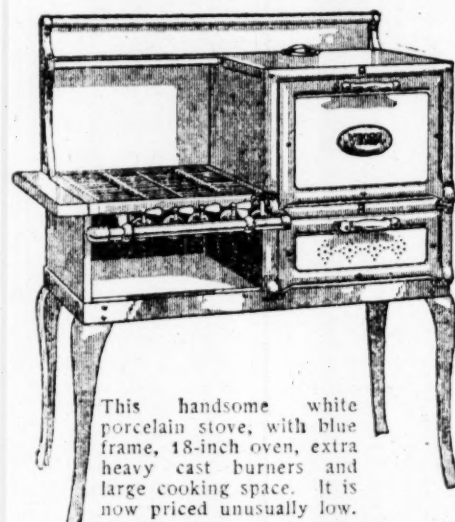

The guests included Mesdames Thornton, Louis Collier, LeRoy Jones, O. N. Lackey, Donaldson, Davis, McClearn.

KING HARDWARE CO.

10 Stores in Atlanta—One Near You

A Special Sale of Gas Stoves and Refrigerators

King Bee Quality Gas Ranges Reduced

This handsome white porcelain stove, with blue frame, 18-inch oven, extra heavy cast burners and large cooking space. It is now priced unusually low.

For the housewife who is looking for a really beautiful stove, as well as one that will absolutely cook as you would have it, we recommend the King Bee quality Range. No better stove can be had at any price.

The regular selling price is $95.00, but we have it priced now at $79.00

If you do not care for the solid Porcelain stove, we have one with porcelain doors, finished in black with back and side in black. This is our regular $75.00 value, but we have put it in this sale at only

A lot of people prefer this range to the all-white, as it is easier to keep clean. We have offered stove values before, but this is the best value ever offered by us. $59.00

Be Sure and See Our Family Special

For the average family a smaller size range is more practical than the large ones. In order that everybody can share in the big values that we are offering, we are placing our two "Family Specials" in at new low prices.

16-in. oven, finished in black thru-out. A real $50 value, now $37.50

This stove has porcelain door fronts, 16-inch oven. A regular $60.00 value anywhere, and we are willing for you to see the stove and realize just what a big bargain it is when we say it is only

Now is the time to save on a Range, as prices are going up. $45.00

This stove, exactly like cut, has 16-inch oven, extra heavy cast burners and large cooking space.

Lower Prices on Refrigerators

Hot weather is right on us. If you haven't bought a refrigerator, now is the time to do so. The saving we give on one of these will almost pay your summer's ice bill.

Every refrigerator we sell is absolutely guaranteed by both the manufacturer and King Hardware Company—they are built right or we wouldn't handle them.

We have just a few Refrigerators left. Side icer, at

$23.29

Think of getting a splendid box for only

$24.29

A large, roomy Refrigerator priced during this sale at $29.29

Side icer with lots of room for food, only

$32.32

Here Are the Finest Refrigerators Made

Snow-white Porcelain, both inside and outside. This refrigerator is the very last word in refrigerator value. It fits handsomely with our King Bee White Gas Range. If you want a perfect kitchen, this combination cannot be beaten. Special sale price,

$129.29

Snow-white Porcelain, both inside and outside. This refrigerator is without question the best you can buy. Its large compartment for ice, and lots of room for food. It will pay you to see this box, that is specially priced at $155.55

Housefurnishing Department—Second Floor

King Hardware Co.

Home Art Supply Company

172-174 Whitehall Street

Clearance Sale On Our Choice Stock of Ladies'

SPRING SUITS

25% Reduction in Price
As Long as They Last

They are the wanted materials, such as Tricotine, Poiré Twill, Velour, etc. Colors are mostly navy and black, but there are a few other colors. Featuring the Balkan, Box Back, Plain Tailored and Straight Line effects. Some are embroidered, others trimmed with braid and some plain. Priced formerly from $31.75 to $53.50, with a few as high as $82.50, and some as low as $19.75. Get them now at 25% off of these prices.

FREE ALTERATIONS. NO C. O. D.'s
NO EXCHANGES

LIBERAL CREDIT

Dainty Summer Dresses

In our fresh stock of summer dresses are some of the prettiest frocks we have ever had. There are colors and combinations of colors sure to delight the feminine heart. Come early while full selection may be had.

Priced Up From $4.95

of Pongee—
Tub Silk—Ratine—
Linen—Linene—Organdie—Voile—Imported Gingham—

You Can "Have It Charged" Here

Waists—Skirts—Silk Underwear, Silk and Wool Sweaters and Slip-overs—Petticoats, etc.

Housefurnishings—Curtains—
Rugs—Art Squares—Cretonne
Files, etc.

Just Like 2 Suits

Good looking all-wool suits. Made with care for hard wear. Dress him up in a stylish 2-pants suit now. Full range of sizes.

Priced Up From $11.50

Easy Terms

Dress to Fit the Weather

Woolen Suits
New shipment of stylish Spring Suits. Beautiful patterns. Some with 2 pants. Easy payments, and some are as low as $25 as.....

Summer Suits
Tropical Worsteds—Mohairs, Bermudas. Well tailored. They give a maximum of comfort and wear. Priced up from..... $15

Largest Stock of Any Installment House in the South
Open 'Till 9 P. M. Saturday—Free Alterations—Use Your Credit

HOME ART SUPPLY CO.

"Clothing—House Furnishings"
172-174 Whitehall Street

If You Believe in Signs
Read this

SAVE MONEY AND BUY YOUR

CLOTHES ON CREDIT

AT THE FAIR

Enjoy Our Easy Payment Plan

Have It Charged

At The Fair you can save money on beautiful, stylish, quality Ready-to-Wear

Ladies' Dresses, Capes, Suits

$9.98 $12.50

"Pay As It Suits You" 18.00 up

Men's Spring Suits

$25 $30 $35 and up

Boys' 2-Pants Suits $7.50—$10.98 $12.50 Up

THE FAIR

93 WHITEHALL STREET

Give your business a chance to grow by letting the public know

Keep on telling them
And you'll keep on selling them

The power of regular advertising will make and keep business regular

Don't Tell 'em Yesterday
Tell 'em Today

TELL them regularly in

The Atlanta Constitution
Main 5000

News of Society and Woman's Work

THE CONSTITUTION'S DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

Features Which Will Interest
Every Woman

Peebles-Fairlie Wedding Is Brilliant Event of Thursday

The marriage of Miss Lucia Cabanis Peebles and Andrew Miller Fairlie, which took place Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cabanis Peebles, 719 Piedmont avenue, was a brilliant event of widest interest throughout the south.

The lovely home was transformed into a bower of floral beauty, roses and southern smilax, stately palms and tropical ferns being arranged in pleasing effect throughout the lower floor.

The wedding staircase in the entrance hall was garlanded with southern smilax and pink roses, which also adorned the walls and chandeliers. The last steps of the stairway were a tangle of pink roses joined by a delicate arch through which the bride and groom passed into the library, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Horton.

The two matrons of honor, Mrs. Henry Edwin Peebles and Mrs. Winifred Nunnally, followed the two little flower girls, Lillian Fairlie, the little daughter of the groom, and Frances Austin. The flower girls were dressed exactly alike in exquisite frocks of peach blow georgette over flesh-colored crepe de chine. Long sashes of pink ribbon fell below the little skirts in a panel effect. Bunches of silver tulle were tucked into the waist and held in place by short veils of pink tulle. Their little feet were in white slippers edged with white satin ribbons and open with pink silk socks. They carried garlands of swansons, sweet peas and tiny pink carnations.

Mrs. Peebles' gown was of pomegranate-colored crepe de chine. Mrs. Nunnally's was of turquoise blue. Both gowns were fashioned alike with long and simple lines of grace and beauty and both were elaborately beaded in crystals and iridescent, differing only in color. Each carried a bouquet of white swansons, cornflowers and yellow roses caught with ribbons watching the brides.

The bride's gown, down the stairs alone, meeting her father, Henry Cabanis Peebles, at the foot and entering the library with him. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white chiffon beaded in crystals and beads draped over heavy white satin and veiled at the sides with panels of white tulle extending below the skirt. The charming little sleeves were of tulle and the shoulders were ornamented with orange blossoms and crystals and white beads. A giraffe of crystal beads ending in tassels of pearls encircled her slender waist. The court train, borne by little Walter Colquhoun, the son of a life-long friend, was fashioned of white satin veiled in white chiffon and tulle and caught with orange blossoms. The veil of tulle was caught to her dark hair with a bandeau of pearls around the forehead and fastened with rosettes of orange blossoms at each side. Her bouquet was of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and sprays of white swansons. Her only ornaments were a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, and a bracelet of diamonds and sapphires, the gift of Miss Eleanor Raoul.

She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Robert Wickens, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Brilliant Reception.
A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Peebles and Mr. and Mrs. Fairlie were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edward LeFevre Anderson, of Madison, Fla.; Mrs. Robert Wicketts, of Jackson, Miss.; and Mrs. Margaret Fairlie, of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Peebles wore a beautiful French gown of orchid chiffon, very smart and simple in line with the simplicity that is perfect in artistic effect. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Anderson's gown was of beige georgette veil and beige satin. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Charlotte Adams and Miss Elizabeth Swadlow, assisted by Miss Pauline Brown, Marjorie Carmichael and Mrs. Beaton, served punch on the porch, which was covered in the flower-scented punch bowl was placed in a little pagoda fashioned of pink roses and smilax.

The Wedding Journey.
During the reception Mr. and Mrs. Fairlie left for a six weeks' trip through the west. On their return they will be at home in the Parkview apartments at Fourteenth street and Piedmont avenue.

Mrs. Fairlie's going-away gown was a smart tailored model of blue point tulle combined with gray georgette embroidered in two shades of blue. She wore with this a stylish hat of blue Milan, faced with gray chiffon and trimmed with a cord of gray chiffon.

The Bride's Family.
No wedding of recent years has created greater interest than this. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cabanis Peebles and is a gifted musician and a cultured and charming young woman. Through her paternal grandfather, the late Judge Cincinnati Peebles, and his wife, the former Miss Eliza Cabanis, Miss Peebles claims descent from some of the south's most distinguished scholars, jurists and patriots. Mrs. Fairlie's mother, the former Miss Lillie D. Walker, a daughter of General William S. Walker, was a belle and beauty of Atlanta and is a direct descendant of General Herkimer, who first represented Florida in congress after it was ceded to the United States.

The Groom's Family.
Mr. Fairlie is originally from Glasgow, Scotland, but has made his home in Atlanta for several years. He comes of distinguished ancestry. He graduated from Harvard university with highest honors and is now a consulting chemical engineer. He is connected with several of the most important sulphuric acid and copper and both were elaborately beaded in crystals and iridescent, differing only in color. Each carried a bouquet of white swansons, cornflowers and yellow roses caught with ribbons watching the brides.

The Bride's Gown.
The lovely bride came down the stairs alone, meeting her father, Henry Cabanis Peebles, at the foot and entering the library with him. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white chiffon beaded in crystals and beads draped over heavy white satin and veiled at the sides with panels of white tulle extending below the skirt. The charming little sleeves were of tulle and the shoulders were ornamented with orange blossoms and crystals and white beads. A giraffe of crystal beads ending in tassels of pearls encircled her slender waist. The court train, borne by little Walter Colquhoun, the son of a life-long friend, was fashioned of white satin veiled in white chiffon and tulle and caught with orange blossoms. The veil of tulle was caught to her dark hair with a bandeau of pearls around the forehead and fastened with rosettes of orange blossoms at each side. Her bouquet was of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and sprays of white swansons. Her only ornaments were a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, and a bracelet of diamonds and sapphires, the gift of Miss Eleanor Raoul.

She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Robert Wickens, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Brilliant Reception.
A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Peebles and Mr. and Mrs. Fairlie were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edward LeFevre Anderson, of Madison, Fla.; Mrs. Robert Wicketts, of Jackson, Miss.; and Mrs. Margaret Fairlie, of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Peebles wore a beautiful French gown of orchid chiffon, very smart and simple in line with the simplicity that is perfect in artistic effect. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Anderson's gown was of beige georgette veil and beige satin. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Charlotte Adams and Miss Elizabeth Swadlow, assisted by Miss Pauline Brown, Marjorie Carmichael and Mrs. Beaton, served punch on the porch, which was covered in the flower-scented punch bowl was placed in a little pagoda fashioned of pink roses and smilax.

The Wedding Journey.
During the reception Mr. and Mrs. Fairlie left for a six weeks' trip through the west. On their return they will be at home in the Parkview apartments at Fourteenth street and Piedmont avenue.

Mrs. Fairlie's going-away gown was a smart tailored model of blue point tulle combined with gray georgette embroidered in two shades of blue. She wore with this a stylish hat of blue Milan, faced with gray chiffon and trimmed with a cord of gray chiffon.

The Bride's Family.
No wedding of recent years has created greater interest than this. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cabanis Peebles and is a gifted musician and a cultured and charming young woman. Through her paternal grandfather, the late Judge Cincinnati Peebles, and his wife, the former Miss Eliza Cabanis, Miss Peebles claims descent from some of the south's most distinguished scholars, jurists and patriots. Mrs. Fairlie's mother, the former Miss Lillie D. Walker, a daughter of General William S. Walker, was a belle and beauty of Atlanta and is a direct descendant of General Herkimer, who first represented Florida in congress after it was ceded to the United States.

The Groom's Family.
Mr. Fairlie is originally from Glasgow, Scotland, but has made his home in Atlanta for several years. He comes of distinguished ancestry. He graduated from Harvard university with highest honors and is now a consulting chemical engineer. He is connected with several of the most important sulphuric acid and copper and both were elaborately beaded in crystals and iridescent, differing only in color. Each carried a bouquet of white swansons, cornflowers and yellow roses caught with ribbons watching the brides.

The Bride's Gown.
The lovely bride came down the stairs alone, meeting her father, Henry Cabanis Peebles, at the foot and entering the library with him. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white chiffon beaded in crystals and beads draped over heavy white satin and veiled at the sides with panels of white tulle extending below the skirt. The charming little sleeves were of tulle and the shoulders were ornamented with orange blossoms and crystals and white beads. A giraffe of crystal beads ending in tassels of pearls encircled her slender waist. The court train, borne by little Walter Colquhoun, the son of a life-long friend, was fashioned of white satin veiled in white chiffon and tulle and caught with orange blossoms. The veil of tulle was caught to her dark hair with a bandeau of pearls around the forehead and fastened with rosettes of orange blossoms at each side. Her bouquet was of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and sprays of white swansons. Her only ornaments were a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, and a bracelet of diamonds and sapphires, the gift of Miss Eleanor Raoul.

She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Robert Wickens, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Brilliant Reception.
A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Peebles and Mr. and Mrs. Fairlie were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edward LeFevre Anderson, of Madison, Fla.; Mrs. Robert Wicketts, of Jackson, Miss.; and Mrs. Margaret Fairlie, of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Peebles wore a beautiful French gown of orchid chiffon, very smart and simple in line with the simplicity that is perfect in artistic effect. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Anderson's gown was of beige georgette veil and beige satin. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Charlotte Adams and Miss Elizabeth Swadlow, assisted by Miss Pauline Brown, Marjorie Carmichael and Mrs. Beaton, served punch on the porch, which was covered in the flower-scented punch bowl was placed in a little pagoda fashioned of pink roses and smilax.

French Music Is Discussed By Alliance

"French Music and Composers" was the subject discussed by the Alliance Francaise yesterday at an interesting meeting held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Erwin in Druid Hills. The different periods in the history of French music were taken up and charmingly illustrated with typical songs.

Charles Lorridans, president of the alliance, was the principal speaker of the occasion and a charming feature was the singing of two French songs by Miss Mela Wellborn.

Mrs. Arthur Harris presided at the tea table and Miss Catherine Erwin assisted her mother in receiving.

Mrs. Frederick Is Hostess at Tea.

Mrs. Claud Frederick entertained at tea Thursday at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Miss Bessie Culler, of San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. Clarence Cope and Mrs. Steel Partridge, of Mobile, Ala., the guest of Mrs. Cecil Walker.

The table, overlaid with lace held as a central decoration a plateau of Paul Neron roses, arranged with ferns and smilax. Encircling this were silver candlesticks holding pink unshaded tapers and compots filled with mints of conforming shades were placed at intervals around the table. Hand-painted cards marked each guest's place.

Mrs. Frederick was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Fred Rogers.

Mrs. Frederick was gowned in canary-colored crepe, embroidered in pearls, worn with a Leghorn hat, trimmed with lace and water lilies. Mrs. Rogers wore a gown of green crepe, embroidered with crystals and worn with a Leghorn hat, trimmed with lace and flowers.

Covers were laid for twenty-four guests.

Woman's Board of Oglethorpe Gives Brilliant Reception

Ushering in the commencement season of Oglethorpe university was the brilliant reception given Thursday evening at the Druid Hills Golf club by the woman's board of Oglethorpe, in compliment to the graduating class.

The guests were received in the large living room of the club which was beautifully decorated for the occasion in quantities of red and pink Dorothy Perkins roses. Marigolds of the lovely blossoms interspersed the palms and ferns which formed a background for the caps and gowns of the seniors and the lovely costumes of the handsome women present.

In the receiving line with Dr. Thorne Jacobs, president of the university, and Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Katherine Conner, president of the woman's board, were the graduating class, the recipients of honorary degrees, who are Dr. George L. Petrie, of Charlottesville, Va.; Professor Willis A. Sutton, Dr. Nathaniel P. Pratt, Charles A. Sheldon, Jr., Joel Hunter. Others in the receiving line were Mrs. John K. Ottley, chairman, and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft, vice chairman of the executive committee; Mrs. Albert Thornton, Sr., Mrs. E. P. McBurney, Mrs. Charles A. Conklin, and Mrs. George W. Brine, vice president; Mrs. E. D. Crane, treasurer; Mrs. I. R. Canine and Mrs. Gordon Barnett, Secretaries; Mrs. Samuel M. Inman and Mrs. James R. Gray, honorary presidents; Mrs. J. M. High, chairman of commencement entertainments; Edgar Watkins, chairman of board of founders, and Mrs. Watkins, Dr. and Mrs. James T. South, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Libby, Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Nicholson, Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Gaertner.

In the ball room of the club, the university colors, black and gold, were lavishly used in the decorations. Black and gold pennants adorned the walls and long streamers in the same colors were suspended from the ceiling and were caught to the chandeliers in shower effect. Bright yellow coronas were the flowers used to carry out the effective color scheme. Punch was served in the palm room where coronas were again used in lavish decorations, the crystal bowls being surrounded by mounds of the blossoms.

Music was furnished by the Oglethorpe orchestra, under the direction of John T. Lee, musical director of Oglethorpe.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. C. H. Brandon, general chairman of the decorations, and Mrs. William Oldknow, Mrs. H. G. Carnes, Mrs. J. Cheston King, Mrs. C. K. Ayers, Mrs. H. M. Nichols, Mrs. Omar Elder, Mrs. R. L. Cooney, Mrs. W. A. Soper, Mrs. L. E. Challenger, Mrs. Victor Kriegshaber, Mrs. E. Rivers, Mrs. James T. Williams, Mrs. A. P. Treadwell, Mrs. Marvin Underwood, members of the executive committee.

The guest list included members of the woman's board, the board of founders and wives of the alumni of the university, and the entire faculty and student body.

Miss Marion Smith Honors Visitors.
One of the delightful social events of Thursday was the luncheon given by Miss Marion Smith at the Georgian Terrace in honor of Miss Margaret McAlister, of Greenville, S. C., who is the guest of Miss Ernestine Campbell and Mrs. Eugene Beatty, who is a charming Atlanta visitor.

A lovely plateau of roses was in the center of the table and pink candles were also used as decorations. Covers were laid for ten.

Alumnae Meeting At Infirmary.
There will be a special meeting of the alumnae of St. Joseph's infirmary today at 3 o'clock.

Kindly bring all returns from bridge party, etc., to that meeting.

Mrs. Trotti Is Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. Hugh Trotti entertained at bridge on Thursday afternoon at her home in Decatur.

The score cards, decorations and refreshments carried out the color scheme of yellow and white.

Mrs. Trotti was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Harrington Wilson.

Miss Elizabeth Holleman Wins D. A. R. Essay Medal

An interesting feature of the graduation exercises of Washington semi-annually Thursday evening at the Atlanta theater was the awarding of a medal to Miss Elizabeth Holleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Holleman, for the best paper on the "Value of American Colonies to Great Britain." The medal was given by the Atlanta chapter, D. A. R., and presented by Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, chairman of the medal committee.

Honorable mention badges were presented to Miss Aileen Brower and Miss Mary Bowden.

The members of the medal committee and officers of the chapter occupied the boxes which were effectively decorated in blue and white, the D. A. R. colors. They included Mrs. Bun Wylie, regent; Mrs. Fletcher Spratlin, first vice regent; Mrs. Charles M. Love, second vice regent; Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. John M. Slaton, chairman medal committee, and the members of the committee, Mrs. Bryant Collier, Mrs. Francis Black, Mrs. Edwin Barnes, Mrs. Alfred Newell and Mrs. Howard McCall, Sr.

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

Models, Half Price

Beautifully Finished Pieces of Art Needlework
—Just twice each year are these Sales held—to clear out discontinued models.

—Imagine getting Home Dresses beautifully hand-embroidered, for $2.95!—The daintiest Children's Aprons, gaily hand-embroidered, for 98c! Or, five-piece Luncheon Sets, for $4.95!

—To be sure, some of the pieces are a trifle soiled from display—but who minds, when such ridiculously low prices prevail? And when the pieces are so easily laundered? Every woman fond of hand-embroidered things should be on hand at Store's opening tomorrow.

at $2.95

Pieces Reg. $4 to $9

—Cluny lace-trimmed Scarfs, Library Table Scarfs, embroidered in colors; Buffet Sets, embroidered on tan or white materials; Children's Dresses; Pillows; 36-inch tan or white Vanity Sets; Rompers; 27-inch Centerpieces; Bungalow Aprons; Bridge Sets; Baby Dresses, and Pillows.

at 96c

Pieces Formerly $2 to $4

—Children's Aprons, Baby Caps, Children's Hats, fancy Aprons, Huck Towels, Cup Towels, and small Centerpieces. All Royal Society—all wanted pieces.

at $4.95

Formerly $7 to $13

—54-inch Luncheon Cloths; five-piece Luncheon Sets; Pillow Cases; Children's Dresses; 36-inch Centerpieces embroidered in silk; Scarfs; Gowns.

at $1.95

Pieces Reg. $3 to $7

—Aprons, Dressing Sacques, Pillow Cases, Card Table Covers, pure linen Towels; white, blue, rose and yellow. Centerpieces 27-inch and 36-inch. Rompers and Pillows and Scarfs.

at $7.95

Formerly $20—and More —Beautiful fringed Bedspreads, full size, 90x100, embroidered in colors—of seersucker, unbleached domestic—some are patchwork.

—Rich's, Third Floor

Now in Full Swing Rich's
56th Anniversary

Silk Classic

The Newest Weaves! Many Shown at Rich's Exclusively

—No doubt but the proof of a Sale is in the buy—The 56th Anniversary is making a new high record in silk selling. The newest weaves, exclusive fabrics, novelties, staples and the present low Anniversary prices are bringing women eagerly buying. An event so wonderful that it is thrilling all feminine Atlanta, all feminine Georgia. The Sale lasts only through May. After that these reduced prices will be withdrawn. Act now, buy for immediate and early autumn use.

Silk Crepe de Chine $1.49
—Pure silk—all colors and best of all—40-in. wide. Cool summer silk for dresses as well as linings.

$3.50 Homespun Crepe $1.95
—40-in. Homespun Weave Crepe, in two-tone and plain colors. For sports dresses. Heavy, silky fabric.

$6 Palama Crepe $2.95
—Heavy all-pure silk Palama crepe, in navy, black, brown, tan, gray, Lanvin. For capes, sports dresses. 40-in.

$2 Corean Crepe $1.49
—33-in. Cheney's Corean Crepe, in navy, flesh, pink, white, tan, green. Washable and suitable for summer dresses.

$5 Moroccan Crepe $2.95
—40-in. Moroccan crepe—a heavy quality. Navy, black, brown, cocoa, gray, tan. Lustrous beautiful quality.

Georgette Crepe $1.49
—40-in. Georgette Crepe, printed in small and large designs. All colors and tones for dainty summer frocks.

$3.95 Corkscrew Crepe $2.95
—40-in. heavy corkscrew crepe, for capes, dresses, skirts, in black, navy, ivory, gray, green, rose, tan and evening shades.

$2 Kimono Silk $1.49
—36-in. printed Kimono Silk, in Japanese, Chinese and floral designs. Blue, rose, pink, red.

Plain Crepe de Chine $1.95
—40-in. Crepe de Chine—a heavy, beautiful quality in all colors—tan, gray, rose, pink, flesh, white, black, navy, brown.

$3 Wash Satin $1.49
—36-in. Wash Satin Prints for dresses, blouses, jacquettes, in white grounds with colored figures.

Millinery Dept. Rich's Second Floor

Clearaway of 400 Trimmed Hats

Also a Few
Untrimmed Shapes
Formerly Much Higher Priced

$1

Another big Anniversary Surprise—Don't let anything keep you from enjoying this unusual sale—Be here at doors' opening, today.

Your Choice of Styles Illustrated Above
for Only

More Light - - - Less Cost
In This

Sale of Lamps

$27.50

Sale for Friday and Saturday
Only

For Friday and Saturday we offer 6 Wrought Iron Bridge Lamps, 10 Junior Lamps, 12 Bridge Lamps, all exactly as illustrated above and complete with beautiful georgette silk shades in several colors, at the ridiculously low price of $27.50. Take your choice. Don't be disappointed by coming too late. Only 28 Lamps in all to sell, and the quality is far greater than the price. Mail orders filled as long as supply lasts.

Encore!!
This Mahogany Finished
End Table

A handsome Table to use by your Reading Chair, or at end of davenport. Regular price $7.50. Special Friday and Saturday...

Those who came too late to get one of these tables in a former sale, will not be disappointed if they call early Friday.

Exactly as Illustrated

WILEY JONES FURNITURE CO.
263-265 PEACHTREE STREET
Atlanta, Ga.—Phone IVy 6749

Mrs. Clapp Is Honor Guest At Mrs. Roy Collier's Tea

Honoring a charming visitor, Mrs. Charles R. Clapp, of Toledo, Ohio, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Mobley, the tea at which Mrs. Roy Collier entertained Thursday afternoon, at the Piedmont Driving club assembled fifty of the smartest members of Atlanta society.

The guests were received on the terrace by the hostess and honor guest, together with Mrs. Mobley and

Mrs. F. J. Sprattling, the hostess, mother, and forming a background was the Dorothy Perkins rose, which bloomed in effective beauty on the balcony of the porch running the length of the ballroom.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Harry L. Stearns and her guest, Mrs. Benjamin Gantt, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Joseph D. Rhodes, Mrs. Harry

The College Graduate Does Know a good many things

Amongst others they know that in Stationery matters we are prepared to furnish just the right thing to send for a graduation gift. A box of new Sport Stationery, a ladies' Fountain Pen, a Gold or Silver Pencil, a Thermo-Vane, Engraved Visiting Cards are appropriate gifts, or if you just want to send a congratulation card—we have them beautifully engraved expressing best wishes, etc. See our Gift Goods at 103 Peachtree St. J. P. Stevens Engraving Co., Atlanta.

E. Herman, Jr., Mrs. Sims Bray, and Mrs. Frank Boland.

Mrs. Collier wore a hand-made lingerie gown, introducing filet lace and embroidery, and girdled in French blue ribbon. Her hat of straw matched the sash, and was flower-trimmed.

Mrs. Clapp's gown was of batiste, hand-embroidered and combined with filet lace. She wore a hat of lavender straw, trimmed with ostrich feathers which shaded from lavender to a deep rose.

Mrs. Sprattling was gowned in black chintilly lace veiling chiffon and satin, and her black straw hat was trimmed with purple flowers.

Mrs. Stearns was gowned in white georgette crepe, embroidered in French blue dots which were outlined in beads. Her black Milan hat had an embroidered crown, and large silk roses were employed as the trimming.

Mrs. Gantt's gown was of white chiffon, showing a dainty pattern of drawn work and trimmed with filet lace. With this she wore a black hat of Neapolitan straw trimmed with glycerined ostrich.

Mrs. Rhodes' costume was of light blue chiffon, and her Leghorn hat was flower-trimmed.

Mrs. Harmon's hand-made gown was of batiste, embroidered in effective design, and her sash was of yellow ribbon. A Leghorn hat, trimmed in yellow flowers completed her costume.

Mrs. Boland's gown was of brown lace veiling dark blue chiffon, and shaded with blue chiffon. Her hat of dark blue straw was trimmed with burnt goose.

Mrs. Sims Bray wore a gown of white lace veiling chiffon and satin, and her orchid colored straw hat, trimmed with pink roses and lilacs.

New From Brenau College.

One of the lovely islands on Lake Talsieda was the setting for the presentation of "Much Ado About Nothing," which was given under the direction of Miss Maud Fiske by the students of the school of oratory on Friday. The natural beauty of the park was enhanced by a profusion of mountain laurel, jasmine and the green of new leaves.

Girls' High Scholarship Winners

Photos by Tye Sanders.

Winners of scholarships to Agnes Scott college from Girls' High school, who, Thursday at the state capital gathering of Atlanta high school seniors, received congratulations on the rewards accorded them for their high scholastic standing. Left to right, they are Miss Frances Craighead, Miss Martha Crowe and Miss Grace Zachry.

After the performance the finals in the canoe race were held by the representatives of the senior and freshman classes. The seniors were represented by Misses Lillian Sutter and Evelyn Henebery; the freshman by Misses Pearl Jones and Frances Harrison.

At 6 o'clock Mrs. Barnes served a picnic luncheon to the entire college community.

On Saturday evening the members of the Alpha Delta Pi chapter entertained with their annual banquet in honor of Founders day.

The banquet was served at Cicciolo's. Bowls of flowers were placed at intervals and a tracery of green made the long table very lovely.

Miss Juanita Haralco, of Blairsville, Ga., was presented in her graduation plans recital on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The vespers service of the Young Woman's Christian association was under the leadership of Zeta Phi Eta sorority. Miss Marion Griffin led the service and talks were given by Misses Grace Everest and Eleanor Reid. The soloist of the evening was Miss Doris Deer.

Luncheon Honors Agnes Scott Class.

The senior class of Agnes Scott college will be entertained at luncheon by the Alumnae association on Saturday, May 23, at the East Lake Country club.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the luncheon and an interesting program will be rendered which will make the occasion one of the most enjoyable events of commencement week. Many alumnae from out of the city will attend.

Today is the last day on which reservations for the luncheon may be made. Alumnae are requested to send reservation, enclosing $2, to Miss Emma Jones, Alumnae Young alumna house, Decatur, Ga., and a ticket will be mailed.

Only guests presenting tickets at door will be admitted.

Women Voters' League Has Luncheon Thursday

The League of Women Voters' luncheon held at the Capital City club Thursday assembled an interesting group who heard Miss Louise Griffith, the assistant treasurer of the national league, who was the guest of honor, speak on the general work of the league.

Miss Griffith spoke of the serious situation confronting the American people at the time 20,000,000 women were thrown into the electorate, when, she said, democracy was facing its most serious test and the apathy of the average citizen was a genuine menace. She pointed out the fact that a body without had political habits, or political affiliations, not yet apathetic or disillusioned and eager to learn, such as the newly enfranchised women voters were, could be of the greatest value in changing the existing social order. The league's work, she explained, is to direct and train this force for the task of intelligent suffrage and to create a program of work and effort to fit all types "where none existed before."

The luncheon table was decorated with baskets of garden flowers arranged in charming manner.

Miss Watkins, field secretary, made an appeal for volunteer workers to assist in the membership campaign. Mrs. Harry Chamberlin, the president, presided.

Luncheon for Women Osteopaths.

A half dozen of the leading women osteopaths of Georgia who will attend the State Osteopathic association in Atlanta Saturday, May 23, will be guests of Dr. Elizabeth Lightfoot at luncheon at the Atlanta Woman's club.

At this time Georgia branch of the Osteopathic Women's National association will complete its organization—the purpose of which in each state is for better team work among its members in civic, public health and all welfare work. The national association is a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and will hold its annual convention preceding the National Osteopathic association at the Waldorf Astoria hotel, New York, the first week in July. Several Georgians will attend.

Mrs. Frank Burr Honors Visitors.

Mrs. Frank Burr was hostess at luncheon Thursday at the East Lake Country club, complimenting Miss Bessie Culley, of San Francisco, the guest of Mrs. Clarence Coppedge, and Miss Emily Holditch, of London, England, who is the guest of Mrs. C. J. Holditch.

The luncheon table was adorned by a central decoration of red roses artistically arranged in a silver basket. Silver candelabra holding unshaded red tapers were placed at either end.

Mrs. Burr received her guests wearing a gown of beige crepe embroidered in gold. A hat of blue and gold completed her attractive costume.

Invited to meet Miss Culley and Miss Holditch were Mesdames D. T. Robinson, Walter Candler, Claude Frederick, Clarence Coppedge and C. J. Holditch.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Floyd Wilcox McRae, Jr., will give a tea at the Piedmont Driving club.

Mrs. Lawrence Everhart will give a bridge-shower for Miss Carolyn Montgomery, a bride-elect.

Mrs. Robert Greer will give a bridge-tea at the Atlanta Woman's club for Miss Culley.

Mrs. J. N. Goddard will give an afternoon tea in compliment to her daughter, Miss Mary Goddard.

Teas at the Atlanta Woman's club.

William Parker will give a dinner in compliment to Miss Virginia Pegram and De Sales Harrison, whose marriage will be an event of June.

The members of the Alpha Sigma Pi fraternity of Boys' High school and the University school will entertain at a dance at Brookhaven.

Mrs. Joseph Rhodes will give a luncheon at the Piedmont Driving club for Mrs. Ben Gantt, of Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. John S. Holliday will be hostess at a luncheon at her home on Juniper street for Mrs. James Meegan, of Washington.

The woman's auxiliary of All Saints' church will give a festival on the lawn of All Saints' church.

The members of the University school and Boys' High school chapter of the Alpha Sigma Pi fraternity will entertain at a dance this evening at Brookhaven Country club.

Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith and Mrs. Norman Sharp will honor Mrs. B. M. Boykin and Mrs. Alonzo Richardson at an afternoon tea at the Atlanta Woman's club.

The Ladies' Aid society will sponsor a masquerade party at the Harris Street Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock.

Juniors of Agnes Scott will give a banquet to the senior class at 7:30 o'clock at the Druid Hills Golf club.

Fraternities of Tech High school will give a dance at Hurst hall this evening.

Miss Evelyn Donehoo will present the pupils of her dancing class in a recital at Marist hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The graduating exercises of the seventh grade of State Street school will be held in the auditorium of Barnet church at 7:30 o'clock.

Pupils of Mrs. Wayne Wilson will appear in recital at Steinway hall at 3:30 o'clock.

The Nellie Peters Black free kindergarten will have their closing exercises at 7 o'clock on the lawn of the school.

An entertainment will be given this evening at the Luckie Street school at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the Payne Memorial church.

Mrs. A. L. Slaton will present pupils in a studio recital at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. J. R. Smith, Jr., will give a bridge-tea at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue in honor of Mrs. Augustus Alston, a recent bride, and in honor of Miss Wynona Weatherbee, of Leesburg, Fla., who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Courtland Winn.

The Normal Training school of Atlanta will have its commencement exercises at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Woman's club.

The Atlanta conservatory of music will present Miss Helen Christ in a senior recital, assisted by Miss Mary McCool, at Cable hall at 8 o'clock.

The Mission Study class of the First Methodist church will hold an all-day meeting today at the church, beginning at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served.

Miss Agnes Moore Is Honor Guest.

A lovely affair, complimenting Miss Agnes Moore, bride-elect, was a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Herschel Upchurch at her residence on McPherson avenue Tuesday afternoon.

Daisies and pink sweet peas were used in exquisite designs as decorations. Mrs. Upchurch was lovely in a pink crepe gown and was assisted in receiving by Miss Virginia Moore.

Miss Evelyn Billings, wearing burnt-orange silk with metal trimmings, kept the bride's book in which each guest registered. After several delightful contests, the many and beautiful gifts were brought in by two lovely little girls, Margene Holbrook and Elizabeth Guillebeau, each carrying them in huge pink baskets.

Miss Moore was gowned in blue silk crepe and wore a corsage of pink sweet peas.

Among those present were: Misses

Louise and Kate Anderson, Miss Evelyn Billings, Mrs. W. D. Bran, Mrs. Raymond Clay, Mrs. Byron Hamrick, Mrs. A. D. Helms, Mrs. W. H. David, Mrs. R. C. Akins, Mrs. J. V. Moore, Mrs. D. E. Moore, Mrs. John Nabers, Mrs. J. C. Moss, Mrs. Guillebeau, Mrs. Herschel Upchurch, Misses Agnes and Virginia Moore and Mrs. Emmett Allums.

On Thursday evening Mrs. A. D. Helms will honor Miss Moore and Mrs. Nabers with a brilliant party in which a large number of guests have been invited.

The calendar of the Ft. Washington Presbyterian church, Broadway and 147th street, New York, has a paragraph which says, "Don't sleep out loud during the service."

Georgia's Best Summer Resort
White Sulphur, R. 5, Gainesville, Ga.
Now open. Dance Saturday evening—(adv.)

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
49-53 Whitehall

Today--A Newly Appointed Day of Reductions

Our "Special" Day is usually Saturday. We have moved up a day—today is going to be good luck day—specials at lowered prices—the order of the day—and today's shopping trip will be made profitable.

Silk Underwear Reductions

When June approaches, the trip is the thing—it may be a wedding trip for a' that—and even brides value a saving—a good beginning that will profit through life.

Brides, begin your economy habit here today.

Dainty undergarments are first thought when any trip is planned.

Crepe de Chine TEDS $2.49
Fine smooth quality, lace bands and edge—lace and embroidered medallions. Some extremely plain, tailored finish.

Crepe de Chine GOWNS $3.95
Trimmed with fine laces—or strictly plain, with hemstitching and fine quality—for adornment.

Closing Out Odd Lots ELASTIC GIRDLES $1.69
Drastic reductions only a small part of their former prices. All fine quality.

Clearance---Odd Lots BRASSIERES 59c
All extra quality; all desirable styles; a mere fraction of former prices.

Sweaters and Blouses Reduced for Today

Slip-on Sweaters $1.59
Broken lots they are—all sizes—not all colors and styles in all sizes—all the smart light and dark colors—and fashionable combinations.

Pure Silk Sweaters $19.55
These are our handsomest pure silk Tuxedo Sweaters—mostly smart light and brilliant summer colors, tan, gray, orchid, brown, purple, pink, king's blue.

Hand Made Dimity Blouses $1.59
—Every inch fine quality
—Every stitch hand-made
—Hand drawn work
—Hand-embroidery
—Peter Pan and roll collars.

A Brilliant Collection Costume Blouses $4.59
Many are Half Price—
Jacquettes and side tie style. Every one a fashion model. All the smartest combinations of brilliant color, as well as black and white.

New All-Wool Bathing Suits $3.95 Main Floor
All accessories at very small prices

Furs
Stored
Cold, Dry Storage
3% of Valuation

J. P. Allen & Co.

Furs
Remodeled and Repaired
Special Summer
Prices

Summertime Shoes for Children

$1.75 8 1/2 to 11 $1.95 11 1/2 to 2

Barefoot Sandals in Dark Tan Leather, Patent Leather, Smoked Elk, sturdy and ideal for summer wear.

Smart Roman Sandals in White Duck or Patent Leather.

PRICES
SIZE
3 to 8.....$2.95
8 1-2 to 11 $3.45
11 1-2 to 2 $3.95

Headquarters for "Keds" for the Whole Family

For Boys "The Nuggett"
—Most popular style—all brown, also white, brown trim.

—Sizes 8 1-2 to 11.....$1.65
—Sizes 11 1-2 to 2.....$1.95
—Sizes 2 1-2 to 6.....$2.25

"The Pastime"
The finest "Ked" style made for Girls.

—Sizes 11 1-2 to 2.....$2.25
—Sizes 2 1-2 to 6.....$2.45

Davison Paxon Stokes Co.

WARNER'S SEVEN ACES
(The Atlanta Constitution Orchestra)

At Capital City Club Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday Nights; Piedmont Driving Club Saturday Nights; Brookhaven Country Club Sunday Afternoons.
For special engagements, address H. B. Warner, Care The Constitution, or telephone Mr. Brannon at Hemlock 0677.

H. G. LEWIS & CO. Millinery Dept. 3rd Floor

All Lewis' Millinery Over a Thousand Hats Half Price

The Greatest and Only All-Inclusive Half-Price Sale Ever Held at This Store.

$5.00 Hats.....$2.50	$16.50 Hats....$8.25
7.50 Hats.....3.75	18.00 Hats....9.00
10.00 Hats.....5.00	20.00 Hats....10.00
12.50 Hats.....6.25	22.50 Hats....11.25
13.75 Hats.....6.88	25.00 Hats....12.50
15.00 Hats.....7.50	27.50 Hats....13.75

Come Early—Everything Goes in This Sale—Nothing Reserved—All New Spring and Summer Hats.

H. G. Lewis & Co.

Peachtree Garden Flower Show At Driving Club May 28

The Peachtree Garden club will stage the first exhibition of flowers Monday afternoon, May 28, at 3 o'clock, at the Piedmont Driving club. The exhibit will include any flower in bloom at this season of the year growing in the gardens. Hot house flowers will not be accepted in any class. Roses, larkspur, iris, poppies, columbine, foxglove, candytuft, pansies, phlox, peonies and sweet William will be among the blossoms shown in the flower show.

Arrangements Committee.

The committee on arrangements includes Mrs. William P. Hill, chairman; Mrs. Jesse Deane, Mrs. William H. Kiser, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. John N. Stoddard, Mrs. Thomas Edwin, Mrs. Albert Thornton, Jr., and Mrs. Charles F. Sciple. This committee requests that each member clip the following rules which govern the show from "The Constitution," as a reference when preparing exhibits:

Rules Announced.

The first flower show of the Peachtree Garden club will be held on May 28 at the Piedmont Driving club at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to exhibit. All exhibits, with the exception of class A, must be clearly marked with: (a) Name of exhibitor; (b) name of flower and variety; (c) class. Entrance for exhibits will be closed at 12 o'clock. Later than that they cannot enter competition.

Receptacles will be furnished by committee except in class A. Arrangement and receptacles will count in awarding ribbons only in class A.

Classes:
A—Best arrangement of flowers suitable for living room. Any arrangement of flowers, shrubs, or berries, may be used. Any container. Exhibitors can enter any number of exhibits.

B—Best exhibit of perennials. Exhibitor must not show more than three of each variety of flower.

C—Exhibit of any annual or perennial will form a class, if three entries of the same flower are made.

D—Sweetstakes. Best exhibit of show, every class included.

E—Best novelty, annual or perennial.

Notes—Committee requests that receptacles be called for by owners immediately after the show. The committee takes no responsibility for receptacles. The prizes will be ribbons; first, blue ribbon; second, red ribbon; third, yellow ribbon. Novelty prize, violet ribbon. Sweetstakes trophy to be awarded for best exhibit in show. Judges to be selected by the committee. The committee insists that exhibits be in place by 12 o'clock. All flowers exhibited to be raised by exhibitor.

St. Mary's Guild Will Give Pretty Garden Party

St. Mary's Guild of St. Philip's church will entertain at a delightful garden party Tuesday, May 29, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Niall, 40 Oakdale road.

Mr. and Mrs. Niall will have receiving with them Bishop and Mrs. H. J. Mikell, Dean and Mrs. Thomas H. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. St. Elmo Massengale.

Assisting will be Miss Winifred Niall, Miss Elinor Memminger, Miss Martha Murdock, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Mary Goddard and Miss Bettie King.

The members of the guild cordially invite their friends.

Normal Training

School Exercises.

The fourteenth annual graduation exercises of the Atlanta Normal Training school will be held at the Woman's club auditorium Friday evening, May 25, at 8:30 o'clock. Twenty-seven young ladies who have successfully completed the regular two-year normal course will be given diplomas. Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech, will deliver the graduation address and Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools, will make a short talk. The diplomas and certificates will be awarded by Dr. W. W. Gaines. All friends of the graduates are cordially invited to attend the exercises.

Miss Donehoo

To Give Recital.

Miss Evelyn Donehoo will present about 20 pupils of her dancing class in a recital at Marist hall at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon May 25.

A very graceful and artistic program has been arranged, and all those interested are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Trippe

Is Hostess.

Mrs. Clarence Trippe was hostess at a beautiful bridge party on Wednesday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving club in honor of her sister, Miss Burkhalter, of Warrenton.

Mrs. Trippe wore a lovely white sport costume.

Miss Wyckoff wore brown Canton crepe.

Fine Arts Club to Present Spiker Players at 'Woodhaven'

The Fine Arts' club will present the Spiker players, under the direction of Mrs. William Claer Spiker, as the club's closing program of the season, on Saturday, May 26, at 4:30 o'clock.

This "fete de jardin," to be given at "Woodhaven," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Maddox, in Pace's Ferry road, will be the only meeting of the year which will be open to non-members of the Fine Arts club. Tickets may be obtained at Phillips & Crew for $1 each.

Assisting will be Miss Winifred Niall, Miss Elinor Memminger, Miss Martha Murdock, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Mary Goddard and Miss Bettie King.

The members of the club cordially invite their friends.

Benefit Bridge

And Domino Party.

The grounds committee of the Uncle Remus Memorial association will give a benefit bridge and domino party on the lawn at the home of Mrs. P. D. McCarty, 202 Gordon street, Wednesday, May 30, at 3:30 o'clock.

Attractive prizes will be given and an interesting program has been arranged.

Players are requested to bring cards, dominoes and pencils. Those desiring tables please West 0170.

Mrs. Spratt Gives

Tea for Visitor.

Mrs. W. T. Spratt will entertain at tea today at the Atlanta Woman's club in compliment to Mrs. W. O. Thornton, of Rockford, Ill.

Woman's Club Will Keep Open House Sunday Afternoon

The Atlanta Woman's club will hold open house on Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6:30 o'clock in compliment to the visitors, the wives and daughters of the Kiwanians who will be in the city for convention week.

It will be an opportunity for the out-of-town women to see the magnificent achievement of the Atlanta clubwomen, and for the clubwomen to extend cordial hospitality to their visitors.

This Sunday afternoon occasion is not in any sense an entertainment, but merely the "at home" afternoon of the club officers to the visiting women and their friends.

Receiving with Mrs. B. M. Boykin, president, will be Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, Mrs. Norman Sharp, Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Omar Elder, Mrs. W. F. Melton, Mrs. A. T. Colcord and Mrs. Howard McCall, Jr.

The wives of out-of-town Kiwanians and their local friends are cordially invited to be present on Sunday afternoon to meet the officers of the club and to see the club house and grounds, of which Atlanta is justly proud.

The art reviewer who fails to see in any anguished Percy's daubing of weird distress a vital, emphatic effort to seek new expression will have his highbrow license revoked.—Pittsburgh Post.

Study Class

Will Meet.

The subject of study in this week's session of the class in practical, applied psychology will be "Service, the only solid foundation upon which true business success can be established." The class, which is conducted by Elizabeth King, will meet as usual. Shampoo.—(adv.)

Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Timberlake, 362 Peachtree street.

While power by radio is predicted, gardening by blisters continues unchanged.—Pittsburgh Post.

MEDIUM BROWN HAIR looks best of all after a Golden Glist Elizabeth King, will meet as usual. Shampoo.—(adv.)

DISPEL the heat with a frosty glass filled to the brim with Tetley's Orange Pekoe—iced. There's nothing like it to quench a burning summer thirst.

TETLEY'S

Makes good TEA a certainty

Pageant and May Fete Will Be Given Friday at All Saints'

The pageant and May day fete to be given on the lawn of All Saints' church will be an elaborate and artistic event of Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mrs. L. E. Bobbitt so well known as the gifted "Julia Hardwick" wrote the pageant especially for All Saints' parish, and has trained the children for this outstanding performance. The sloping green sward with its background of myrtle and other shrubbery, within the shadow of the church spire, provides an ideal setting for the crowning of the queen, playing of the May pole, solo and group dances. Miss May Belle Dickey, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dickey, will be crowned queen by the month of May. Miss Ida Becham, and the queen will be surrounded by a large and gorgeously attired court.

Jack Wilkins will take the part of "Father Time," all spoken parts being in poetic form. The sun beams, dew-drops, breezes, and nymphs, and May pole dancers will be represented by seventy little girls, while many boys will do the dance of the Golewicz. April and May, a dance of great beauty will be given by Miss Evelyn Ward and Martha Henderson.

An orchestra will furnish the music. After the performance refreshments will be served. The public is cordially invited to be present. Admission, adults 50 cents, children 25 cents.

Miss Emily McPhail

Honors Senior Class.

The senior class of Washington University were honor guests at the matinee party given Thursday afternoon by Miss Emily McPhail. After the matinee the guests were entertained at tea.

Besides the senior class Miss Margaret Mahoney, Miss Berta Stahl and Miss Suzanne Springer were invited. The members of the senior class are:

Miss Theodora Beckham, Miss Martha Bowen, Miss Isabelle Breitenbueher, Miss Leona Bridges, Miss Julia Brumby, Miss Eugenia Buchanan, Miss Frankie Cannon, Miss Yolande Gwyn, Miss Ethel Hunter, Miss Miss Harrell, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Louise Lewis, of Montevideo, Ga.; Miss Allen Lonsdale, Miss Rosaline Lunsford, Miss Emily Margaret Lunsford, Miss Margaret Crawford Napier, Miss Dorothy Poppe, Miss Miss Robert Quinn, Miss Florine Sparks, Miss Evelyn Hilton Sherman, Miss Miss Ruth Jolly, Miss Claire Hoxley, Miss Mary Elizabeth Hutchins, Miss Marietta Norris, of Mundy Point, Va.; Miss Anna Jones Powell, Miss Mary Beatrice, Miss Elizabeth Stark and Miss Mary Ford Little.

Miss Janet Bailey

Entertains Club.

The members of the O. B. X. club of Washington university were entertained Thursday afternoon by Miss Janet Bailey at her home on Fairview road.

The spacious rooms of the home were decorated with snapdragons, sweet peas and azaleas artistically arranged in silver vases and placed on the bookcases and mantels.

During the afternoon officers for the coming year were elected. President officers are: Miss Catherine Candler, president; Miss Janet Bailey, vice president; Miss Elizabeth Holleman, secretary, and Miss Grace Powell, treasurer.

After the business meeting a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

Bridge Party for

Miss Montgomery.

Mrs. Charles Bothwell entertained the All-Over Decatur Bridge club and the wedding attendants of Miss Caroline Montgomery, a bride-elect, at a bridge party on Thursday morning.

A birthday cake iced in white and embossed with pink roses, and holding pink candles was presented to Miss Montgomery, the date being her birthday.

Mrs. Bothwell wore brown beaded Canton crepe.

Miss Montgomery was attractive in a lavender sport dress with a white hat.

After the game a handkerchief shower was given to Miss Montgomery.

Illustrated Lecture

On the Holy Land.

On Friday evening, May 25, at 8 o'clock, in the Sunday school room of the First Methodist church, Dr. W. A. Shelton, of Emory university, will deliver his lecture on the Holy Land, illustrated by stereopticon slides made from pictures taken by him when touring in the east a few years ago.

Dr. Shelton's rare descriptive powers, together with the remarkable pictures he exhibits, make the early life of our Lord exceedingly real. The lecture vitalizes the gospel story, and leaves with one an impression he cannot easily forget. It is interesting and inspiring for adults—it is simple enough for a child.

No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be received for the benefit of the guild.

Sacred Heart

May Festival.

The annual May festival given by the children of Sacred Heart school will be held on Marist campus on May 30 under the direction of Joe Bran. This guarantees a delightful affair.

In addition to the usual features there will be a wild west show, with ponies for the children to ride, a circus with a fat lady, a small charmer and wild man of Borneo, red legions, peanuts, ice cream, pop-corn, candy and punch.

Theater Party for Bride-Elect.

Miss Myrtice Stephenson entertained at a matinee party at the Forsyth theater on Thursday in honor of Miss Caroline Montgomery, bride-elect. The guests were: Miss Caroline Montgomery, Miss Mary Will Montgomery, Miss Jane Jackson, Miss Beatrice Winslow, Miss Katie Hazel Houston, Mrs. Roy Jones, Mrs. Douglas Woodward, Mrs. Clifford Ansel and Miss Harriet Mack.

Miss Sanders Weds

Thomas M. Longino.

Mrs. John Bartow Sanders announces the marriage of her daughter, Katie Ruth, to Thomas M. Longino on Tuesday, May 22, the Rev. A. M. Pierce officiating.

Music Class

Will Be Held.

Miss Helen Bellinger's class in music will be held in recital at the studio, 20 West Fifteenth street, Saturday afternoon, May 26, at 4 o'clock.

Hollingsworth's
FLOWER GIRL

The religion of flowers is to be good and be kind.

FLOWERS teach us all the natural religion of being gentle and kind. When you want flowers you should visit this shop and look over our wonderful array. We can supply bouquets for the proper table decorations, baskets for congratulatory messages or bouquets for the dressing table. Let us assist you.

Every event is an occasion for flowers.

Hollingsworth
FLORIST
425 PEACHTREE ST. PHONE IVY 6264

For FIRE PLACES see Queen Mantel & Tile Co.
56 West Mitchell St., Atlanta, Ga.
Established 1909

FIFTY THOUSAND WOMEN

would comprise a vast army, yet that is the number who have replied to a questionnaire recently sent out by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass. Ninety-eight out of every 100 letters from these women contained positive assurances that they have been benefited or restored to health by taking this old-fashioned root and herb medicine. This is most remarkable evidence of its power over the life of women. Therefore, with 98 chances out of one hundred that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will overcome such ailments for you, why should you continue to go through life in pain and suffering?—(adv.)

Society

for over eighty years has relied upon Gauraud's Oriental Cream to keep the skin and complexion in perfect condition through the stress of the season's activities. White Flesh-Rachel.

Send 10c for Trial Size

Gouraud's
Oriental Cream

PICTURES FRAMED

HIGHEST QUALITY LOWEST PRICES

Georgia Art Supply Co.
65 S. Broad St.
Manufacturers—Jobbers—Retailers

SOROSIS

The World's Finest

All which is desirable in exclusive white summer shoes

White kid two-button one-strap turn slipper. $11.50

White kid two-button strap red kid insertion. $12.50

White kid cross-strap stylish Louis heel. $11.00

White kid two-strap, cross bars and collar. $12.00

Misses' white kid strap slipper, sizes 11-12 to 2. $5.00

White linen-tongue pump, smart Spanish heel. $9.00

SOROSIS - SHOE - DEPARTMENT

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

It Charms the Feminine Eye to be the proud possessor of a complete woman's suit case equipment like that shown in the illustration. Everything that a careful woman would need when traveling is included. We have quite an assortment to select from at reasonable prices.

ROUNTREE'S

186 Peachtree St. —2 Stores— 77 Whitehall

W. T. TURNER, Mgr.
WE DO REPAIRING

15° ABOVE ZERO

COLD STORAGE

For Furs, Rugs, Overcoats, Suits, Blankets and all Woolens

John J. Woodside Storage Co., Inc.

239 Edgewood Ave. Atlanta, Ga. Ivy 2036

For "Sweet Girl Graduates"

Lingerie Gifts

TEDDIES of a good grade crepe de chine, in flesh, orchid and light blue. Plain tailored or lace trimmed—the lace a fine, creamy. Val. $2.50 values, special..... $1.95

JERSEY Bloomers and Vests—the bloomers cut full and reinforced—the vests extra long, long enough to be made into teddies. A real, heavy quality Jersey silk in flesh, maize, orchid and Nile. $3.95 and $5.00 values..... $2.95

SATIN Bust Corset, in pink or white, make acceptable graduation gifts. Fresh, new and dainty ones just received. Special.... $1

SLIPS of white wash silk and silk radium to wear under the graduation frock. Hemmed to the hips which makes them sightproof. $5.00, $6.50 to $8.95.

SATEEN Costume Slips with deep hip hems at $1.99, $2.50, $2.95 and $3.50.

Lingerie, lace-trimmed slips, at $2.00 and $2.50.

Costume Slips for the smaller girl, both plain or fancy trimmed, at $1.25 and $1.50.

Graduation Frocks

The stage is all set. Graduation night has arrived. Seated on the stage are rows of beautiful girls in snowy white. An expectant hush falls on the company as the name of each girl is called.

And, when one arises to receive one's diploma, isn't there a sense of satisfaction in being daintily and correctly dressed?

For graduation and commencement are lovely French voiles, soft as spiderwebs, tucked, hemstitched, picoté and sashed. Graceful, gracious crepe de chine and Canton crepes with pretty hand-made roses of self material, picot ribbon, tucks and other charming features. Ages 12 to 16.

When you stroll down Whitehall today, you'll see some of them in our window.

$5.00 to $29.75

For Supple Girlish Figures

Corsettes
Sport Girdles
Topless Corsets

$1.00

With vacation days ahead, and dancing, tennis and other active recreations in the planning, no girl wants to "boot-up" in a heavy corset.

Corsettes of sturdy fancy striped material with elastic sides; four strong hose supporters. Ideal for house wear, bathing or sports.

Sport Girdles with elastic sides, hook front, and four strong hose supporters.

Topless Corsets of plain, lightly boned coutil. Elastic top, and four strong hose supporters.

Regular $1.50 values, grouped for a special offering for Graduation Week at $1.00.

Going to Camp Saturday? Khaki Hiking Suit, $4.95

Camp Highland—Laurel Falls, all the camps are alive with khaki-clad girls, climbing, hiking, playing—living next to nature, gaining health, freedom and happiness.

If you are planning to go to camp after school's out, you'll certainly enjoy one of these smart hiking suits. Trousers and blouse extra long with Peter Pan or sailor collar, belt and two patch pockets. Trousers with adjustable knee. Splendidly tailored of good, sturdy khaki.

Girls' Khaki Trousers, good quality, neatly tailored with adjustable lace knee. Ages 12 to 18—$2.50

Chairmen to Entertain, Visitors Are Announced

The last general meeting of the committees who will look after the welfare of the visiting Kiwanis ladies during convention week was held at the Atlanta Woman's club in the auditorium Thursday morning, having been called at 10 o'clock by Mrs. Alonzo Richardson and Mrs. Henry Heinz, co-chairmen of local arrangements, for a final preparation and discussion of details.

The chairmen of the various committees are as follows: Mrs. Dudley Cowles, chairman of the Tuesday luncheon committee; Mrs. Russell Bridges, chairman of hotel hostesses; Mrs. McCauley, chairman of the committee to be on duty at the Union station; Mrs. Wesley Hirschberg, Will not hotel; Mrs. Hal Miller, Georgian Terrace; Mrs. Frank Fair, Mrs. Enrico Leide and Mrs. Fred Cooledge, Howard theater; Mrs. Jim Cochran, Hampton hotel; Mrs. S. Selig, Cecil hotel; Mrs. Tom Latham, Terminal hotel; Mrs. Dave Webb, Terminal station; Mrs. Stoddard, Brookwood station; Mrs. George W. Roberts, Kimball house; Mrs. William Colby, Imperial hotel; Mrs. Jim McNelly, Marion hotel; Mrs. Jim Kennedy, Piedmont hotel; Mrs. Bean, Ansley; Mrs. Tom Respas, Aragon hotel; Mrs. Hugh Carter, Wincoff hotel; Mrs. Oscar Mills, Oliver hotel, and Mrs. Bachman, Princeton hotel.

The members of the hotel committee will be on duty all day Sunday, as many of the visitors are coming in a day ahead of time. When the call for volunteers was put by Mrs. Richardson for assistance at the hotels, Mrs. Champion, chairman of the board of the Home of the Friendless, announced that two women of the board would be on duty with the hotel committees at the various hotels every day.

Following the open discussion of the committees and their respective chairmen, Mrs. Alfred Newell made her report, showing that the hotels are fairly well covered. The various chairmen reporting under Mrs. Newell's direction had good results, as a general rule. Every committee is complete with one or two exceptions, and the members of the other committees and the board of the Home of the Friendless will assist anywhere and any time possible.

An important announcement was made concerning the cars and the parking arrangements. All women are to take their cars on Saturday to the Skinner Transfer company where they will have discs put on the wheels which will permit their parking anywhere at any time. These discs, however, cannot be obtained unless the women take them to the transfer company their registration cards. For this reason it is absolutely essential that the wives of all Kiwanians and any other ladies who will serve in the convention register on Saturday at the Wesley Memorial church. Only the members of the board of the Home of the Friendless are exempt from registering. The registration cards serve as credentials, and are absolutely necessary. Badges will be given when the women register. Those serving who are not Kiwanis women will receive a guest badge. The young girls whose fathers are local Kiwanians will receive by mail badges which will admit them to the various entertainments and social activities of the week.

Of interest to many people, both local and out-of-town, was the announcement made by Mrs. Richardson that there will be an open club meeting at the Atlanta Woman's club on Monday at 8 o'clock at which time all Kiwanians are invited. This will be an opportunity for the visiting Kiwanians to see the actual club work and the routine of the club meeting.

Miss Martha Boykin Gives Lovely Party.

A lovely party of Thursday was the bridge-tee given by Miss Martha Boykin at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue in compliment to Miss Ellen Ramey, a bride-elect. Mrs. Kerfoot Hancock, a recent bride, and Miss Janet McRitchie, of Newman, the guest of Miss Maggie Perry.

The spacious rooms where the game was played were artistically decorated with Dorothy Perkins and rambler roses. The tea table was overlaid with a cover of fillet lace and graced in the center by a silver basket filled with Dorothy Perkins roses. Silver candlesticks, holding unshaded pink tapers, were placed at intervals.

Mrs. S. F. Boykin assisted her daughter in entertaining. She wore a gown of gray crepe and lace. Miss Boykin wore a flowered crepe combined with King's blue crepe. Mrs. Hancock was gowned in gray crepe worn with a gray hat trimmed with burnt goose feathers. Miss McRitchie wore a tan Roshanara crepe and a hat to match.

Musicians Club Will Give Dance.

A pleasant affair of the week-end will be the regular dance of the Musicians' club, which will be given at the Roseland hall, Peachtree street at Cain, beginning at 9 o'clock. Former visitors are cordially invited. Music by a seven-piece orchestra.

Drama League Class Will Not Meet.

The meeting of the Drama League Study class will not be held Friday owing to the indisposition of Mrs. Emma Garrett Boyd.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The executive board of the Atlanta Woman's club will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the clubhouse.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Memorial association will be held at 3 o'clock at Edison hall.

The Parent-Teacher association of Boys' High school will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Atlanta chapter, No. 57, O. E. S., will hold its regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the W. D. Luckie lodge room, corner Lee and Gordon streets.

The Georgia Baptist Hospital auxiliary will meet today.

A meeting of the Tech High Parent-Teacher association will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Central Congregational church.

The alumnae of St. Joseph's infirmary will meet at 3 o'clock.

The Friday Morning Reading class will meet with Mrs. Hugh Richardson on West Peachtree street.

The Piedmont union, W. C. T. U., will meet in Wesley Memorial Methodist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Miss Frances Royall, of LaGrange, who has been visiting Mrs. Howell McGaughey on Williams Mill road, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. J. B. Ozburn has returned to the city after a visit of three weeks to friends in Chattanooga, Etowah and Copperhill, Tenn.

Mrs. W. C. Wilbanks left yesterday for Cincinnati to visit her daughter, Mrs. Van Frank.

Miss Lillian Carter is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reeder, of New Orleans, at the Courant hotel, Louisville, Ky. Miss Carter attended the derby.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Martin motored to Lakemont for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Gilbert will spend a month in Detroit visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alban Macaulay.

Miss Sarah Orme has returned from an absence of several weeks in the north.

Mrs. Omar P. Elders will leave Friday to attend the alumnae banquet at Brown college and also the meeting of the board of trustees of which she is a member.

Miss Sarah Hall, of Athens, will visit Miss Elizabeth Carroll during Tech commencement week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carroll and Misses Mary and Elizabeth Carroll will be located in the McGhee apartments at Sixth and Peachtree streets after Tuesday.

Miss Lottie Wallie is improving after undergoing an operation Tuesday in the Wesley Memorial hospital, where she will remain a few days longer.

Miss Mary Carroll, Miss Mary Hill Bloodworth and Miss Elizabeth Brandon will leave June 5, with Mrs. Morris Brandon for Lexington, Va., to attend the commencement exercises at the V. M. I.

THE VITAL FLAME

BY MAY CHRISTIE
A Stirring Serial of Primitive Passions

CHAPTER LXXIII
Miles in the Witness Box.

Marcella rose, with dignity. This was going much too far.

"You forget yourself. I should be glad if you would go."

Leonie gave an angry titter like an infuriated h-bam.

"I won't go until I've said my say. Treman was mighty fond of you, though what he saw in you I'm not sure."

"If I know—except that you were sharp enough to play fast-and-loose with him, and he wasn't accustomed to that in woman. They mostly spoil him."

But—lowering her voice, and coming a step nearer the other—"what I want to know is, why did you let the engagement continue right up to the very day before the wedding? What was the idea, pray?"

Marcella was so astounded at the girl's insolence that she could not find her voice for a reply. The other went on, rapidly:

"You may say it's no business of mine, but I intend to make it my business. Sly little cats like you ought to be exposed. Confess, now, Treman had some sort of hold on you? Isn't that so?"

Marcella started. This abominable girl was getting near the truth.

The other saw that her shot had told.

"Treman had a hold on you," she continued triumphantly. "You first of all played him. To get all you could out of him. No, don't interrupt. That isn't the important part. But what is important, comes later. Tell me, her eyes narrowed like a cat's—tell me where you were at the time of the murder?"

"I will tell you nothing. You have no right to come here, like a detective."

Leonie gave a jeering laugh.

"All right, but don't forget I know a thing or two. I'm fond of Miles Holden, soft and silly as he is. And I don't intend that he shall go to the electric chair for this, if I can help it."

She stood for a moment uncertainly, then she said, in a different tone of voice:

"Why not own up? It's bound to come out at the inquest, anyhow."

"I don't understand you."

"Yes, you do. It's bound to come out, as you were."

With sudden recollection, Marcella thought of the queer rustling in the bushes late last night, when Miles and she had had their lovers' rendezvous. Had Leonie spied on them? Had she hidden herself in the undergrowth in the little wood, and watched, and listened?

Little did she really guess what was occurring in the other's mind.

The coroner's court was crowded. Long queues of people waited outside for admission.

Marcella, seated in the body of the court with Lady Warrington, felt as in some dreadful dream.

At a desk on a platform that headed the room sat the coroner, facing the assembly. To the left was the jury, on long benches. There was a table out in front, with some men sitting at it. Marcella had no notion who they were.

where. Oh yes, he first discovered his loss the last time he was in the States...or maybe on-boardship...he wasn't certain...

Marcella could see the bad impression deepened on the jury's faces. Miles' nervousness lest her name should be dragged to the light of day—their midnight rendezvous in the woods—that any possible aspersion should be cast upon the girl he loved—these fears made him hesitate, and weigh his words unthinkingly, so that his natural frankness and honesty of manner seemed at a discount.

He admitted leaving the house by the window, which was open. Reluctant in the cold light of the coroner's court, with hostile eyes upon him, there seemed no adequate explanation of that proceeding.

"I wanted to get away at once. It was a short cut," he repeated lamely. A little sigh, as of disbelief, went round the crowded room.

"And you admit that this is your revolver?"

"Yes."

"You did not drop it in the grass story tomorrow."

"No. No. I tell you I had no weapon of any sort when I went to the house. I haven't seen that revolver in months."

"Then isn't it rather a strange coincidence that you should have passed within a few feet of the very place where, later, it was found lying?"

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

Another fine installment of this

At Mather Bros.
An Astonishing Introductory Offer

This Splendid Kitchen Cabinet

$59.85

We want to introduce the famous Austell Kitchen Cabinet, so for a limited time we are making this remarkable offer.

The Austell Kitchen Cabinet is white enamel inside and out; has a porcelain top; comes complete with wire racks, all glassware and a fifty-pound flour bin. Fully guaranteed by Mather Brothers.

FREE
This Week Only

To everyone who buys our Austell Kitchen Cabinet, we will give absolutely free, a white porcelain-top kitchen table with drawer, easily worth $8.75.

A white enameled wide seat kitchen chair, easily worth $3.00.

A white enameled kitchen stool, 18 inches high, easily worth $1.75.

THIS COMPLETE OUTFIT

Austell Kitchen Cabinet, $59.85
White Porcelain Table, 8.75
White Enameled Kitchen Chair, 1.75
Total value$73.35

ALL FOR $59.85

Now you can have a beautiful white kitchen. Better act quickly—this sale is limited to only 150 outfits.

Mather Bros.

Furniture Exhibition Bldg. Phone MA. 3090. 44 S. Forsyth St.

$10 For Your OLD STOVE

OFFER Closes May 31

Six Carloads SOLD!!

It has been a record sale of gas ranges. Honestly, we would never have believed that so many people needed new gas ranges—but we saw them when they came, saw them when they bought, and saw them when they traded in their old stove to get a ten-dollar credit on the purchase price of a new one. But it was with pleasure that we installed so many modern, guaranteed, standard-made gas ranges.

Now Then---

This special offer closes May 31, at 5 p. m. It will pay you to take advantage of this offer, for, as we told you recently, there is going to be an advance in range prices, due to the fact that manufacturing costs have advanced, and the next shipment will cost us more. Consequently, our retail prices will be higher. We sell the best gas ranges made. The American Gas association approves and tests every range we sell before they are put on the market. Note the Roper Range in the illustration. It is equipped with labor-saving devices, rust-resisting linings, and ventilated ovens. Our other makes are just as good.

Georgia Railway and Power Co.

MORRIS Supreme

Ham and Bacon

The perfect flavored ham, always mild and tender

You're always sure of choice sweet-flavored ham if you select Morris Supreme Ham, government inspected for your protection. The special Supreme sugar cure gives it a different taste. You'll enjoy it thoroughly; in any way you serve it.

The many appetizing ways to serve Supreme Ham makes it good economy for buying a whole ham.

Ask your dealer for Supreme Ham and Bacon—and insist on getting it; it pays.

Sold by dealers who want their customers to have the best

Take Calotabs

for the liver

Beware of imitations. Demand the genuine in 10c and 35c packages bearing above trade mark.

Gives You Vigor and Brawn!
MUNYON'S PAW PAW TONIC
The Truest of Life

For Sale in Atlanta by Jacobs' Pharmacy and all other up-to-date druggists.—(adv.)

WOMAN'S SPECIALIST

Remedies as come and remedies may go in one long forgetting procession and are soon forgotten; but Dr. Pierce's wonderful herbal remedies have steadily endured for over fifty years and are as popular today as half a century ago, a splendid record, indeed.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, when a young and rising physician in Pennsylvania, learned the secrets of Nature's healing herbs that regulate the disorders of women, also that the Indian women passed easily through motherhood, and, using the same herbs and roots, he compounded an unequalled remedy for women, which he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of unsolicited testimonials from grateful women bear witness to its healing powers. Dr. Pierce's phenomenal success was due to the purity of his medicines and to the confidence he enjoyed as a leading and honored citizen of Buffalo, where he founded the Invalids' Hotel, known as a model sanitarium throughout the United States and Canada.

Sends 10c for trial sample to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.—(adv.)

Beau Rand

BY CHARLES ALDEN SELTZER

Next Week, "The Shadow of the Sheltering Pines."
BY GRACE MILLER WHITE

(Continued from yesterday.)
"Well?" interrogated Compton.
Morgan, who was a short man with energetic air and a squinting, quizzical eye, grinned faintly.
"He's sure a Simon-pure lover!" he said. "An' she sizes up plenty eager have him. I watched them—as you say, an' I'm that used to crawling my belly in the brush that there's no one when I'm certain I'm a loosed deceiver. Anyhow, they've got tick. At first she held off considerable—him not makin' no progress, it within the last day or so, she's ve in. An' this afternoon I seen em settin' close together on a log in the timber—Rand holdin' her an' an' speakin' gentle to her. What was tellin' her must have tickled a heap, for she was blushin' prodigious, an' not sayin' anything."
"That's all," said Compton shortly.

Eleanor had been making progress Bud, and upon the day Morgan made his report to Compton, she had been to the Three Bar again.
Bud and Aunt Betsy greeted her when she dismounted near the front porch, and for a time, as she sat on the porch talking with Aunt Betsy, she concealed her curiosity regarding the matter.

It was Aunt Betsy who told her that Rand had ridden to the big basin "see Larry Redfern." Likewise, it was Aunt Betsy who detected the sign of disappointment in Eleanor's face when the information had been given.

And later, when Aunt Betsy went to the house, Eleanor, feeling a trifle nervous despite the presence of Bud, looked at her pupil with steady, confident sternness.

"Bud," she said slowly, "you don't do you?"
"No," answered Bud.

"You don't—er—cuss" any more at you?"
"It ain't nice to cuss."

"That's true. No really intelligent person—that is, no smart man, or woman—she added, when she observed that Bud did not comprehend the word "intelligent"—cusses the things of his made."

"My dad is a smart man," Eleanor started and looked at Bud, who was a trifle glared in his eyes.

"My dad is a smart man!" repeated Bud, with emphasis.

"Why, of course," said the lady, under her breath.

This was a concession, and Bud looked triumphant. And his voice was triumphant as he added:

"An' my dad cusses, too—an' he's art."

Miss Seddon sat erect, and a stain appeared in each of her cheeks. She smiled forward.

"Bud," she said, reprovingly. "He don't."

"He does!" declared Bud, with a vengeance. "The cussin' on Bud's side cusses—lots. He cusses the sorrel horse; he cusses the saddle—when you sit on it."

"Bud," said the lady, her voice very low and solemn—so that Bud seemed to be in the air—"Bud," she said, "you don't cuss."

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

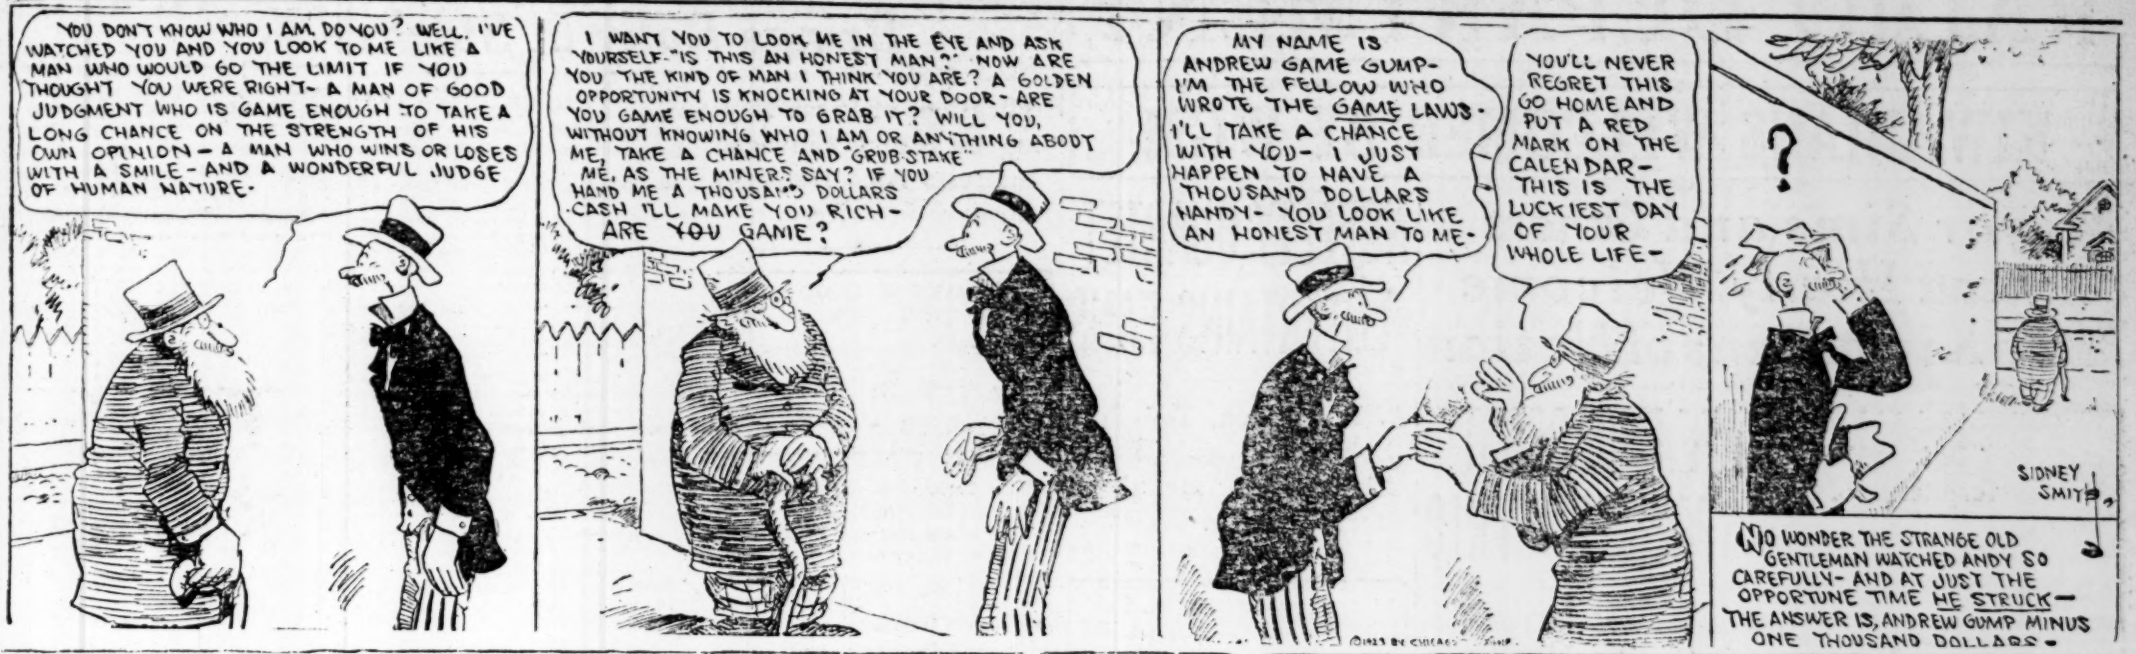

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

"You don't cuss?" That is—she said, "you don't cuss?"

THE GUMPS—A LEAP IN THE DARK think of any other way to get you to come over to the Three Bar—

"For shame!"
He stepped closer to her. "I didn't mean a whole lot of it," he said. "Between the two of us—if we go about it earnestly—we can cure him mighty rapid."
"I detect a liar," she said.
His face paled; but of course she did not see it, for she still stood with her back to him. But she heard him move, and a bluish suffused her face—for she was certain he was aping and prouder. And she was prepared to forgive him—in fact, she had never blamed him very much.
However, he was moving away from her. She heard his step grow fainter, and the color fled from her cheeks.
"Rand."
Her voice was soft, and it brought him to a halt before he had taken half-a-dozen steps.
He did not speak, looking wonderingly at her back.
"Of course," came her voice again, low and gentle; "there are liars—and liars."
He was close to her by this time.
"It wasn't such an awful crime," he said, hopefully.
"And if," she added, not seeming to know he had spoken; "there was a chance that a liar might reform—"
"I know one man who won't lie again!" he said.
"And would promise never to lie to me again—"
"I promise."
"Of course, Bud to lie—"
"I promise."
"Why, I might forgive him," she finished.
He was close to her by this time.
his eyes alight with knowledge and aflame with a joy that made the girl's eyes droop when she saw them.
A little later, sitting on the fallen tree trunk—where, from his lofty concealment, Lefty Morgan had seen them—Rand drew a great, long breath and patted the hand that lay so confidently in his.
"An' you say you hearin' Bud swear wasn't what made you come to the Three Bar?" he asked—again.
"No," she smiled; "I should have come—anyway—because—because I wanted to."
He grinned—and patted her hand again.
"I wasn't takin' any chances."
CHAPTER VII.
Dusk had fallen when Miss Seddon returned to the Bar S. She ate very little, and when she left the table she went out upon the porch, where, in a big chair, she meditated long, mentally reviewing the incidents of the day.
Suddenly she observed a moving blot that seemed to be coming toward her across the plain. After a while the blot developed into a horse and rider, and she noted with some curiosity that the rider was a woman.
She waited, saying nothing, until the woman dismounted, advanced to the porch edge and spoke.
"You are Eleanor Seddon?"
At Eleanor's low "Yes," the woman looked soberly at her.
"I am Lucia Morel, and I have come from Ocala to ask you to help me."
Continued Tomorrow.

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—What Every Shipper Knows

Jimmy's Money Making Scheme Works Well at This Season

Somebody Is Always Aaking the Joy Out of Life

